World-wide news, 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:20 and 10 p.m.

Don't fail to hear Al Brown, world's bantamweight champion; Newsboy Brown, California State bantamweight champion — the Browns are to be interviewed on the 12:30 noon world-wide news period.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Tonight there will be more of a choice of variety programs than concert music. There will be a play or two, and during the day a journey to school and a seat at the Institute of International Relations.

Let's attend the American School of the Air first. Through a Columbia special over KHJ at 11:30 we can accompany Marquette and Joliet in their preparations and voyage up the Mississippi. These dramatizations are excellent and should hold your dial.

For those interested in the eighth annual sessions of the Institute of International Relations—now being held at Riverside—KHJ submits the following schedule of speeches they will release:

Munday—Dr. Ernest A. Rayner. "The Psychology of International Relations."

Tuesday—Dr. Wilbur H. Lens. "Historical Background of the Manchurian Problem."

Wednesday—John E. Nerdskog. "The Trend of Political Events — Manchuria."

Thursday—Earle Fiske Young. "Central European Frontiers."

Friday—W. Ballentine Henley. "Expanding Citizenship."

The time of release of each of these talks will be indicated in the current day's High Lights.

For varieties—it would hardly be fair to attempt to do other than point to Today's Radio High Lights—there's everything from a yodel to murder serials.
