BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

Make way for a radio day pouring into your ears a galaxy of entertainers, breaking out first with a Los Angeles Breakfast Club frolic shooting Old Man 1931 away—a navy band concert—John Phillip Sousa—the coaches of both U.S.C. and Tulane—and that's only stumbling through a bit of it.

First up in the saddle comes KPWB at 8 o'clock this morning—the Breakfast Club saluting the New Year. They promise "two bands and a great host of artists from the Coconut Grove—Donald Novis, Loyce Whiteman, Dick Webster, Carlos Molino's Rhumba and Tango Band—with a background of ham and eggs.

You'll get a bit of the spirit of the New Year, when KHJ offers the United States Navy Band, coming over the eastern Columbia network with thirty minutes of martial music.

KFI at 5:30 o'clock discovers Goodyear sponsoring a new N.B.C. series. This Wednesday evening Count of John Phillip Sousa and his band—and the Revelers Quartet should bring half an hour of excellent entertainment.

And then we'll point to 8:30 o'clock tonight. Last-minute observations are to be made tonight by Coach Howard Jones of U.S.C. and Bennie Berman of Tulane. "Team Mates" is the program's title—and is to be released over KFI at 8:30 o'clock. Before you make your bets, listen to this athletic "Just Before the Battle Mother."
