BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

As the kids dash schoolward today the grown-ups may attend educational periods. If sports-minded, there's basketball and prize fighting; if not, the radio offers everything from Sylvia, the beauty builder, to KHJ saluting a new member of the Columbia-Don Lee chain, station KERN, Bakersfield.

Believe it or not, an estimated 6,000,000 children listen every Friday. KFI at 8 a.m. to Walter Damrosch's music appreciation hour. This is a national network release, which today includes Schumann's "Romanza," "Evocation of the Alpine Fay" and the First Movement, Concerto in A minor.

A nationally known investment counselor, Miss Clara Taylor, assumes the role of teacher in the American School of the Air (KHJ at 11:30) with vocational guidance lesson. This time it is to be "The Investment Field, Its Opportunities," for those who desire to follow the profession as a life work. Dr. Charles Fleischer also steps up to the head of the class to present an analytical review of the week's news events.

Columbia's "March of Time" feature (KHJ at 5:30) in dramatized form the execution of "Two-Gun" Crowley, Japanese military activities around Shanghai and the disruption of a nunnery in Spain by Communists are to be portrayed. Each character is depicted by a competent actor, the news authentic and the dramatization most interesting.

The Times Forum for this afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, will present Kyle D. Palmer, political writer of The Times, who will discuss topics in the world of politics, and Dr. Philip M. Lovell, editor of "Care of the Body" in the Times Sunday Magazine, who will give his audience some good-health advice.
