LEADING STOCKS RISE SLIGHTLY

Fractional Gains Recorded On Wall Street; Rail Profits Decline

LIMA STOCKS
Lima Locomotive Works, Inc., open 25¾, high 26, low 25¾, last 26.

NEW YORK, April 20—(AP)—Leading stocks managed to tack on small fractional gains in today's early market trading.

Boardrooms scanned the survey of the federal reserve board which disclosed department store sales thruout the nation in the week ended April 13, ran five per cent ahead of the corresponding period last year.

Those watching the rails noted that the first four roads to report for March suffered a decline in net operating income of 8.2 per cent from the like month a year ago despite a 3.2 per cent increase in gross revenues. The drop was blamed partly on heavier expenses invoived in repair of equipment and larger employment.

TRADE TREATY IS COMPLETED

BUCHAREST, April 20—(INS)—A trade agreement between Germany and Rumania, involving heavy exchanges of Rumanian raw materials for German manufactured goods, was completed today.

Dr. Karl Clodius, Nazi financial expert, concluded the pact after six weeks of negotiations. It extends a priority agreement for German absorption of Rumanian timber.

DIPLOMAT TO ICELAND NAMED

WASHINGTON, April 20—(INS)—Bertel E. Kuniholm, of Gardner, Mass., has been designated as the first American diplomatic representative to Iceland, it was learned today.

Kuniholm will be named consul to Reykajavik, the capital of the Northern island.

Having served in diplomatic posts at Moscow, Paris, Riga, Tallinn and Zurich, Kuniholm is considered an expert in eastern European affairs.

HENS RELEASE 40

TIFFIN, O., April 20—(AP)—Forty candidates have been released by the Tiffin Mud Hens of the Ohio State baseball league in current rookie tryouts.

EXPLAINS

Martial law was proclaimed thruout the Netherlands by royal decree issued after Premier Derek Jan De Geer (above) had announced in a broadcast that such a step was being taken to "anchor more solidly" the government's position in the face of internal and external danger.

CITED BY FRENCH

Arthur Stratton (above) of Clinton, Mass., has been given the Croix de Guerre with palms for bravery, the first American to be so honored in the present war. He is a driver for the American Ambulance Volunteer Corps in France.

DELPHOS MAN IS HURT IN LEAP OFF HIGH SPAN

CARNEGIE, Pa., April 20 — (AP) Police Chief Christ Kiesling reported a man jumped from a moving automobile on the Thornburg bridge yesterday, hurled the railing and dropped 60 feet to the top of a freight train.

Railroad workmen flagged down the train and removed the man, whose left knee was injured. Kiesling identified him as Ralph T. Hiett, 30, of Delphos, O., salesman for a gold-refining company in Pittsburgh.

Kiesling said Ernest Stemmerich of Fairmont, W. Va., driver of the automobile and a fellow worker of Hiett's told him the two were driving to Pittsburgh from Detroit when Hiett suddenly leaped from the car. Kiesling said Hiett declined to discuss his act.

* * *

Ralph T. Hiett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Hiett, 304 E. Fifth-st, and was graduated from St. John's parochial high school. He has been away from Delphos for some years working in Toledo before he went to Pittsburgh. His father is a retired Nickel Plate locomotive engineer.

His mother, who was visiting another son in Toledo, was expected home early Saturday morning and with her other son Louis, who is employed here, expects to leave for Pittsburgh at once.

ANOTHER HELEN KELLER?

Eleven-year-old Barbara Joyce Davis has been blind and deaf since an attack of meningitis eight years ago. And because of those afflictions, she has never learned to talk. A recent eye operation convinces a Memphis, Tenn., surgeon she will never see again, but he believes there is a chance to educate the child thru her sense of touch. Barbara is shown above with her mother, Mrs. T. M. Davis, after the operation. Friends hope the case will become a parallel to that of Helen Keller who mastered identical handicaps.

Stirring Tales To Be Told On Two Programs Saturday

"Sky Blazers" And "Gang Busters" Promise Action; Roosevelt To Address Young Democratic Clubs

An unknown killer stalked the north country in 1931, spreading terror among trappers and eskimos with his death-leading claws until wartime flier Wilfred May brought his airplane-on-skis into the search for the fiendish man-beast. How pilot May's plane, a caribou stampede and a posse of Canadian Northwest Police finally trapped this dangerous killer of the Arctic circle will be told by Col. Roscoe Turner, master-of-ceremonies, on Sky Blazers, Saturday at 1:30 p. m. over WABC.

The story of how an organization called Boys' Haven transformed the once-notorious Sixth Ward of Allentown, Pa., from a breeding place of criminals to one of the most respectable districts of the city will be told on Gang Busters, Saturday at 8 p m. over WABC.

Robert Rhedans, former newspaperman and founder-director of Boys' Haven, will trace the ever-increasing success of his institution in stamping out juvenile delinquency when he is interviewed on the program by Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf.

The Old Ranger will tell the story of the "Biggest Wagons in the World," the 20-mule team buggies used to haul borax out of the desert, during the "Death Valley Days" broadcast Saturday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF.

President Roosevelt, addressing dinner meetings of the Young Democratic Clubs of America being held thruout the nation on Saturday, will be heard over WEAF at 10:45 p. m. Speaking from the White House, the President will be introduced by Homer M. Adams, president of the Young Democratic clubs, who will be attending the dinner at the Willard hotel. The President's talk is scheduled to last 15 minutes.

With the Prairie Ramblers, vocal and instrumental cowboy quartet, and Pat Buttram, pride of Winston-co, Ala., as guests, the National Barn Dance troupe will meander down musical sideroads on their broadcast Saturday at 9 p. m. over WJZ. Song stops will include 'Buffalo Gals," by Arkie; "Asleep in the Deep," by Bassa Joe Parsons; and "Sweet Georgia Brown," by the Hoosier Hot Shots and Ann, Pat and Judy.

First major crew clash of the season — the annual Washington-California four mile event — will be broadcast over WJZ Saturday from 7:30 to 8:00 p. m.

The race brings together two of the nation's outstanding eights.

"The Flowers Are Not for You to Pick," one of the finest pieces of radio writing ever to come out of England, will be revived on the Landmarks of Radio Drama program over WEAF Saturday at 8:00 p. m. under the direction of Joseph S. Bell.

This wistful story of a young clergyman with an inferiority complex was written in 1931 by Tyrone Guthrie and had its American premiere two years later. Besides its purely dramatic interest, "The Flowers Are Not for You to Pick" is of historical importance because it is one of the very earliest examples of the use of the flashback technique on the air.

"The Incredible Clanahan," third play written in as many weeks by Ranald R. MacDougall for presentation on the Radio Guild, will be heard over WJZ Saturday at 8:30 p. m. The cast is to include Agnes Moorehead, Jeannette Dolan, Whitford Kane and Peter Donald under the direction of Howard L. Nussbaum.

DRIVERS TO BLAME

A Pennsylvania professor, on completing a five-year study of automobile accidents, concludes that at least 65 per cent of all traffic accidents can be blamed on the drivers.

ONE HURT, TWO ARRESTED IN AUTO MISHAPS

One man was injured and two drivers were arrested in a series of traffic accidents in Lima in the past 24 hours.

Injured was John R. Lockhart, 65, of 427 N. Pierce-st, who was struck by a car while he walking in Public-sq. In Memorial hospital, where he was taken in a Davis-Miller and Son ambulance, it was discovered he suffered a knee injury and a scalp wound.

Driver of the car was Albert Newson, 31, of 1131 W. Spring-st, police said.

As a result of an accident at Delphos-av and Baxter-st at 1 a. m. Saturday, William Shambarger, 41, of 951 W. North-st, was arrested on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. He is expected to appear in municipal court Saturday afternoon.

Police said a car driven by Shambarger and one operated by Arthur Imber, 34, of Delphos, were involved in collision. No one was injured.

J. P. Morgan, 17, of 1509 W. High-st, will face a charge of failing to yield the right of way in municipal court Saturday afternoon.

Police said Morgan's car and one operated by Clarence Hughes, 39, of 819 E. High-st, were damaged when in collision in the 100 block of N. Pierce-st Friday afternoon.

Six other vehicles were damaged slightly in three mishaps Friday, police reported.

Cars involved were ones operated by Don Amstutz, 18, of Pandora Route 1, and Neva Kidd, 31, of Bluffton, at Main and High-sts, Roy F. John, 53, of 866 W. Elm-st, and Karl E. Reynolds, 21, of 537 W. High-st, in the 200 block of S. Main-st, and Dale Kimmel, 21, of 708 E. Vine-st, and C. O. Imler, of Delphos, in the Public-sq.

Advance of British and Norwegian troops to a defense line between Namsos and the Swedish frontier is reported as allied expeditionary forces drive southward to rout German invaders based at Trondheim. Map shows highlights of action along Norway's jagged northern coastline.

GRAVE-DIGGERS STRIKE; PICKET BIG CEMETERY

CLEVELAND, April 20 — (AP) —A strike of grave diggers and gardeners today delayed burials at historic Lake View cemetery, the resting place of such famous men as President James A. Garfield, John D. Rockefeller and Newton D. Baker.

The workers, organized in the Arborists, Landscapers and Nursery Workers union (AFL), picketed the main gate and prevented four burials yesterday in seeking to enforce demands for higher wages.

Graves had been dug but truck drivers delivering burial vaults refused to go thru the line of 20 pickets. Funeral processions entered the cemetery, however, and caskets were placed temporarily in receiving vaults.

John B. Dempsey, president of the Lake View Cemetery-assn, said the entire crew of 70 went on strike after the association refused to sign a new contract with the union providing increases of seven to 13 cents an hour. An agreement which expired April 1 provided a scale ranging from 56 to 72 cents.

"The present demands are so unreasonable that we have nothing to consider," Dempsey said. "We are a non-profit organization and can only pay out what we take in. We will continue placing caskets in receiving vaults until the strike is settled
