$25,000 Sent to Narvik by U. S. Norwegians

The first $25,000 for relief of war sufferers in the Narvik area of northern Norway was cabled this week from the Chicago office of Norwegian Relief, Inc., to London, according to information received today by William T. Evjue, state chairman, from Birger Osland director, in charge of the national office of Norwegian Relief, Inc., 135 S. La Salle st., Chicago.

This first aid was requested by the Norwegian legation in Washington and was cabled to London, where a committee will buy hospital supplies, medicine and clothing to be forwarded to Norvik and northern Norway which is still under the independent Norwegian government of King Haakon VII.

Cuba has exempted naphtha from payment of taxes to the special public works fund.
