"War Against Depression" to Loosen Broadside

Dramatization of 'Hiawatha' High Light of Morning

The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m.
Dedicated to founders' day of the Parent-Teacher Association.
World-wide News, 7 a.m., 12:30, 5:15 and 10 p.m.

BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

In music everything from excellent brass to strings; in variety open house at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club, an excellent dramatization of Longfellow's immortal "Hiawatha," two or three good educational specials and—to bed with KOIN's argosy of music flowing to the "Isle of Golden Dreams."

Climbing astride "Ham," (KFWB at 8) President A. Schleicher of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will gallop through an entertainment to include Leo Carrillo in an original oration on George Washington, a group of songs offered by Ethelind Terry, and two boys titled "two pods of pepper" in a song dance-chatter act.

ECONOMICS TALKS

Next in line, why not the New York Advertising Club? KHJ at 10:15 a.m. releases a Columbia special embracing talks on the "War Against Depression" by leaders of the American Federation of Labor, the American Legion and the Association of National Advertisers. Each speaker will tell just what his respective organization is doing to meet the economic situation.

The American School of the Air's dramatization of Longfellow's "Hiawatha" (KHJ at 11:30) should prove a lovely thing. At this hour in the morning there is seldom a program of more merit on your dial.

And so, no matter what is dialed during the day, KOIN of Portland launches its music of "The Isle of Golden Dreams" at 9:30 over KHJ tonight. When the car is put away and the cat relegated to the back porch and it's sleepy time, thirty minutes in South Sea melodies really "listens good."

THE TIMES FORUM

With a tribute to the founders, Mrs. Alice McLellan Birney and Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, the first district, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, will broadcast a program on The Times Forum period over KHJ at 1:30 p.m., commemorating the thirty-fifth anniversary of the national organization.

The period has been designated Parent-Teacher Day. Mrs. Mary Parker Bort of Long Beach, district president, will give some of the early history of the organization and David Ray Arnold of Long Beach will present the latest development, fathers' councils. Mrs. O. H. Spradling of Glendale will speak on parent education and study circles.
