Eileen Quinlan and Georgia Tainter Play for Crown

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — (U.P.) — Eileen Quinlan, happy-go-lucky St. Paul, Minn., Irish lass, and Georgia Tainter of Fargo, N. D., Thursday advanced to the finals of the Western Women's Golf assn. junior tourney at the Chain O'Lakes course.

Miss Quinlan, who has had by far the roughest tourney path of any contestant, proved her iron nerves for the second match in a row, downing Jeanne Cline, Bloomington, Ill., one up in 19 holes.

It wa her second overtime match in two days. Wednesday she defeated Margaret Gunther, Memphis, Tenn., one up in 20 holes. In the first round she whipped Phyllis Otto, Atlanta, Ia., the tourney medalist.

Dolph Is Recovering From Accident

Injured in a collision with Buddy Hassett of the Boston Bees, Dolph Camilli, first baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is recovering in a Boston hospital. Dolph is shown being comforted by his wife.

Dodgers Cinch to Win Hospital Championship

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

CINCINNATI — (U.P.) — The Brooklyn Dodgers may not win the National League pennant but they should clinch the hospital championship of the majors.

When Leo Durocher, Dodgers' pilot arrived Thursday from the All-Star game in St. Louis, the sad news awaiting him was that Hugh Casey, his big righthander, was hit in the head by a pitched ball during an exhibition game in Johnstown, Pa., Wednesday night.

Casey is the third Dodger to be laid low by a pitched ball in a little over a month. Before him it was Peewee Reese and Joe Medwick.

Although word came from the Mercy hospital in Johnstown that x-rays revealed no fractures, it's doubtful if Casey will be ready to pitch during Brooklyn's 11-day western trip.

Only a handful of Dodgers have come through the first half of the season without something happening to them. Dixie Walker, Gus Mancuso, Herman Franks and a few of the pitchers are the only Dodgers who escaped injury.

First Baseman Dolf Camilli came here nursing a badly bruised neck and isn't in condition yet to play. He was struck by one of Buddy Hassett's flying knees in a collision at first base in Boston Sunday. Camilli had played in more than 300 consecutive games when he was hurt.

All the other members of the Dodgers' infield have been laid up at one time or another. Pete Coscarart was out for 10 days with a spiked knee. Reese was beaned once and was out another time with a charley horse. Leo Durocher has had arm trouble and had to take himself out of the lineup another time after a collision with Ernie Koy at second on a double play. Cookie Lavagetto was troubled with a bad shoulder.

Joe Vosmik injured his chest in a collision with Slats Marion of the Cards and then after he recovered he hurt his hip sliding into the plate. Charlie Gilbert suffered a cut leg.

Casey was bothered with arm trouble before he was hit in the head, Luke Hamlin had sciatica, Whit Wyatt had a sore elbow and Van Mungo left the club to have an operation performed on his shoulder at Johns Hopkins hospital.

McNeill Advances Into Semi-Finals

FOREST HILLS, N. Y.— (U.P.) — Top-seeded Don McNeill defeated Tom Kelly, Portland, Ore., 6-0, 6-2 to advance to the semi-finals of the New York State Clay court tennis champions Thursday.

McNeill next plays Bob Harman, Oakland, Calif., seeded fourth, who won over sixth-seeded Joey Fishbach, New York, 6-8, 6-0, 6-3.

William Gillespie, Atlanta, Ga., and Richard McKee, Miami, Fla., defeated George Pero and William Hardcof, both of Miami, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, and Elwood Cooke, Portland, Ore., and Harman, won over William Pardoe, Provo, Utah, and Frank Mchner, Salt Lake City, 6-2, 6-4 in the doubles quarter-finals.
