Vandenberg, Lodge to Speak for Willkie on Airwaves Tonight

One of radio's most popular programs features the Texas Rangers with the voice of Martha Mears, pictured here. The Rangers, eight young men who sing and play songs of the hills, are heard over a large number of stations. They've won a number of "popular program contests" and are expected to win more.

Sens. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R., Mich.), and Henry Cabot Lodge (R., Mass.), will speak on the air tonight in behalf of Wendell L. Willkie's presidential candidacy. Vandenberg will talk at 8:45 over WBBM and Lodge at 7:30 over WIBA and WLS.

Other outstanding programs for tonight, classified:

'Over Here'

WINSLOW, Ariz. — (U.P.) — An old story concerning military enlistment efforts directed toward the Apache Indians during the first World war has been revived.

In 1917, the Arizona Indians heard a voluble Army recruiting sergeant describe the war and overseas journey to Europe. It was an eloquent plea.

Afterward the Indians consulted among themselves. The Apache tribal leaders ultimately issued this statement:

"Yes, we will fight, but you bring the enemy here—we fight them good here!"

Packers End Hard Work for Battle With Steelers

MILWAUKEE— (U.P.) — The Green Bay Packers rested today after a week of strenuous workouts in preparation for Sundays important National Professional Football League game with the Pittsburgh Steelers at State Fair park here.

With two defeats already charged against them, the champion Packers realized they must whip the Steelers to stay in the running for the league title. Coach E. L. Lambeau worked his players at top speed all week following their rout by the Detroit Lions last Sunday.

Coach Walter Kiesling's team is reported the best ever to represent Pittsburgh in the National League. They whipped the Chicago Bears in an exhibition game and later beat the Detroit Lions. Both teams humbled the Packers this season.

Kiesling, himself a former Packer, has two ex-Green Bay players in his lineup. They are Hank Bruder, blocking back, and Fullback Swede Johnson.

The game will be the Packers' last appearance in Wisconsin this season.

Duquesne Rallies to Score 10-6 Win

PITTSBURGH — (U.P.) — Duquesne university's football team came from behind after an early Manhattan score to defeat the New York team, 10-6, here Friday night.

Duquesne took the lead early in the second half after Manhattan had pushed across a touchdown in the opening minutes of the initial period. The Manhattan kick for point after touchdown was bad, and Duquesne pushed ahead, 7-6. Duquesne added a further margin of safety in the last period on a field goal by John Rokiskey.

Manhattan End Dave Farabaugh scored for the Jaspers within the first two minutes after he blocked a punt on the Duquesne 25. He took a pass on the 12, from Jim Supulski, and scored standing up. Gnup's kick was wide.

Duquesne scored for the first time in the second half, End Hank Maliszewski tallying on a long pass from Phil Ahwesh on the Manhattan 45. Ahwesh's kick was good.

Squirrels Starve, He Complains

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. —(U.P.)— R. S. Menefee, former school board president, has accused city officials of robbing the squirrels of their pecans for $760.

Menefee lodged a petition with the city clerk asking that the council nullify a contract selling the pecans in Brackenridge Park to J. T. Baker of San Saba.

"The park, and the pecans belong to all the cititzens of San Antonio, and the city council, acting in the name of the taxpayers, can't legally sell them.

"And the squirrels are starving," Menefee said.

"The Authority on Authorities"

IT IS NOT GUESSING

THOUGHTLESS players guess frequently as to the way a particular suit should be played. There are times when even the best must do this, but they do not occur often. Nearly always there is some indication regarding the likely location of missing cards. When there are none, there still is the good old standby, probability, to serve as a guide. When there are no counter indications, it is better to have probability on your side, rather than against you.

There is nothing to the making of this contract except playing the trump suit sanely. West took his spade K and A, and, for lack of a better lead, offered a third round to the dummy's Q.

South made a study of the situation, and decided to become brilliant. He reckoned that, with West having only a four-card spade suit, he must have quite a bit of honor strength, and hence was pretty likely to hold the heart A. In fact, it might be a singleton, with East holding three headed by the J. So, to protect himself against this, he promptly led a small heart to the third trick and played the 10. When the J won this, he was fit to be tied. The heart A, of course, furnished the setting trick a bit later.

North gave South a very simple lesson. If he was going to play West for a singleton A and East for three headed by the J, he should have played the Q from dummy first. That would have given him protection against the situation that did exist and also against the one his hunch made him fear.

Your Week-End Lesson

Do you understand the type of lead throwing end-play on which an opponent is obliged to make a return which enables you to discard a loser from your hand or dummy while ruffing in the other hand? Can you set up an example of it?

Six Recruits Push Enlistments to New Record

Six enlistments announced Friday at the Madison army recruiting office in the federal bldg. helped to boost the October recruiting record here toward an all-time record.

More than 70 already have enlisted here since Oct. 1, Sgt. Norman S. Cluxton reported.

Four of the six new recruits, all from Madison, will be assigned to air corps service in the Hawaiian islands. They are Garrett Runey, 1616 S. Park st.; Richard Johnson, 4147 Iroquois dr.; William Prahl, Rt. 45; and Gordon Rutel, 807 Mound st.

Elmer Lyster, 142 S. Hancock st., and Lloyd Cripps, 221 N. Sixth st., enlisted in the 61st Coast Artillery at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Defense Trade Brightens Texas' Industrial View

HOUSTON, Tex. —(U.P.)— The Texas Gulf coast, continues a depression bright spot, continues to shine on the nation's business map despite vanished foreign markets for petroleum and cotton.

Private and national defense industrial building and public works costing more than $250,000,000 have jumped the retail sales barometer in this area 28 per cent.

Effects of national defense spending have not approached a peak. Private construction alone for the first nine months of 1940 totaled more than $34,000,000 in Houston, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, and Galveston.

CARROLLTON, Ga.— (U.P.) — Bernice, a faithful hen, is a regular attendant at Pleasant Grove Baptist church. Three years ago she made her nest in the church. To pay her tithe, she lays an occasional egg.

Navy Has Sufficient 'Shots' Ready

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The United States navy has sufficient ammunition on ships, at shore bases and on production lines to support the fleet indefinitely if it should become involved in major war engagements.

Navy spokesmen said that ammunition stocks have been built up on shore dumps in the United States and at island bases, particularly Pearl Harbor in Hawaii, during the last few years.

The fleet now carries a full complement of fighting ammunition, in addition to target shells, which are only loaded with sufficient explosives for propellent purposes. Target supplies on all ships were recently reduced, however, to make room for greater stocks of live ammunition.

Production of naval ammunition is great enough to keep the fleet supplied indefinitely if it had to start firing on a large scale.

This production capacity, the navy said, applies to torpedoes, of the types launched from airplanes and from torpedo boats and submarines, as well as ammunition for big naval rifles and anti-aircraft guns.

The navy temporarily is short on supply vessels in the event of large scale operations but is speeding negotiations for acquiring 53 auxiliaries from the merchant marine.

It was learned that contracts are closed or ready for closing on 22 auxiliary vessels and that the maritime commission is rushing purchases of 33 additional ships.

MONTGOMERY, Ala.— (U.P.) — Dr. J. N. Baker, state health officer, writes in an article in Alabama Social Welfare that "malaria is believed to have exerted a greater influence upon the general well-being of the people of Alabama and the south generally than Sherman's march to the sea."

Here is a trio of players from "THE FARMER'S DAUGHTER," the feature that will be shown at the midnight show at the Strand theater Saturday night. The show is for the benefit of Co. G, 128th Infantry's mess fund. Martha Raye, in the name role, shares the featured honors with Charlie Ruggles and William Frawley.—Adv.
