Monticello, Orfordville Still Tied

The first place deadlock between Monticello and Orfordville in the State Line League cage standings remained intact Friday night as the two teams chalked up their seventh straight conference wins.

Monticello turned back Albany, 30-23; Orfordville tipped Argyle, 14-11. In other loop games Friday night Blanchardville trounced Juda, 36-19, and Hollandale nipped Brooklyn, 21-20. Belleville upset New Glarus, 25-18, Thursday night.

Albany gave Monticello a close fight during the first half and the victors had only a 15-14 lead at the intermission. Monticello pulled away in the second half, however, as "Booby" Kissling, Ed Loeffel, and Wilbert Marty paced its attack.

Orfordville gained a 10-5 lead over Argyle in the first half; the two clubs then waged a defensive struggle through the other three periods. Argyle outscored the winners in field goals, 5-4, but made only one of 11 free throws while Orfordville was making six of nine.

Juda surprised Blanchardville by taking a 9-5 lead at the quarter, but the latter moved into command in the second quarter and led, 13-9, at the half. Blanchardville made the game a rout with 17 points in the fourth quarter.

Hollandale's free throw accuracy spelled out its win over Brooklyn. Hollandale made seven of nine gift shots while Brooklyn made four of 12; Brooklyn had an 8-7 edge in baskets.

Recent Caddy Tops Crosby Meet Scores

RANCHO SANTA FE, Cal.—(U.P.)—The tradition that a new golfing star is born in every Bing Crosby pro-amateur tournament held again today as young Bill Nary, a caddy just three years ago, chalked up a brilliant 67 for 18 holes of play over rain-lashed Santa Fe course and took a lead which may never be headed.

Following in the footsteps of Sam Snead, E. J. Harrison, and Ed Oliver, the lithe blond boy put together a 35 and a 32 for his par-shattering effort to equal the competitive record of the course at which he is the home professional. He did it on slushy fairways and sticky greens and proved he is as good a bet as any to take down the major part of the $3,000 prize money in the finals Sunday.

Although Nary was shooting against only the lesser half of the field when he broke par by five strokes in the first half of the first round, his effort appeared strong enough to stand against the heavy firing of the performers who tee off on their first trip today.

When the big-time pros go away this morning under conditions which are greatly improved over those of the first round Friday, Nary holds a margin of three strokes above the field. In second position was Marvin Stahl of Lansing, Mich., with 70, and behind him came Gordon Brunton of Riverside, Cal., and Lorman Kelly of Philadelphia at 71.

Jacobs May Arrange Six 'War Bouts'

NEW YORK —(U.P.)— Promoter Mike Jacobs was trying to arrange today a series of six "war bouts" in six United States cities between the best American and British professional fighters for the benefit of the British Red Cross and Canteen Service.

The matches would include a return heavyweight championship battle between Joe Louis and Tommy Farr of Wales.

Cables were sent Friday night to London asking if six suggested British pugilists would be granted furloughs for a team trip to the United States. It is believed that the furloughs can be obtained because the proposal of the "war matches" originated in England.

Jacobs said he was eager to promote these bouts in New York, Los Angeles, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago. He was confident they would draw big tions to the British Red Cross and gates and make robust contributions to the British Red Cross and Canteen funds.

A group of prominent British sportsmen originated the idea.

The British team would include Tommy Farr, who gave Louis a hard 15-round fight back in 1937, and five current British Champions; Len Harvey, heavyweight; Jack McAvoy, middleweight; Ernie Roderick, Welterweight; Eric Boon, Lightweight, and Jackie Patterson, flyweight.

In addition to the Louis-Farr match, another heavyweight encounter would pair Harvey and either Lou Nova or Maxie Baer. McAvoy could tangle with either of our middleweight champions, Ken Overlin and Tony Zale. Roderick could engage Welter Champ Fritzie Zivic; Boon square off against the lightweight king, Lew Jenkins, and the world flyweight title dispute could be settled by Patterson of Scotland meeting Little Dado.

American fighters could keep their purses, while the British boys would donate their shares to the British funds. In addition a portion of the profits also would go to the funds.
