BY DOUG DOUGLAS

KFI at 7:45 this morning lends a hand to folk who want to "get out on the right side of the bed" for the day's work. At this time they inaugurate a new inspirational series. The program consists of music and talks, strictly non-dogmatic and designed to meet a long-felt need of an early morning offer of serious and uplifting character. The program is open to all churches and ministers under the conditions.

Don Lee radio station KHJ also boasts an excellent inspirational hour under the direction of Dr. Cecil Cheverton, president of California Christian College. This may be heard at 7:15 a.m. daily.

"The Witching Hour," by Augustus Thomas, will be the Radio Guild's presentation (KECA-1 p.m.) The phenomenon of thought transference is dealt with in a dramatic manner in this classic story. If you would dial your way schoolward, then drop into the class of the American School of the Air (KHJ, 11:30 a.m.) Today the life of that famous British statesman, Benjamin Disraeli, is to be dramatized.

Skidding in with a bang and a couple of crashes, KHJ's Blue Monday Jamboree tonight tears the lid off several boxes of tricks. The skipper is Harrison Holloway and Claud Sweeten, new musical director of KFRC (in which studio this jamboree originates) is to weave his melodies in and about the merry madhouse.

Memories of old Vernon will come to those who dial KRKD at 8:30 tonight to listen to John Driscoll recreate the Rivers-Wolgast prize fight. A tragic note is struck in this broadcast. For Ad is now a patient at Norwalk State Hospital and trains assiduously for "the championship fight" he believes is soon coming up.

TUNING IN

The Shadow Man of the Radio Rogues lost his best girl last night. Was sofa-settin' when Tiny Newland came on the air. The way he weaves these exotic songs simply siew her. You know, the heart-rending kind of in-the-gloaming effect. Sail around the radio waves with KHJ's Paradise Islanders.

TINY NEWLAND

Remember the old hourglass? With its funny grains of sand offers a new feature, "The Hourglass" Concert. At 7 tonight on KECA. Better known operatic, semiclassical and modern musical comedy numbers.

Hudson Lyons of KHJ has a new pair of pants. This is just a social note for the folk who like to read fan chatter.

Kinda like the sound of it. "Around the Hearth," KFWE's concert at 7:30 this evening. Soft lights. Soloists. Jack Joy's orchestra.

No, KNX will not broadcast the beer keg rolling contest from the Eastside Brewery to the Paris Inn. A drop-by-drop broadcast wouldn't be a bad idea at that. Jack Carter should look into this.

One thing I like among others about Burr McIntosh is that he really practices what he preaches. Saw him one day on a Hollywood street car, with a bottle of pop in one hand and a bag of peanuts in the other. That's a real Cheerful Philosopher. KFAC at 7:45 tonight.

Quick, Watson, the papers! For Nick Harris has moved his detective story hour to KECA at 8 this evening. Crooks. Murder. Love. All pages torn from actual crime cases.

Got a lot of titles snarled the other day. Mahlon Merrick is the general program director of the Don Lee system. And Paul Rickenbacker is production manager of KHJ. One of these two gentlemen is going to get married my pronto. Won't tell which one, but it isn't the general program director.
