HISTORICAL SOCIETY BEGINNINGS

The State Historical Society of Wisconsin was organized between October 14 and 25, 1846, but no one is sure of the exact date because records of the early meetings were either not kept or have disappeared.

HARESFOOT APPOINTMENT

Jack Rael, University of Wisconsin senior from Milwaukee, has been appointed assistant musical director of the 16-piece Haresfoot band, Dick Toellner, musical director, has announced.

Murder Victim

Discovery of the body of pretty Mrs. Mildred Williams, 22, trussed in an old trunk, has led to an alleged confession by Mrs. Minnie Lee Griffin, 46, that she beat the young woman to death, according to Atlanta, Ga., police. Mrs. Griffin told detectives she had believed Mrs. Williams was attempting to steal the love of her son-in-law. Members of both families denied this allegation.

1,000 Reach Army Resettlement Area

MANZANAR, Calif. —(U.P.)— Alien Japanese and Japanese-Americans began working in their Owens valley resettlement community today to construct facilities for 60,000 Pacific coast Japanese who will be moved inland for the duration of the war.

One thousand of them, the first large contingent to evacuate southern California coastal defense areas, arrived at the reception center Monday night by train, and automobile, accompanied by a military escort. They will prepare facilities for the thousands more to come.

About 100 Japanese, who came Saturday, had erected prefabricated houses. All Japanese here now voluntarily left the coastal area.

Speedy Construction

Within a few hours the community assumed the appearance of a well-ordered and established settlement.

David Hayashi, 23, who drove a produce truck loaded with baggage up here Saturday and again Monday, expressed surprise at the growth of the reception center in the two days he was gone.

"When we arrived Saturday," he said, "there was only one barracks completed and the siding up on another. Now there are 28 built and ready to move into."

Supper was served army fashion. It consisted of mulligan and rice, beans and bread. Officials then distributed bedding.

Work began today on various projects around the settlement. Unskilled workers will be paid $50 a month and skilled workmen will get $94, with $15 a month deducted for subsistence.

Fertile Farm Lands

Authorities expect that the community eventually will be self-supporting. The rich lands of the Owens valley will produce more than enough foodstuffs. Skilled craftsmen among the evacuees will make some of the simpler mechanical necessities.

Although they were leaving their homes, the evacuees were in high spirits, knowing that here, 250 miles from Los Angeles, they no longer would be under suspicion.

Tallon Niynjima, 47, a gardner, has no doubt that he would like his new home.

Plenty of Work Now

"Since the beginning of the war, I've had 12 days of work," Nijayima said. "Tomorrow I go to work steady. I know I'm going to like it here.

Maj. C. V. Cadwell, in charge of the evacuees, said he was "well satisfied" with the first convoy.

A military policeman, driving a sedan, puzzled over his position.

"It's sure a funny world," he said. "Here I join the army to fight the Japs and they give me the job of protecting them."
