85 Officers Attend FBI School

More than 85 law enforcement officers from southern Wisconsin attended a quarterly conference with federal bureau of investigation agents at the federal building Friday.

The men witnessed an exhibition of firearms use at the police pistol range in the afternoon. Demonstrated were sub-machine guns, rifles, shotguns, and pistols.

Panama has banned private radio stations.

Five to Represent Sons of Norway at District Meeting

Five Madison delegates of Idun lodge, Sons of Norway, left today for the district convention at Kenosha today and Sunday. Wisconsin, Illinois, and Michigan comprise the district.

The Madison delegates are R. N. Qualley, Helen Stunes, Olav O. Edland, Iver M. Kalnes, and Olaf Wick.

O. T. Ullsvik, secretary of the district, left ahead of the Madison delegation to attend a meeting of the executive committee Friday.

Alf Kjeverud, a trustee of the supreme lodge of the Sons of Norway, will represent the supreme lodge and be a guest at the convention in Kenosha.

At the district convention, delegates will be elected to the supreme lodge convention in Chicago in August.
