600 Inland Sailors On Air At Miami University Campus

"Yanks At Oxford" Will Present Special Broadcast Saturday Night; Bill Stern To Present Joe McCarthy

"Six Hundred Yanks at Oxford" will present a special broadcast from Benton hall, Miami university, Oxford, over station WLW on Saturday at 9:30 p. m.

Designed to acquaint the public with the information that sailors for Uncle Sam's Navy are being trained hundreds of miles from the nearest sizeable body of water, the program was arranged thru the cooperation of the station's department of Program Co-ordination headed by Miss Katherine Fox and the Training School's Public Relations Department under Lieut Stanley Craft.

Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, whose keen sense of baseball and men who play it, has resulted in five pennants for the Bronx Bombers, will be guest star on Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel of the Air" Saturday, at 10 p. m. over WEAF.

WJZ will conclude its series of Summer Symphony concerts on Saturday, at 9 p. m., with the presentation of Desire Defauw as the guest conductor. The Belgian maestro was responsible for Brussels becoming one of the most important musical centers of pre-war Europe.
