Hobby Lobby Will Return To Its Saturday Schedule

Mitzi Green And Other Celebrities Scheduled For Gala Opening Program On Its Original Spot

Mitzi Green, celebrated gamin of the stage and screen, will be one of the headliners on Dave Elman's Hobby Lobby when the program returns to its original Saturday evening spot over WEAF beginning Saturday at 8:30 p. m. During the summer months the program was broadcast on Tuesdays.

Also appearing on this first-of-the-new-Saturday-series is a hobbyist who can control a model train with his voice; and a bronco-busting cowboy whose hobby is square dancing.

There is no more enthusiastic person than a baseball fan and dialers will hear eight of them when Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson hold a public unveiling of their new quiz series, "Mr. Adam and Mrs. Eve," over WABC Saturday at 8 p. m. The "Eves" team will comprise girls who are ardent rooters of the Yankees and the "Adams" will be cheer-leaders of the Cards. Awards to contestants will be made in war bonds and stamps. Gene Clarke will produce the program and Ted Pearson will announce.

Radio's hilarious gag-fest, "Can You Top This?" which has been laying 'em in the aisles in New York for a year-and-a-half, has been acquired for broadcast over WEAF Saturday at 9:30 p. m.

Retaining its original format of featuring the country's three outstanding joksters — "Senator" Ford, Harry Hershfield and Joe Laurie, Jr.—with Peter Donald, man of many accents, interpreting the contributed jokes, "Can You Top This?" will continue to make its weekly depredations on gloom and sadness with greater gusto than ever before.

Resuming his weekly "Religion in the News" summaries Saturday at 6:30 p. m., over WEAF, Dr. Walter W. Van Kirk returns to the network for his 8th consecutive year. Presented in cooperation with the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Dr Van Kirk's weekly 15-minute program is a digest of the important religious news of the week.
