"Information, Please" Will Broadcast Sports Greats

Grantland Rice And Ford Frick To Be Guest Experts Monday; Lily Pons To Close Series

Sports will highlight the "Information, Please" program on Monday, at 10:30 p. m., (EWT), over Station WABC, when Grantland Rice, noted sports commentator and authority, and Ford Frick, president of the National Baseball league, will be guest experts on the broadcast.

Lily Pons will close the 1942-43 season of "Great Artist Series" Monday over WEAF at 9 p. m., EWT. The fourth season of the series begins the following April 26, with Jascha Heifetz.

David Harding, ace American agent, thinks there's something cooking beside bigamy when he gets reports of an attractive young nurse married to an Army lieutenant, a sergeant, and a private, during the "Counterspy" program, Monday at 9 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

William Powell, the screen's "Thin Man," essays a role far removed from sleuthing when he appears on the "Ceiling Unlimited" broadcast Monday over Station WABC at 7:15 p. m., EWT, in a vehicle written by Harry Kronman and called "God's Corporals."

Wainwright Day, honoring the Philippine and American armies who fought on Bataan, will be observed by the State of Connecticut in a special commemorative broadcast Monday over WEAF at 12:15 p. m., EWT.

Mystery and comedy highlight Cecil B. DeMille's production of "A Night to Remember," which will star Ann Southern and Robert Young on the program to be heard Monday at 9 p. m., EWT over WABC.

W. H. White, entomologist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will tell city gardeners how to controll bugs, beetles, cutworms, grasshoppers and other insect pests that gang up on vegetable gardens when he speaks on the "Victory Gardens" broadcast, Monday at 12:45 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

In the spring, when a young man's fancy is lightly turning to thoughts of love, a young woman's fancy usually is turning, not so lightly, to thoughts of spring housecleaning. Falling in with the seasonal trend, "Blondie Cleans House," with amusing results, on Monday, at 7:30 p. m., EWT., over WABC.

The strange tale of a solitaire-playing old man who solves the mysterious death of his son-in-law by a deck of cards will be told to Anne Rogers, syndicated columnist, on "Hot Copy" Monday over WEAF at 11:30 p. m., EWT.

There'll be standing room only around your radio when Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn, that dynamic twosome of the screen, recreate their original film roles in "Woman of the Year" on the "Screen Guild Players" program over Station WABC at 10 p. m., EWT., Monday.

SERVE COUNTRY AND YOURSELF BY BUYING BONDS

By BYRON PRICE
Director, Office of Censorship
(Written for The Associated Press and The Lima News)

The first thing any of us should be thinking about today is the winning of the war. If your extra dollars hasten victory by even a fraction of a second, they will be well spent.

The second thing we should be thinking about is security after the war is won. A war bond is your government's promise to help you in the uncertain years of readjustment after the victory. It is a promise to pay you — with interest.

You serve your country and yourself by buying war bonds.

ANNUAL BACH FESTIVAL TO BE HELD AT BEREA

The 11th annual Bach Festival of Baldwin-Wallace college, Berea, will be held Friday and Saturday and will include dedication of the new $2,000 harpsichord built for the college.

Concerts will be held at 8 p. m. Friday, and at 4 and 8 p. m. Saturday, with soloists Mary Marting, soprano, Elizabeth Wysor, contralto, Clyde Keutzer, tenor, Wilson Angel, bass, George Poinar, violin, and John Challis, harpsichord.

More than 30,000,000 immigrants have been admitted to the United States since 1868.

Food Racketeering Is Basis For Action On Lyric Screen

John Litel And Florence Rice Starred In "Boss Of Bigtown;" Ann Shirley Performing At Sigma

On Tuesday the Lyric will present, "Boss of Big Town," starring John Litel and Florence Rice and telling how racketeers control the food supply of a large American city thru operating a city market. Lloyd Nolan and Marjorie Weaver have many thrills in "Just Off Broadway," which also will start Tuesday along with a feature, "World at War." Showing thru Monday will be "Little Tokyo, U. S. A." and "Haunted Ranch."

In "Lady Bodyguard," current Sigma hit, it is the job of petite Anne Shirley, who tips the scales at 100 pounds, to see that Eddie Albert, a test pilot for an airplane company, comes to no harm. She is cast as an insurance executive. "Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man," a thriller, completes the program.

One of the finest comedies of the season, "Margin for Error," based on a story written by Clare Booth Luce, is showing at the Quilna with Milton Berle portraying an officer and Joan Bennett as his sweetheart. "Chetniks," a story packed with action, also will show thru Friday afternoon.

Laughs are plentiful in the hit currently flashing on the Ohio screen. In "The Crystal Ball," many unusual things happen to beautiful Paulette Goddard many unusual things happen after she becomes acquainted with a fortune teller, portrayed by Gladys George, Ray Milland, Virginia Field and William Bendix also have principal roles.

Two first class hits are at the State and leading actors and actresses include Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Alan Ladd, Helen Walker, Ann Rutherford and Esther Williams. "Andy Hardy's Double Life," deals with Andy getting ready to go away to college while the other hit tells about a gangster who gets inducted into the Army.

"Tragedy at Midnight" and "Men of Texas" are showing at the Majestic.

Now showing at the Drive-in theatre is "The Magnificent Dope," one of the best comedies made in 1942. It stars Henry Fonda, Lynn Bari and Don Ameche.

LYRIC

A timely and gripping drama of food racketeering during the present day emergency is scheduled for showing Tuesday on the Lyric theatre screen when "Boss of Big Town" arrives for a limited three-day engagement.

"Boss of Big Town" has an all-star cast including John Litel, Florence Rice, H. B. Warner and little Patricia Prest, a six-year-old Canadian youngster who literally steals the show from her more experienced associates.

Built about the tracing down and breaking up of a gang of political bigwigs, intent on tieing up a city's food supply, this feature offers timely comment on the evils of food waste and hoarding and in addition is full of dynamic power and suspense. Critics everywhere have hailed it as one of the season's better pictures.

Lloyd Nolan leads a double life in "Just Off Broadway," tracking down a double murder by day and dabbling in romance by night. The film, a suspenseful mystery drama, is the latest in the popular Michael Shayne detective melodrama and opens at the Lyric theatre Tuesday.

QUILNA

Charging the screen with high-voltage action and suspense, "Chetniks!" The Fighting Guerrillas is at the Quilna theatre!

Thrill follows thrill, as the daring Balkan patriots fight to destroy the conqueror's dream of conquest. An enemy troop train is destroyed; an ammunition dump blown sky-high; an enemy patrol ambushed. That's the handiwork of the death-defying men whose story is the story of people everywhere fighting the invader on their native soil.

While stirring action highlights the film, there is a full share of romance and drama, too, as the guerrilla leader, played by Philip Dorn, and his men fight against staggering odds for the women, as well as the freedom, they love.

The film finds the occupying forces unable to copt with the Chetniks. As a last resort, they attempt to capture the leader thru his wife and children. When the townsfolk refuse to betray the whereabout of the leader's family, they are threatened with starvation. A bold move by the guerrillas thwarts this threat momentarily, but a more brutal one follows.

Desperate, the invaders vow to wipe out the town, as they did Lidice, unless the Chetnik leader surrenders. His wife and children are already before a firing squad, when he leads a surprise raid that smashes the enemy garrison — an act that symbolizes the whole nation's determination to live in freedom forever.

Featured with Dorn are Anna Sten, John Shepperd, Virginia Gilmore and Martin Kosleck. "Margin for Error" also shows.

McGuffey High School News

McGuffey seniors of 1943 are presenting as their annual play "Girl Shy," a comedy in three acts. The production will be presented at 8 p. m. (slow time) in the school auditorium. Twelve characters weave a plot based on graduation time in a college town.

Mrs. Juanita McElroy is directing the play. Music between acts will be presented by the high school orchestra.

* * *

Keeping abreast of times officials of McGuffey school have created an employment service. Boys and girls in the upper six grades who are desirous of working on Saturdays register at school office. Farmers and others in the community who need occasional workers come to the school office on Thursday or Friday and state their employment needs.

* * *

Faculty and pupils of McGuffey school are making arrangements for a school garden project in the village. One and a half acres of ground have been rented and will be planted and tended under the supervision of the vo-ag instructor.

Fall canning for the cafeteria will be handled by a group of high school girls and their mothers under the supervision of the home economics instructor.

Much of the student labor in the garden has been volunteered by pupils in the intermediate and junior high grades in connection with the war program outlined by 4-H. The entire project is to be governed by the local victory garden committee consisting of Victor Huston, Robert Boecher, Eunice Beaman, Juanita Bayliss, T. V. Lewis and Herschel Sanders.

* * *

Baccalaureate services for McGuffey's 18 seniors will be held on Sunday, May 16, in the high school auditorium. Rev. Simon Davidian of the Central Church of Christ at Lima will deliver the address. Special music will be presented by the high school choral group under the direction of Ewra Roper.

Commencement exercises will be held on Friday, May 21, in the high school auditorium with Dr. Walter L. Collins of the state department of education as speaker. Music is to be furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of Albert Fink.

Closing day of school will be Tuesday, May 25.

* * *

A list of 124 names of men in the various branches of the armed services is now posted in the new honor roll presented to the village of McGuffey by the Ada post of American Legion. The honor roll is placed facing Courtright-st midway between the town park and entrance to the high school.

Parents and friends of men from the school district whose names are not posted should call at the superintendent's office at school.

* * *

The faculty and student body wish to thank the 61 school patrons who so generously contributed money for the purchase of a merry-go-round. The machine, a 16-foot affair, is the newest thing in playground equipment. Some 50 to 60 lower grade pupils are able to ride on it at one time.

A special credit is to be given John Kraft and Fred Dodds of the local board of education for their untiring efforts in solicitations.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP

FORT LORAMIE, April 19—Leading Fort Loramie high school by a wide margin in studies is Miss Dorothy Potts, sophomore, who was awarded a scholarship letter following every-pupil tests taken by all students, Supt. James L. Dillehay revealed. Also qualifying for the scholarship letter were Misses Dorothy Schwartz, senior; Donna Day, sophomore, and Doris Jean Inderrieden, freshman.

Sanaa, capital of Yemen, Arabia, has a population of about 50,000 and is on a lofty plateau.

PLENTY OF MONEY BUT OTTAWA OFFICIALS CAN'T LIQUIDATE OLD DEBTS

(Lima News Bureau)

OTTAWA, April 19 — Municipal officials of Ottawa want to pay off the only indebtedness of this community's government but they have been ordered to continue only installment payments until this debt is liquidated in 1945.

Elective officials of the municipality are waiting for their latest pay checks because of this situation but other employes of the village are being paid regularly.

Discussing the odd situation, Mayor Thomas F. McElroy explained that the municipal debt consists of $6,000 still due on the bill incurred when the new municipal building was constructed in 1934.

The village has about $21,000 in its sinking fund with which to pay this debt but the Ohio Teachers' Retirement System which purchased the bonds issued by the village to pay for the construction has refused to accept full payment.

An opinion was obtained from Atty. Gen. Thomas P. Herbert of Ohio by Solicitor E. B. Unverferth on the matter. The former ruled that since the Ottawa bonds are not callable they must be paid as agreed on the first of May and the first of November each year until all are liquidated.

The village council issued $20,000 worth of bonds in 1935 to cover the cost of the building. They are being paid off at the rate of $1,000 plus interest May 1 and Nov. 1 each year with the last one due Nov. 1, 1945.

Before obtaining the attorney general's opinion, the council negotiated with the retirement system which agreed to sell the village the five $1,000 bonds which will be due after May 1 for a total of $5,225. The system refused to accept full payment on the original interest, however, because it has no immediate place for reinvestment.

The elective officials will be paid as soon as the spring real estate tax settlement is made by County Auditor Carl D. Frick in a short time, Clerk Edward Doepker pointed out today. In the meantime, the general fund of Ottawa is depleted and none of the surplus in the sinking fund can be transferred until the village is free of indebtedness.
