Margaret Lindsey Will Be Bill Stern's Guest Saturday

"Share The Ride" Club Proves Troublesome To Groucho Marx; PTA Broadcast Set

Talented screen star Margaret Lindsey will be the guest of Bill Stern on his weekly Sports Newsreel, Saturday at 10 p. m. (EWT) over WEAF. Margaret, when she is not before the Klieg lights, is an ardent sports fan, both as a spectator and as a participant, and she'll have some interesting things to tell Bill and his listeners.

Groucho Marx had no idea his town was so large until the "Share the Ride" club came along. Dialers to "Blue Ribbon Town" will hear about it in one of Groucho's most hilarious sketches on Saturday, over Station WABC at 10:15 p. m. (EWT). All of Groucho's pals on the show—Donald Dixon, Bob Armbruster, Virginia O'Brien, Jack Mather, Dick Joy and Newcomers Kitty O'Neil (Groucho's overstuffed maid) and Cindy Lou, the sweet-talkin' southern gal (Shirley Mitchell)—pile into Groucho's car and the result is bedlam, not to say four flat tires.

Ellery Queen will tell the "Adventure of the Barbaric Murder" Saturday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT). An archeologist and his future son-in-law return from the Peruvian jungles with priceless treasures. The treasure leads to murder.

Betty Moore, interior decorator and expert on color design, will describe a "Bubble Bathroom" during her program, Saturday, at 10:45 a. m., EWT, over WJZ. Miss Moore will tell listeners the correct colors for ceiling and upper walls, lower walls, woodwork and floor.

Hail and farewell will be the keynote of a broadcast under the auspices of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Saturday (WEAF, 2:45 p. m., EWT). Mrs. William H. Kletzer, retiring president, will present her successor.

The 25th anniversary of the inauguration of America's air mail service will be commemorated in a special program over WEAF Saturday (7:30 p. m., EWT). Gen. Henry H. ("Hap") Arnold, head of the Army Air Forces, will speak.

Clarence Adler will be the guest soloist on "Saturday Concert," to be heard over WJZ on Saturday at 4 p. m., EWT. His solo will be: "Piano Concerto in B Flat" by Mozart.

Tschaikovsky's deeply stirring "March Slav" will be one of the musical highlights of the Boston Pops orchestra program Saturday at 8:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

COMMISSION IS FAVORED

COLUMBUS, O., May 15—(AP)—A 13-member commission to delve into "causes of the present plight of small business in Ohio" would be created if the house approves senate-passed legislation. The commission, which would have a $10,000 operating fund, would be charged with developing "a program which shall prevent or effectively minimize small business failures."
