NEWS, KMTR, 12:30 p.m. (Don Dana.) KMTR, 9 p.m., KHJ, 10
p.m. (Nye.)

BY CARROLL NYE

An international broadcast originating in Vienna will be attempted by the National Broadcasting Company today, bringing to American music lovers a symphony concert under the direction of Robert Hagger, with Mme. Erika Morini, youthful violinist who has been heard in concert in New York, as the featured soloist. (KECA—11:30 a.m.)

C.B.S. floods the ether lanes later in the day with two enticing musical offerings. Albert Spalding, distinguished American violinist, is heard over KHJ at 5:30 p.m., playing Grainger's "Molly On the Shore," the adagio from Bizet's "L'Arlesienne Suite No. 1," and Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me."

MARTINI WITH ORCHESTRA

Following this release Nino Martini, radio and operatic tenor, comes on the air with Andre Kostelanetz's orchestra to sing "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," "Je crois entendre encore" from Bizet's opera "The Pearl Fishers" and "Musme" by De Nichols. (KHJ—6 P.M.)

Music continues to reign at 6:30 p.m. when John Charles Thomas faces an N.B.C. microphone in New York City to sing "The Erlking," "The Minstrel Boy," "Kashmiri Song" and an old hymn, "Where Is My Wandering Boy?"

DRAMA CRITIC TO QUERY

An entertaining interlude is in store for KMTR dialers at 7 p.m. when Edwin Schallert, Times drama critic, interviews Adolphe Menjou, whose suave screen portrayals have won him international fame.

A release on KECA at 4:15 p.m. looms as the outstanding educational feature of the radio day. Mayor Couzens of Detroit, 31-year-old son of Senator Couzens, talks over N.B.C. network on "Public Works and National Recovery."

TUNING IN

When the egg is in the coffee twist the dial to KFVB or KFVD for your choice in breakfast club programs. Both the Los Angeles Breakfast Club and the Original Breakfast Club have imposing lists of guests who will be on the air at 8 a.m., the former on KFVB and the latter on KFVD.

Phyllis Bottome, British novelist, is the principal speaker on the former release and others on the bill are Capt. A. E. Forbes-Dennis, British war hero; Commodore Louis D. Beaumont, merchant prince and world traveler, and the principals and chorus of the historical romance "Rob Roy" now playing at the Hollywood Music Box.

Entertainers on the KFVD broadcast are Helen Morgan of "Show Boat" fame, Gayne Whitman, Rex Van, original Moran of Moran and Mack, Frank Saylan and Bobby Callahan, vaudeville team; Celeste Cottem, mezzo-soprano, and Larry Walden's orchestra.

Dis and dat: There was some mix-up in the N.B.C. schedule which listed a broadcast of a portion of Verdi's opera "Aida" from the new St. Louis Community Center last Saturday . . . the final act of the opera is billed for the network next Saturday . . . we'll see what happens . . . KMTR offers a new act, "The Roaming Minstrel and Gypsy" at 12:45 p.m. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday . . . Today at the same period the station presents Jay Gould, singer, and Norman Heinsen, who plays the piano and celeste simultaneously . . . Raymond Knight, who often finds hidden meanings in his fan letters, reads all his mail in the Central Park Zoo . . . He says it's easier to read between the lions (pretty bad, Mr. Knight!) . . . Babe Ruth, King of Swat, takes to the microphone over N.B.C. station KPO at 8:30 p.m. . . . The story of his life will be dramatized . . . Alumni of Marshall and University High schools compete in the current spelling bee over KFAC at 7:45 p.m.

More about the Clara Phillips case. Tonight's episode of "Calling All Cars" over KHJ at 8 p.m. dwells briefly on the actual crime involved and recounts in some detail the escape of the "hammer murderer" after her arrest on charges of murdering Alberta Meadows, her recapture in Honduras and her return to American justice.

Chief of Police Davis will introduce Sheriff Biscailuz, who went to Honduras to get Mrs. Phillips.

Another edition of Dave Ballou's Radio Revue is yours for the dialing at 9:15 p.m. on KMTR. Announcers are muzzied during this show and things move at a fast clip.
