"Student Prince" Medley Will Be Heard On Airlane Monday

Nero Wolfe's Handy Man Has Blonde Trouble; "Echoes From The Tropics" Will Make Bow On Monday's Broadcast

A medley from Sigmund Romberg's "The Student Prince" will be highspotted on the opening summer concert of "Vacation Serenade" Monday, over WEAF, 10:30 p. m. EWT. "Vacation Serenade" will be heard for eight weeks while the experts of "Information Please" take their first vacation in five years.

Somewhat of a gentleman's gentleman, Archie Nero Wolfe's left arm in a manner of speaking, will find himself preferring a beauteous, albeit vacuous, blonde when the latest "Adventures of Nero Wolfe" is heard on Monday, at 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WZJ.

"Echoes from the Tropics," a musical program presenting Lucio Garcia, Latin American star, and Jose Bethancourt, Guatemalan marimba artist and his orchestra, will make its bow in a new weekly series Monday (WEAF, 11:30 p. m., EWT).

Dithers, back from his vacation, promptly vetoes a raise which Dagwood had given himself during his term as president pro tem of the Dithers Construction Co., and "Blondie Overrides a Veto," on Monday, at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WABC.

How the U. S. Army trains illiterates to read and write before sending them off to fight is told in "The Schoolhouse at the Front," a dramatization starring George Tobias on "Cavalcade of America" Monday (WEAF, 8 p. m., EWT).

Jean Hersholt, recently re-elected president for the sixth year of the Motion Picture Relief Fund, charity which receives $10,000 each week for the performance of volunteer talent on the "Screen Guild Players" radio serie , will be star of the broadcast on Monday at 10 p. m , EWT, over Station WABC, when he plays the great surgeon in "Men in White."

"Benefit of the Doubt," a true to life story with a romantic slant, will be the drama to be presented during "My True Story," Monday, at 3:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Capt. Ted Lawson's thrilling book describing the bombing of Japan, "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," will be the topic of discussion by "James Hilton, Observer," on Monday at 7:15 p. m , EWT, over Station WABC. This replaces the previously announced subject, "Madness of Crowds," which has been postponed to a later date.

Antoinette Donnelly, well known beauty editor of the New York Daily News, will be the special guest of Alma Kitchell during her "Meet Your Neighbor" program, Monday, at 12:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Women at the first and only military flying school for their sex in the U. S. have chosen the "Victory Tunes" for Fred Waring's "Pleasure Time" Monday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EWT). They are the Women's Flying Detachment under the AAF Flying Training Command at Avenger Field, Sweetwater, Tex.

Radio's heroic masked horseman will again lend his skill in tracking down a killer when he aids a young sheriff during the "Lone Ranger" program, Monday, at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

147 ARE SEIZED FOR WAR CRIMES

WASHINGTON, July 19—(AP)—Arrest and conviction of 147 persons for war crimes—espionage, sabotage, sedition and failure to register as foreign agents—during the 12-month period ending June 30 was reported today by the Department of Justice.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said:

"The keynote of FBI war work has been the safeguarding of the American home front against the spy, saboteur, and foreign agent. Spy rings have been broken up and efforts of foreign-directed saboteurs have been thus far ineffective."

ADA MAN LEADER

KENTON, July 19 — Fifty-nine Hardin-co men, all but 11 of whom were in the 18-19 age classification, today went to Columbus to take their physical examination prior to possible induction into the armed forces. William E. Huber of Ada acted as leader of the contingent.

BRAZIL EMPLOYS BLIND

RIO DE JANIERO, July 19 — (AP) — Brazil utilizes even the blind in her war effort. The navy yard here has hired talented blind wood-carvers and mechanics who have won names for themselves making model boats.

Pair Of Thrillers Booked For Lyric Theatre Tuesday

"King Kong" And "Gunga Din" Scheduled, While Judy Garland Plays At Ohio With Famed Orchestras

A pair of thrilling adventure films is scheduled for revival Tuesday at the Lyric theatre when the original hairy super monster story, "King Kong," and the Kipling yarn "Gunga Din" appear. Cary Grant, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Victor McLaglen appear in the latter film as Colonial soldiers stationed in India. Showing for the last times Monday are "Wolves of the Range" and "United We Stand."

Judy Garland plays a stage-struck amateur who achieves stardom in the current Ohio film, "Presenting Lily Mars," with music by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra and Bob Crosby and his orchestra. Van Heflin shares starring honors with the beautiful singer, with Richard Carlson and Spring Byington in supporting roles.

One of the outstanding films of this war is offered at the Sigma theatre where the raves are for "Five Graves to Cairo." Franchot Tone, Anne Baxter, Akim Tamiroff and Erich Von Stroheim appear in the film with the last name impersonator of German characters portraying the role of Rommel, fate of North Africa. The second feature is "Yanks Ahoy."

"Coney Island" in technicolor is the offering of the Quilna theatre, with Betty Grable, George Montgomery and Cesar Romero in the leading roles. One of the high spots of the film is veteran Charles Winninger's version of "Who Threw the Overalls in Mrs Murphy's Chowder."

Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara are the leading performers of "This Land is Mine," a cleverly told story of the resistance of an overrun country to their Nazi occupiers. George Sanders heads a brilliant supporting cast. "Good Morning, Judge" a bit of light and fast entertainment starring Dennis O'Keefe, is also being shown.

Paul Muni and Lillian Gish are the stars of the current Drive in theatre film, "Commandos Strike at Down."

LYRIC

Two productions which made big hits when they appeared in Lima a number of years ago return to the city Tuesday and will flash on the screen at the Lyric.

They are "King Kong" and "Gunga Din." The first picture tells about a small group of people going to a new country and what happens to them after they find a monster. How they get him back to their own country and what happens when the monster invades a large city makes for interesting entertainment.

Ending Monday at the Lyric will be "Wolves of the Range," in which The Lone Ranger matches his nerve and cunning against ruthless killers.

QUILNA

All alone, with 12 of 20th Century-Fox's loveliest lasses in an incense-scented, pillow-strewn harem — that was Phil Silvers's fate during production of the Technicolor musical, "Coney Island."

But, if it isn't one thing, it's another. The action called for the comedian, who is single and definitely unattached and a fellow who could really appreciate such a role, to be bored to distraction.

So Phil reclined in a bower of pillows as Carmen d'Antonio, the well known torso manipulator and a dozen eye-filling and capable assistants worked with undeniable charms and Phil had to be yawning all over the place! The sequence is part of a side show enterprise run by the comedian and his screen partner, George Montgomery.

This, however, Phil takes philosophically—for years now he's been taking his lumps, and just now has started on the road to the top. He got his first big break when he landed a night club spot in Hollywood — he made the most of it, and worked out a routine that convulsed the audience. There happened to be — there always seems to be in a story like this — a talent scout or two in the audience and before he knew it, Phil was the subject of a tug of war between two of the big studios in Hollywood. 20th Century-Fox won out, and has done all right by our Phil—he had a nice juicy role in "My Gal Sal," and his performance in "Coney Island" is sure to lead to bigger and better roles.

Betty Grable, George Montgomery and Cesar Romero are starred in "Coney Island," which is now at the Quilna theatre. The picture tells a behind the-scenes story in the gay, mirth provoking tempo of Coney, New York's famed amusement resort.
