Goddard And MacMurray Bring Laughs To Ohio

It's a laugh riot! It's crowded Washington! It's Paulette Goddard and Fred MacMurray in "Standing Room Only" at the Ohio. The entire film is packed with humor as only Miss Goddard and MacMurray can dish it in a rather rugged manner and their wit is something to carry home with you. Playing for the last times Thursday night is "Passage to Marseille" with Humphrey Bogart.

America's five Irish heroes are depicted in "The Sullivans," which is currently showing at the Quilna theatre.

Co-billed at the Sigma are "Three Russian Girls" and "Guns of the Law."

Unique and interesting is the tale unfolded in "Flesh and Fantasy" which is now twin-billed with "Mine Sweeper" at the State.

Lyric fans are now offered "Hands Across the Border" and "Tiger Fangs."

Opening Friday at the Majestic will be "Underdogs" and "Gildersleeve on Broadway."

"Sky's the Limit" is the film scheduled to inaugurate the season for the Lima Drive-In theatre on Dixie-hy south, Friday night.

OHIO

Yielding to the popular demand for film fare teaming Paulette Goddard and Fred MacMurray, Hollywood, has co-starred them in "Standing Room Only" which arrives at the Ohio theatre Friday.

Following the wide acclaim by audiences of their last film together, "Forest Rangers," the accord being given this latest venture is not surprising. Already advance notices have stamped "Standing Room Only" as an all-time laugh riot. An important factor in its success is the exceptionally fine cast of supporting players—all acknowledging as ace scene-stealers in their own right. It comprises a potent quartet of Edward Arnold, Roland Young, Porter Hall and Clarence Kolb.

The story itself is attuned for laughs. It is set against a Washington background with the current rooming shortage, providing the crux of the plot. Fred is cast in the role of a toy factory manager on a business visit to Washington with Paulette as his enterprising secretary.

Also offered will be the technicolor government production, "Memphis Belle," which in 41 minutes takes you on a flight over Germany and shows the destruction being dealt by the Allied forces there. Playing for the last times Thursday night is "Passage to Marseille."

LYRIC

In contrast to the usual "born to the saddle" cowboy, Roy Rogers, popular "King of Cowboys," was born in Cincinnati, but went west after he finished school to found the "Sons of Pioneers" cowboy band.

On the strength of his success with this organization he was signed in 1938 to star in his own western series.

He has made nearly 50 pictures since then, his latest being "Hands Across the Border," which is playing at the Lyric theatre.

Sharing billing is Frank Buck in "Tiger Fangs."

QUILNA

Make room in your heart for all of them—"The Sullivans" have moved in.

As all who have greeted them at the Quilna theatre will testify Hollywood has brought to the screen the family of the year—and the story of the year—in the great, glorious and heart-warming ing picture of a lifetime.

"The Sullivans' is the story of the famous Waterloo, Ia., Sullivans . . . of the lives of the five cleebrated brothers whose devition to their country—and to each other—storred the heart of the nation.

It's the story of "Pa" and "Ma" Sullivan, and sister "Gen"; and the story of Katherine Mary who became a Sullivan in name and spirit when she married the youngest of the boys. Irish as the Blarney Stone, American as the Red, White and Blue, htey're the kind of people you'd like to be, in the picture you're bound to love.

MARINE FROM VAN WERT CITED FOR GALLANTRY

CAPE GLOUCESTER, New Britain—(Delayed)—(INS)—Marine 1st Lieut. William Amos Reno, of Van Wert, O., who was an enlisted marine for 12 years, has been awarded the silver star medal for his participation in the defense of the Cape Gloucester beachhead in the first week of the campaign.

Lt. Reno was commander of a machine gun platoon which was counterattacked by strong Japanese forces on six separate occasions between Dec. 26 and Jan. 3. Well dug in and in strategic positions, 1st Lt. Reno's platoon of gunners awaited each Japanese attack patiently and beat them off with sheets of bullets. After one night of continuous Japanese sorties, enemy dead were piled so high in front of the marine gun positions that Reno had to order some of the men to move their emplacement.

1st Lt. Reno is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Reno, of Convoy, O. He was commissioned a second lieutenant on Guadalcanal on Oct. 2, 1942.

Nelson A. Rockefeller, Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, will appear on the March of Time, Thursday, to discuss the need of greater Pan American unity. Rockefeller will also reveal the aid Latin America is contributing to the Allied war effort. The program goes on the air at 9.30 p. m., EST over WEAF. With Westbrook Van Voorhis as commentator, the March of Time also will present authoritative, first hand reports on news of the past week and the last minute from the home front and the war fronts.

Bob Hope joins up with Bing Crosby to build another road to insanity when the ski-nosed comedian and the groaner get together for a typical reunion Thursday, over WEAF at 8 p. m., EST.

Orson Welles will be heard as not just one magician, but a pair of them, in Ben Hecht's "The Marvelous Barastro," on "Suspense" on Thursday at 7 p. m., over Station WABC. When the husband learns of the trick, he takes appropriate steps. William Spier, producer of the "Suspense" series, makes his microphone debut as an actor in this story, appearing, coincidentally enough, as Producer Spier.

PARENTS OF FIVE ARE ASPHYXIATED

GENEVA, O., April 13—(INS)—Five Geneva-tp children were orphaned today as the result of a double tragedy in which Davis Arnold, 34, and his wife, Onie, 26, were found asphyxiated, "probably accidentally," in a tourist camp.

The couple was found dead in the cabin by the owner, Sam Kessler. Gas still was pouring from an open jet on a heating stove, Sheriff Roy C. Ritter reported.

Arnold was employed as a lumber cutter. The children, who are from 6 to 14 years of age, are being cared for by neighbors.
