Piqua Ace Honored On "Words At War" Program

"One Man Air Force," the story of Capt. Don S. Gentile, as told to Ira Wolfert, will be heard on "Words at War" Tuesday (WEAF, 8:30 p. m., EST). Gerald Holland has adapted the book for radio.

Gentile, the Piqua boy who has shot down more than 30 planes, a record which is tops for any American in two wars, bunked next to War Correspondent Wolfert at a British Air Base. There he told the author the story of his life. The radio drama emphasizes his boyhood as that of a typical American lad who wanted to be a flier and shows what makes this type of youth equal to and often superior to professional fighters. Also contained in the story are some of Gentile's experiences as a pilot.

The Mystery Theatre presents "Give the Guy Rope," a hard-boiled murder mystery of the hard-to-solve variety which will tax the quick wits of Lt. O'Melveney in the presentation of the Cleve F. Adams' thriller Tuesday (8 p. m., EST, WEAF.

A bank robbery, an unexpected call for help from a stool pigeon and a lovely girl in some mysterious way connected with the disappearance of 200,000 worth of bank bonds, are the strands which the police detective must tie together. O'Melveney cannily feeds out enough line to catch the criminals, but not before he himself is suspected.

Paul Gallico's "Tell Me a Love Story," the tale of a high-stepping dancing team who find themselves down at the heels because of some bad breaks, is heard as the first "This Is My Best" broadcast Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m., over Station WABC. The couple, Sam and Annamarie, are finally reduced to sleeping in the park before good luck smiles again. Two screen stars, Nancy Kelly and Lee Bowman, play the leading roles.

When hard-hearted bankers foreclose the mortgage on a college fraternity house, its members are forced to hold their big dance at the Foster home, which means that "A Date With Judy" resembles a stampede. Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m. EST over Station WEAF, it all begins when Judy, played by Louise Erickson, hears that a handsome college man is in town to be honored by the fraternity. In order to maneuver a date with him, she volunteers her home as a residence club for out-of-town friends of the frat members. Dix Davis is heard as Judy's kid brother, Randolph, and Mr. Foster is played by John Brown.

Laughs A-Plenty In "Henry Aldrich's Little Secret"

Henry Aldrich is keeping things to himself these days. Yes, Henry has a secret as you will see in his latest picture, "Henry Aldrich's Little Secret" opening Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. You'll laugh until your sides at the hilarious antics of Henry's gang.

Without a doubt, "Mr. Skeffington" starring Bette Davis, now playing at the Ohio theatre, will be awarded an "oscar" or more plainly speaking, the Academy Award for dramatic achievement. Don't miss seeing this great movie.

A pass-key to an apartment is all right but when 11 of them are in possession of as many persons, it proves to be a very hilarious mix-up. Simone Simon seems to have "guys" on her mind and "gremlins" in her hair in "Johnny Doesn't Live Here Any More" showing at the Quilna.

"The Story of Dr. Wassell" is indeed a tribute to all American heroes. Defying all obstacles, he insisted upon staying with his patients thru a blitz which would have killed almost every living thing. It is now showing at the State theatre.

Skating to glory is indeed what Sonja Heine does in one of her latest movies, "Wintertime," now showing at the Lyric theatre. She is co-starred with Jack Oakie, Carole Landis and Cesar Romero, who present a laughable movie to take your mind off the trying troubles of the world.

LYRIC

Happy times are in store for you in "Wintertime," the new musical hit starring Sonja Henie, which is now at the Lyric theatre.

Filmed in the mountain resort area of the Canadian snow-peaked mountains, this film is natural screen entertainment. Lovely Sonja skates into the hearts of the audience to the wonderful rhythms of Woody Herman and his orchestra.

Jack Oakie, Carole Landis and Cesar Romero add the imprint of their delightful personalities to the general scene, making the film a four star favorite.

QUILNA

Laughs, suspense and action enough for three motion pictures are neatly packed into the newest East Side Kids film, "Follow the Leader," which is now playing an engagement at the Quilna theatre. In this picture, the inimitable gang of screen-scamps manage to get in and out of more trouble than the average citizen experiences in a lifetime. However, these slightly fantastic — but exciting — adventures mold well for a highly entertaining film, one designed expressly for the escapist bracket.

Heading the cast are Eastsiders Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall and Gabriel Dell, and the newest addition to the group, Billy Benedict. All of the aforementioned are outstanding in the picture. Joan Marsh does exceptionally well in the leading feminine role, and Jack LaRue is convincing with his portrayal of a ruthless nightclub operator who heads a gang of thieves on the side. Other good character performances can be credited to veterans Mary Gordon and J. Farrell MacDonald. Gene Austin and the Sherrill Sisters supply a melodious interlude during the nightclub sequences in their usual good style.

REVISION OF STATE REVENUE LAWS IS ASKED

TOLEDO, Sept. 12—(AP)—Revision of state revenue laws to aid Ohio's financially crippled cities was asked today by the Toledo Chamber of Commerce in a resolution to Gov. Bricker and other state legislators and officials.

The resolution suggests revision of tax laws so a large share of state-collected taxes could be returned to local governments, and recommends the empowering of local governments to raise taxes in fields other than real estate.

Preliminary to such revisions, the chamber suggested a state non-partisan commission to undertake a complete study of Ohio's revenue laws and the interrelations of local and state government.

Asparagus continues to grow after it is cut and on its way to market.
