ROUNDY SAYS:

I am going to see Northwestern and Purdue play. I had to be in Milwaukee last night so I thought I'd drop down there.

This ought to be a pretty good game and no matter who wins it makes no dif to me.

I don't get het up at all this season it is the war alright. Who ain't worrying out it?

I paid good money for a beef sandwich I have got to get sharper teeth.

Roundy:

On November 15, Mr. J. P. Woolsey, President of the West Side Business Men's Association, will address the noon day luncheon meeting of the YMCA Forum on Public Affairs at the City YMCA.

Inasmuch as you are an honorary member of this association, I was wondering if you would be kind enough to run an announcement of this address by Mr. Woolsey in your column.

As a member of the Executive Committee of the Forum, I should like also to suggest that you make it a point to be on hand. We are anxious to have a big turnout for Mr. Woolsey's timely address which will be, "Madison and Dane County Mobilize for Peace."

Very truly yours,
Robert C. Zimmerman

P.S. Reservations should be made before Tuesday noon, by calling F. 752.

Bill Nofsker was in town the other day he is the big shot with the Canada Dry Gingerale Company. He is sitting pretty he is the director of the Council of Civic Clubs which consists of 63 clubs and 40,000 members. Bill used to be business manager of the Madison Blues here about fifteen years ago in the old days when it was tough scraping.

Karl Rentschler when it comes to betting on election is the best man in a green house you ever seen.

Don Farley he is the softest one I ever seen in election. He gets around the state you'd think he would have the dope. The boys call him Santa Claus now.

Joe Gentilli he had the dope he said I was right. Did he ever pull his pocketbook out and the boys took him. When they counted the votes Joe took them and-how.

Those bets I made on Wiley looked kind of bad before election I was betting Wiley would win by 60,000 or more I was giving 2-1. Then I was betting that Goodland would carry Dane county. They said a Republican governor hadn't carried Dane county in so long you couldn't count the years. I said that don't go this time the old boy is going to carry Dane county and he did.

Roundy:

On behalf of myself and the entire command of this activity, I would like to extend to you a hearty thank you for assisting in making Navy Week and Navy Day a great success.

Undoubtedly this was the finest Navy Day celebration Madison ever has had. I know that the citizens of this city and state will be more keenly aware of the greatness of our Navy and that "Our Fleet Guarantees Freedom" as a result of the many observances during this week.

Thanking you again for the part you played in this program, I am,

Sincerely yours,
L. K. Pollard
Captain U. S. Navy
Commanding.

Roundy:

Was up to say "hello" when I was home on a furlough some time ago. Sorry I didn't get to see you but you were busy as usual. Haven't seen the Journal for some time and I am away behind in the news. Heard Wisconsin won a couple of games, but Notre Dame beat 'em. True?

You know, I wouldn't trade a bushel of earth for 90,000 gallons of sea water. You can't lather soap in it and fresh water is rationed. Tried growing a beard but we must be a show division as well as a fighting bunch for the order is "shave every day if you need it." Fine thing. Maybe we'll stop a battle so we can shave. Anything can happen in the army nowdays though.

Have seen a lot of flying fish, but no mermaids yet. Figured I'd catch one for a souvenir for you but understand you need lip stick for bait and I'm fresh out.

Sincerely
Cpl. R. C. Kiley

Claim Duke Had Toughest Grid Slate

By GEORGE STAMMLER

RALEICH, N. C.— (U.P.) —The figure fraternity never has devised a means of measuring it, but until there are charts and statistics to show differently, the supporters of Duke's football team will stick to their claims that the Blue Devils have the toughest schedule of any team in the country.

They are playing an unbeaten and untied team today, those smashing civilians from Wake Forest, but that is nothing new to the "Debbils." As a matter of fact it will be the third Saturday in a row that they have been up against exactly the same situation.

It is because of the schedule and not a particularly impressive record that the Blue Dukes are being given high priority consideration wherever plans are being made these days for New Year's Day "bowl game" sociables.

Battle Top Notchers

Duke has won only two games all season and dropped four in a row before ending the perfect record of Georgia Tech's Engineers last Saturday. But the Blue Devils haven't been guilty yet of a bad performance and five of the six teams that they have faced to date were unbeaten and untied when they encountered them.

The Blue Devils started out with a breather against Richmond, which they won easily, but after that the opposition was terrific. On successive weekends they played Pennsylvania, North Carolina Pre-Flight, Navy, Army, and Georgia Tech. Only Navy had been defeated when it met Duke, and the Blue Devils played them to a standstill before the Middies finally won, 7-0. The mighty Army Cadets trailed, 7-6, at halftime before superior manpower asserted itself and enabled them to win with a three touchdown margin.

The business of a tough schedule with Duke has been a "must" since the 1939 Rose Bowl appearance against Southern California, when the Blue Devils lost 7-3, in the last 10 seconds on a desperation pass.

In Line for Bowl Bid

They were chided by some of the bowl game selectors that year because in spite of their perfect record their opposition included an array of "softies" such as Virginia Poly, Davidson, Colgate, Wake Forest, Syracuse, and North Carolina State. The only tough teams faced during that season were Georgia Tech and Pittsburgh, the victory over the Panthers netting them the bid.

The going was tougher in 1942 when they gained the Rose Bowl bid again and played Oregon State in the so-called transplanted Rose Bowl or Tobacco Bowl game at Durham—traisferred because the Japanese had attacked Pearl Harbor only three weeks before and civilian defense authorities wanted no large crowds on the west coast.

That year they played such toughies as Tennessee, Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, and Maryland. But none of their past schedules will be the equal of the one they are going through and if they win their remaining games with Wake Forest, South Carolina, and North Carolina they should be certain candidates for a bowl game bid.

Brodhead Cagers Should Be Strong

BRODHEAD — Headed by three stars of last year's team which captured 13 out of 20 games, Brodhead high school's cagers are expected to make a strong bid for the championship in its initial season in the State Line League.

Coach Otto Madland has his ace scorer of the 1943-44 season, Marshall Markham, in addition to Homer Sleep and Clayton Ross. Other squad members are: Delos Johnson, Cecil Brewer, David Heyerdahl, Aarleton Ross, Lee Cleveland, Robert Wallace, Fred Kundert, Dave Zanoni, Tallie Everson, Lawrence Heyerdahl, LaVerne Bederman, Norman Frank, Donald Conway, John Pinnor, Richard Berg, Robert Reigle, Carleton Olson, Tom Bustle and Bob Wallace.

In addition to the 14 State Line games a pair of non-conference tilts have been scheduled with Monroe and single contests with Albany and Durand.

Ft. Atkinson Bowlers Set Two New Records

FT. ATKINSON—Scoring records were bowled in the Major and City leagues at the Arcadia alleys Thursday night.

Single game marks fell in the Major wheel, George Wilson of the Black Hawks hitting 252 and the Winterburn team amassing 1,057. Wilson had an honor count of 622 for his night's efforts.

The Federal Labor Union team bettered the City league record with a 2,609 total.

Honor sets in the Major loop were registered by Dick Bendig, 633; Herb Wagenknecht, 614; and Harold Smith, 607.

Mosconi's Accurate Long Shots Make Him Billiards' Top Man

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — You'd swear that the cue is coming right out of Willie Mosconi's forehead when the world's champion pool player buckles way down over the green baize table for one of his deadly-accurate long shots.

Perhaps it's this peculiarity of getting his handsome face right down on the cue, or perhaps it's his delicate touch—or a combination of both—that has made Mosconi the greatest long shooter in the history of the pastime known to the carriage trade as "pocket billiards."

Willie's mastery of the long shot—his ability to dunk the object ball unerringly at table's length—distinguishes him from pocket-billiard champions of the past; men who were virtually flawless performers in other departments of pool-sharking. This distance artistry enabled him to establish competitive rcords that astounded even the great Ralph Greenleaf, who dominated the sport for years.

Greenleaf Set Record

The 31-year-old champion from Sylvania, O., is in New York on tour. He is a slender, cat-like man of medium weight. Slight tints of gray are barely perceptible in his curly black hair. His grace, rhythm and precision come naturally; for Willie is the nephew of the famous Mosconi dancers—Louis and Charley—who did those fantastic, sliding dances for so many season on the old Keith-Orpheum time.

Willie opened match play Monday at Julian's 14th street academy with Joe Procita of Gloversville, N. Y., eastern states champion. They are slated for 12 blocks of 125 points each. Naturally Willie is a heavy favorite because he is the champion competitive "runner" of all time.

For example, Mosconi made a tremendous splash in the pool world in the 1940-41 league tournament when he first won the world title. At that time the world record for the best game of 125 points in championship play was Greenleaf's 125-0 victory in two innings over Frank Taberski at Detroit in 1929. Greenleaf performed this feat only once in his competitive life time, although champion 16 times.

Loses, Regains Title

Mosconi not only broke that record once in the '40-'41 tourney, by going out 125-0 in one inning; he did it nine times before the competition was completed. He made 50 runs of 100 or more. But Willie sloughed off later in '41, finishing in a triple tie for first in the October-November tourney at Philadelphia and losing his title to Erwin Rudolph of Sayre, Pa., in the playoff.

However, he recaptured the crown at the Detroit tourney in '42, beating out such notables as Rudolph, Greenleaf, Andrew Ponzi, Jimmy Caras and Irving Crane. He lost the title to Ponzi in '43 at Kansas City, but regained it this year in the same city by beating Ponzi 1,500 to 1225 in 12 blocks, Feb. 29 to March 5.

Willie, who was born in South Philadelphia where his father had a small pool room, began playing at the age of seven. He won an eastern sectional tournament at 20, and moved up to the big time. Mosconi's manager, Sylvester Livingston, says the pocket-billiard championship is worth about $30,000 a year to the holder in normal times; but not now. "However," Sylvester admits, "Willie makes a very nice living for his wife, two kids and himself—even now."

Belgium, Luxembourg and Holland have adopted an agreement accepting a common customs tariff and ending collection of customs duties between each other.

Fontaine Given Nod Over Garcia

MILWAUKEE — (U.P.) — Juste Fontaine, 132 pound Milwaukee boxer, outpointed Rubio Garcia, 134, Puerto Rico, in the 10 round main bout of a boxing card sponsored at Milwaukee Auditorium Friday night by the victory sports club.

The fight was on fairly even terms until the seventh, when Fontaine's extra reach and a sharp right uppercut gave him the edge. Garcia rocked Fontaine with right and left hand smashes in the second.

Jim Sherrer, 146, Milwaukee, won the 6-round semi-windup with a technical knockout in 2 minutes and four seconds of the final round over Len Nelson, 148, Detroit. Nelson went down for an eight count in the 5th.

Preliminaries: Al Jordan, 138, Milwaukee, decisioned Mickey Austin, 144, Detroit, in four rounds; Jose Andre, 117, Texas, knocked out George Thieus, 123, Toledo, Ohio, in 2 minutes and 29 seconds of the 4th round of a six round bout. Mickey Quack, 121, Pittsburgh, decisioned Pete Boles, 127, Detroit, in six rounds.

Jefferson First Foe of 1945 Fort Eleven

FT. ATKINSON — Ft. Atkinson high school's football team will start its 1945 season in a game with Jefferson here Sept. 15, Principal Louis Leak announced. The Cardinals will play three Southern 10 Conference games at home — Reedsburg, Monroe and Edgerton—and will meet Wisconsin High, Wisconsin Dells and Stoughton on the road.

Jefferson and Watertown have been scheduled on a home and home basis for two years. Both are non-conference games. Reedsburg and Wisconsin Dells replace Portage and Baraboo on the 1945 schedule. The season will close Nov. 12 at Stoughton.

City's Prep Gridders Drew 55,250

By JOE DOMMERSHAUSEN

Post-1944 Madison high school football season jottings:

The approximate attendance for the 18 high school football games played at Breese Stevens field this season is 55,250 fans, adjudged an all-time record.

The expected 60,000 figure was not reached last weekend as only 2,100 fans saw Edgewood complete an undefeated season with a 26-0 defeat of Milwaukee Country Day and a disappointing crowd of 3,400 witnessed East's win over Central.

The largest crowd of the season was the 10,200 in attendance at the West-East 7-7 tie. The smallest crowd was the 400 at the Edgerton-Wisconsin High game.

Al Dockery, brilliant Central end, is also lost to the uptown school for the basketball season. The Negro sophomore, has his arm and shoulder in a cast for treatment of a double fracture.

◇ ◇ ◇

Both Madison West and Racine Park passed Beloit in the all-time Big-Eight Conference football standings this season, West replacing Beloit in second place and Park retaining third while Beloit dropped to fourth.

The all-time standings:

	W	L	T	Pct
Kenosha	72	41	17	.637
Madison West	60	41	13	.594
Racine Park	57	41	18	.582
Beloit	69	51	11	.575
Madison East	68	51	12	.571
Madison Central	65	55	11	.542
Janesville	38	83	4	.314
Racine High	3	8	3	.273
Racine Horlick	25	76	10	.248

In his 14 years as football coach at East high school Coach A. J. "Hunk" Barrett's elevens have won 68 games, lost 44 and tied 13. His poorest year was 1938 when his team won only two games and lost seven.

Barrett's 20-year record as a football coach is 91 victories, 52 defeats, and 17 ties.

After graduating from Bradley Tech in 1925, Barrett coached at Alledo, Ill., high school for two years and his grid teams there won 13 games, lost four and tied two. In 1927 he went to Superior Central and his 1927 and 1929 elevens there won 10 games, lost four, and tied two.

Including this year's team, he has produced four championship elevens, but only this year's team was undefeated.

The decision of Herman L. "Honest Jake" Jacobson to step down as Beloit high school football coach took from the Big Eight Conference football competition a certain bit of color, for the genial Purple mentor always had teams that played interesting football whether they were winning or losing.

In being relieved, at his own request, of the football coaching duties, Jacobson explained that he wanted to expand Beloit high school's fall program of intramural sports which this year had sagged because of the lack of needed help.

Jacobson had requested the change early this fall and had repeated his request a month ago. He continued as football coach this fall but heeded the pleas of the Beloit school board to coach at least this season.

"Jake's" football record in the Big Eight Conference is a fine one. In his 13 years at Beloit his football teams won 57 games and lost 41; their Big Eight record was 49 wins, 37 losses, and five ties with the record of this year's eleven the poorest that any of Jacobson's teams compiled.

Jacobson produced two teams that won undisputed Big Eight football titles and one that tied for the crown. While this year's Beloit eleven finished in seventh place in the final Big Eight standings, so did the 1942 team. Records of Beloit football teams under Jacobson in the Big Eight are:

	W	L	T
1932—Third	3	2	2
1933—Championship	5	0	2
1934—Fifth	3	4	0
1935—Second	6	1	0

1937—Fourth	4	3	0
1938—Championship tie	6	1	0
1939—Fifth	3	3	1
1940—Fifth	3	4	0
1941—Sixth	2	5	0

Jim McDaniels Scores Upset Over Angott

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Jimmy McDaniels, body-punching specialist from Los Angeles, was established today as prominent welterweight contender by virtue of his upset victory Friday night over Sammy Angott, former lightweight king, before 10,430 fans at Madison Square Garden.

In registering his seventh consecutive eastern victory, McDaniels surprised the experts and the "smart money boys" of Jacobs Beach who had sent Angott into the ring an 11-5 favorite.

McDaniels won the split 10-round decision in a close, hard fight. The rangy Californian with the big schnozzola lost the first three rounds to Angott's unorthodox, windmill flailing, then came on with a barrage to the midriff and surprisingly accurate left jabs to capture the vote of Referee Benny Leonard and Judge Joe Agnello. The other judge, Jim Hagen, called it a draw, giving each five rounds. The United Press agreed with Hagen, giving each four rounds and scoring two even.

There were no knockdowns, and the only bloodshed came from a slight gash beneath McDaniel's left eye—suffered in the ninth round.

Veteran Angott weighed 144½ pounds the heaviest of his eight-year career. McDaniels scaled a quarter-pound less.

The gross gate was $33,181.
