Today's Features

ON W-G-N.

W-G-N will ring out the old and ring in the New Year tonight with a parade of dance music from Chicago's favorite rendezvous. The round of remote broadcasts will start at 10:30 p. m. and continue until 3 a. m. During that time the music of Ted Weems, Kay Kyser, Ferd Grofe, Wayne King, and Jan Garber will be heard from the Palmer House, Blackhawk café, the Drake hotel, and the famed Aragon and Trianon ballrooms. At midnight the merrymaking at the Aragon will be described by Arthur Millet.

JAN GARBER.

Bob Elson, Pierre Andre, Russ Russell, and Fred Graham are the other W-G-N announcers who will describe the festive scenes during the evening, direct from the band stands at the night spots.

Other features:

7 a. m.—"The Good Morning Program," with music, time signals, and temperate readings until 8:45.
 1:15 p. m.—"The Romance of Helen Trent," a dramatic sketch.
 6:15 p. m.—"Lum and Abner."
 6:45 p. m.—Quin Ryan's "66" amateur show.
 9:15 p. m.—"The Mardi Gras," presenting a special New Year's eve show, with Harold Stokes and the dance orchestra, Lawrence Salerno, baritone; the Doring Sisters, Dorothy Miller, and the Four Knaves.
