MOTORIST GIVES FIRST CLUES IN SLAYING CASE

JACKSON, Mich, Jan. 13—(INS) — A motorist who passed by the car of Senator Warren G Hooper shortly after he was killed provided the first real break today in the investigation of the crime.

Special Grand Jury Prosecutor Kim Sigler said the motorist saw Hooper's car blocked off to the side of the road by a maroon sedan One man remained in the sedan and another stood by an open door in Hooper's car, standing over a prostrate form slumped on the seat

Sigler said the witness told him the sedan was parked crosswise in front of Hooper's car indicating that the senator's automobile was forced off the road.

The witness, Sigler said, is positive he could identify the driver of the sedan

Hooper was to have been a key witness against Frank D. McKay, former national Republican committeeman, and two others indicted by the grand jury for bribery in connection with legislation affecting horse racing

Meanwhile, theories that Hooper was killed by hired gunmen were advanced altho one lead in that direction vanished when it was disclosed that two underworld characters seen in Albion were there on legitimate business.

FREIGHT TRAIN IS DERAILED

KANE Pa, Jan 13—(AP)—A locomotive and 13 empty freight cars derailed and piled up today at Roystone, 14 miles west of here

Engineer C S Myers of Erie and other crew members were shaken up and bruised but not seriously hurt

About 1,000 feet of Pennsylvania railroad track was damaged Railroad telephone lines were torn down Sixty-two other empty cars in the train did not leave the rails The railroad said it expected to have the line open later in the day

Benjamin Franklin, among his other accomplishments, invented the harmonica
