

Inglewood Park Concert's Selections for Tonight Chosen by Radio Editors

PLAYS LEADS IN SERIAL

Broadcast Scheduled Over KHJ

Beatrice Hagen to Be Vocalist With Stark Group

BY CARROLL NYE

The 427th Inglewood Park concert is receiving considerable public mention today because of a smart publicity idea.

Frederick Stark, the conductor, called each of the nine radio editors in this area and asked for favorite selections to make up tonight's concert, which is to be given over KHJ at 7 o'clock.

The following selections were requested by the radio scribblers:

Eugene Inge of the Herald-Express asked for "Tales from the Vienna Woods," by Johann Strauss.

Ken Frogley of the Daily News requested "They Didn't Believe Me," by Jerome Kern.

Zuma Palmer of the Hollywood Citizen-News wanted Claude Debussy's "Maid with the Flaxen Hair," by Reginald Bennett.

Pasadena Star-News and Post man, chose "O Heldeberg," Bernie Milligan of the Examiner selected "Poisonale" from "Mignon," Dylan Wright of the Post-Record "George Spelvin," liked Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Flight of the Bumble Bee," Homer Canfield of the Glendale News-Press mentioned Tchaikovsky's "Arabian Dance" from the "Nutcracker Suite," Bill Bird of the Pasadena Independent made a bid for "Italian Street Song" from Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta."

I think Oley Speaks wrote the love lest melody. That's why I asked for "Sylvia."

Beatrice Hagen, by the way, is the youthful coloratura soprano who will be heard with Frederick Stark's orchestra.

TUNING IN ALONG THE AIR LANES

Alice Faye is Ben Bernie's guest artist tonight on the Old Maestro's program to be heard over KFI at 8. Alice goes before Bernie's microphone via the Chester Hale line in vaudeville, a Manhattan night club career. George White's chorus, Rud Vallee and the films.

Two KHJ lads are about to take the fatal step. Charles Bulott, Jr., "California Melodies" announcer, and Miss Betty Larkin fled their notice of intention to wed yesterday. Jack Van Nostrand, the station's chief continuity writer, and Jill Dillon will be married May 29.

Bulott leaves today for San Diego, where he will become program director for KGB and work with Gary Breckner on special C.B.S. releases from the exposition.

"Death Valley Days" celebrates its second anniversary tonight over KFI at 8:30. A birthday party has been arranged for the Old Ranger.

Foreign Trade Week programs for today include: Young Men's Council of the United States, broadcasts over N.B.C. from New York; Charles Bayer, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, over KRED at 8:15 a.m. El Salvador and Uruguay will be represented over KMTR at 7:30 this evening. KECA handles a Japanese broadcast at 8 p.m.

Crete Cage, woman's club editor of The Times, will be heard at 7 p.m. over KMTR. Just having returned from a convention tour, Miss Cage will have some interesting things to tell.

Dis and data: Bach's concerto in C minor is to be featured by Rudolph Gruen and Beula Duffy over KECA at 3:15 p.m. "Curr of Calm" is the chilling Crime Cicle title of tonight's episode over KFVB at 9. Personal nomination of the prettiest name in radio: Lois January. She's heard over KFAC this evening at 8:30. Segar Ellis, the singing sensation of eastern radio, is to be heard over KFVB at 7:15 p.m. Martha Tilton, sugar-ton blues singer, is Bling Crosby's guest tonight. What? You don't know when Bling broadcasts? KHJ 5 this evening. "Chocolate Soldier" is the Beauty Box Theater offering. Those grand Russians—the Bear Lullalaka Orchestra and the Kuban Cossack Chorus are scheduled to come through over C.B.S. and KHJ every Tuesday a Thursday at 2:45 p.m. A drey Wurdemann, the young Pulitzer Prize poetry winner, makes her radio debut over KFI at 1 today. Phil Spitalny con forth to say that women are better musicians than men. Far be from me to become involved in "better than" argument, but moved to note that the great concert and symphony orchestras are masculine.

Arline Blackburn, red-headed queen of radio and veteran of many screen and stage hits, plays leading roles in the N.B.C. dramatic serial "Red Trails."
