

Foreign Trade Week Program Leading Feature of Radio Offerings Today

All-America Luncheon on Early Dials

Argentina and Dutch Programs Slated for Afternoon

BY CARROLL NYE
Foreign Trade Week came in with a bang on the local air. Today's special features include a Latin-American Day luncheon at which Secretary of Commerce Roper and Henry F. Grady, chief of the trade-agreement section of the United States Department of Commerce, will be guests of honor.

BOSTON BROADCAST
The luncheon program will be relayed from Boston via N.B.C. and KFI at 8:45 this morning. A number of other special programs have been arranged for the week and these will be listed on their respective days.

At 3:45 p.m., Argentina will be represented on the air with her foreign trade contribution over KFAC and at 8:30 this evening KECA is scheduled to take a Netherlands broadcast. Gamlon music of Java will be featured on this program.

KIWANIS ON AIR
Down in San Antonio, Tex., Kiwanians are holding a convention. Dr. William J. Carrington, president of Kiwanis International, and Roe Fulkerson are scheduled as speakers. This program is aired by C.B.S. and KHJ this evening at 7. Lou Creveling, the Hollywood getter-about who dispenses latest dope about Hollywood and its inmates, has waived his regular 7 o'clock spot so that local listeners can get the Kiwanis show.

The Duluth Civic Symphony Orchestra comes to local radios via KECA at 8 p.m. this evening. This is Duluth's initial classic representation in Los Angeles and should be worth tuning in.

TUNING IN ALONG

THE AIR LANES
"House of Dreams" is the title of the National Housing Act drama presented over KMTR today at 7 p.m. Listeners will get a vivid picture of how the act works. The playlet was written by Arthur LaVove, produced by Bob Swenson, classified promotion manager of The Times, and the cast includes Stewart Wilson, Ralph Olson, Mae Dauphiny and Worth Wright.

Gen. Hugh Johnson will plead to "Save the N.R.A." at 4:30 this afternoon. Closest station carrying the speech is KGO in San Francisco. And speaking of speakers, we got word that Upton Sinclair would speak over KECA yesterday at 3 p.m., just nineteen hours after the paper went to press.

Carlotta King, former KMTR songbird, is heard today on the Woman's Magazine of the Air at 2 p.m. over KFI. She is also on the Beaux Arts Trio programs.

Dis and Data: KHJ is certainly overworking Dick LeGrand, Johnny Gibson and Lindsay MacHattie. You hear them too often since they can't change their voices from one program to another. KMTR's John Strook seems to be putting a bit too much unctio into his announcing. A new dramatic serial opens at this station tonight at 9:30. Tonight's episode of "Famous Trials of History" deals with Mary, Queen of Scots. Margaret Speaks, young American soprano, is being featured on that fire program over KFI tonight at 7:30. Reynold E. Blight gives his "Reasons for Optimism" over KMTR at 8:45 p.m.

TIC-TOC GIRLS TO MAKE DEBUT

Barbara Johnstone, Mildred Lane, and Yvonne Monoh, harmony singers recently on the air with Rudy Valee and the Manhattan Merry-Go-Round, will make their Pacific Coast debut at the Coconut Grove today with Henry Busse's Orchestra. Dial KFI at 11 p.m.
