20,000 Cairo Students Tell British: 'Get Out!'

CAIRO —(U.P.)— More than 20,000 university students paraded through the main street toward the royal palace today shouting renewed demands for the evacuation of British troops from Egypt.

The demonstrators halted in front of the British barracks crying "Down with England," and "Evacuation or Revolution."

Large details of police were stationed strategically throughout the city but made no attempt to interfere with the demonstration.
