

Victor McLaglen Signed to Play Leading Roles in Radio Serial "Red Trails"

Film Actor to Be Heard Over N.B.C.

Ben Bernie Offers Anniversary Bill on Same Chain

BY CARROLL NYE

Victor McLaglen, rugged and ready screen star whose performance in the picture "The Informer" has brought universal praise from theatergoers, has been signed to play the leading roles in N.B.C.'s engrossing serial "Red Trails," heard through KFI at 5 p.m.

McLaglen will be heard today in the role of a rookie Canadian "Mountie," and he is to be supported by a cast of Hollywood screen and radio players.

The Old Maestro, Ben Bernie celebrates his fourth anniversary of radio via N.B.C. and KFI at 8 p.m. with a festive broadcast presenting a group of screen celebrities who are sailing to Santa Catalina Island to appear on the program. As featured guest Bennie Rubin will engage in some fast repartee with Bernie.

TUNING IN ALONG

THE AIR LANES

KMTR ushers in a new feature at 3 p.m. today, when Jean George presents a group of radio artists headed by Charles Grayson, baritone, and Janet Marsh, Miss George received her musical education in Germany and America, and until recently has been connected with the Hollywood film studios in various musical capacities.

"Sketches of the Sea" is the nautical motif, selected by Frederick Stark as the theme for his current Inglewood Park Concert over KHJ at 7 p.m. Thomas Glynn, baritone, is to appear as guest soloist, and sing "Shipmates of Mine," "When My Ship Comes Sailing In" and "Doland's Song" from "The Flying Dutchman."

A woman's eye view of the San Diego Exposition is to be offered KMTR dialers at 7 p.m. by Crete Cage, Women's Club editor of The Times, who has been attending a woman's club convention in the southern city.

Drs and Data: Eddy Duchin and his orchestra, carrying on while Ed Wynn takes a vacation, will conduct a national "open" tournament for new radio talent, as they cross the country on a tour which eventually will land them at the Coconut Grove. Wynn's final radio appearance of the season is to be made today and Duchin will start the new regime next Tuesday.

Francis White's Spanish pup has had his tonsils removed (no fooling). It was not our intention to rap KFI for the mix-up in broadcasting the Indianapolis race. The station had no control over the matter that Harrison Hollway and his Blue Monday Jamboree aren't any too happy over the fact that the Jamboree has been taken off the air for the summer. The move was made for business reasons. The show had no sponsor. . . . Bouquets to Charles Bulotti, Jr., newly appointed program director of the Don Lee San Diego station. KGB, His announcing of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra programs is flawless. . . . Dial KHJ at 8 p.m. for today's concert. . . . The rumors regarding an engagement for Harry Horlick and his Gypsies at Santa Catalina Island this summer are unfounded, as far as Horlick is concerned. Says he: "If my orchestra is wanted for the engagement, it would be nice for whoever is doing the wanting to let me know about it." . . . Joey Nash, former vocalist with Richard Himber's orchestra, plans to organize his own orchestra in the fall. . . . Henry King and his orchestra, now broadcasting over N.B.C. from the William Penn Hotel in Pittsburgh, will start trekking westward soon and wind up in San Francisco's Mark Hopkins Hotel June 17. . . . Jack Benny is likely to become a permanent Hollywood resident. If M.-G.-M. takes up its option on him he will stay here to make one and possibly two more full-length films before the end of the year. . . . Appearing for the first time on the Women's Magazine of the Air, as soloist, Annette Hastings will be feminine star of the Tuesday and Thursday editions starting today at 2 p.m. over KFI. She replaces Nanette La Salle, who has retired from the magazine due to ill health. . . . Eugenie Ferrer, concert pianist formerly with WEAF, New York, is visiting friends here. She will leave Thursday for her home town, San Francisco.

It is now possible to fill a bottle with sky and get an Aurora Borealis out of it, according to the University Explorer. Dial KHJ at 9:30 p.m. and find out how it's done.
