Eastern Regatta Day's Feature

Athletes of Six Universities and Middies to Take Part in Event

BY CARROLL NYE

Stalwart athletes of six universities and the United States Military Academy will man the oars in the Poughkeepsie Regatta on the Hudson River today. N.B.C. and KECA will broadcast a description of the event at 3:15 p.m., with Graham McNamee and Ford Bond at the microphone.

Announcement also was made today that KGER is making arrangements to broadcast the intercollegiate crew races at Long Beach, June 28 and 29.

Irvin S. Cobb, "The Sage of Paducah," now turned motion-picture actor, is to appear on Ben Bernie's commercial broadcast over KFI at 8 p.m. today and exchange quips with the Old Maestro.

Cobb is flying from location near San Francisco to Santa Catalina Island for the radio engagement.

TUNING IN ALONG

THE AIR LANES

Rescuing overzealous swimmers from the surf is the daily occupation of Frank E. Walton, Jr., who has turned out a book based on his experiences titled "The Sea Is My Workshop." He'll be heard over KMTR at 7 p.m., giving listeners a word picture of the life of a life-guard and offering some timely tips on the proper procedure in rescuing a bather who has lost a battle with the waves.

The Dalton Brothers—Kelly, Jack and Pete—a trio of vaudevillians who have attracted attention with their straight harmonizing of old-time ballads and favorite melodies of bygone years, start a series of programs on C.B.S. and KHJ at 11 a.m. today.

Ex-President Hoover is to be the principal speaker at a luncheon which will be given today in San Diego in honor of Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, Hoover's alma mater. A broadcast of the function will be released by N.B.C. but, at this writing, it is not known whether it will be released locally over KFI or KECA. However, it is quite certain that KFSD will go on the air with the function at 1 p.m.

Dls and Data: The secret is out! The incognito soprano on KMTR is Mary York, wife of Maestro Raymond Falge. She will be heard at 7:30 p.m. today. There is a possibility that Phil Spitalny and his all-girl orchestra may stay in the United States this summer instead of going to Russia. At least two sponsors are bartering for their services. Last Sunday's Jack Benny show wasn't up to snuff. If it weren't for the "Hollywood Pearl Robbery" gag, the last few episodes would have fallen flat. Victor Herbert's operetta "Eileen" is the Beauty Box Theater fare on KFI at 6 p.m., with Francis White and James Melton in the leads. Jean George's guest on KMTR at 3 p.m. is Mary Lewis, lyric soprano. Oriental intrigue joins with conflicting "freak" clues to baffling investigating officers in the dramatization of "The Chinese Puzzle," current "Calling All Cars" presentation on KHJ at 7:30 p.m. U.C.L.A. grads can hear one of their number—Bob Miller—playing for the annual senior ball at the Miramar Hotel. KFVB will do the broadcasting. Stoopnagle and Budd assure us that important stuff—both peachy and dandy—will be conveyed to the body politic July 2 when they join Waring's Pennsylvanians. They recently spent a week-end in Washington, studying government affairs, presenting a Phoththolinder to the Smithsonian Institution, and eating at fancy hotels. Thousands of writers have speculated on the location and detailed plan of the Biblical Garden of Eden, but it takes scientific research to produce plants that might be given a place in such a garden. That is the premise of the University Explorer, on which he will elaborate via KHJ at 9:30 p.m.

A new "You and Your Government" series begins on N.B.C. and KECA at 3:45 p.m. in which "Taxation for Prosperity" will be discussed, pro and con, by outstanding business and political leaders. Frank A. Vandercip, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, is today's speaker.

California composers are to be honored on the Inglewood Park program, under direction of Frederick Stark, to be heard over KHJ at 7 p.m. Stark will pay tribute to Homer Grunn with a rendition of "An Old Adobc." Charles Wakefield Cadman's "Silhouette" and Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly" are other numbers on the bill.
