Eisenhower Raps War Talk as 'Vicious'

CHICAGO—(U.P.)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower believes talk of another world war is "vicious," but adds that the army could not be made ready for one "for some time."

"Very few army units that remain could be counted on now," he said at a press conference Sunday night. "It would take some time to build up their efficiency and it would be some months before we would be ready to fight."

Cites Disservice

In an address before the Reserve Officers' assn., the army chief of staff said that anyone who discusses the possibility of another world war is doing the world a disservice.

"Defeatist talk never produces anything constructive," he said.

Eisenhower said that ex-servicemen would not be found among the numbers which "glibly talk of war."

He said that veterans "will work and sweat and sacrifice to prevent such a tragedy."

Assails Critics

Eisenhower assailed critics of the army who, he said, tend to ignore its achievements in World War II and overemphasize alleged faults and weaknesses in it.

"Particularly does the critic aim his shafts at the officer, he would like to give a feeling of guilt to the 800,000 Americans who led our armies to victory," he said.

"Gentlemen, you and I were of that band—and I assure you now that I will go to my grave proud of the fact that I could serve with you, as an officer of the army," he added.

B-17, on Rescue Trip, Vanishes

HONOLULU, T. H.—(U.P.)—The navy announced today that a B-17 Flying Fortress with 10 men aboard disappeared between Kwajalein and Guam during a search for a C-54 transport which has been missing with five aboard in the same area since May 25.

Liquor Sale Appeal Case Dropped

An appeal from a superior court fine for illegal liquor sales on his class B license by Max Keidan, at the Washington hotel bar, 636 W. Washington ave., on July 14, 1945, was dropped today, Atty. Lester C. Lee informed the circuit court. Keidan had been fined $50 and costs or 30 days by Judge Roy H. Proctor on Sept. 5, 1945.

Daughter Born to Luise Rainer

LUISE RAINER

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — Former Screen Star Luise Rainer, wife of Publisher Robert Knittel, said today she would name her baby girl, born Sunday at New York hospital, Francesca.

The child, the first for the two-time Academy Award winner, weighed 8 pounds 5 ounces.

ADVOCATE RACING STRIPS

PASADENA, Calif.— (U.P.) —A four-mile, four-line straightaway racing strip in the metropolitan area has been proposed for Southern California Timing assn. races and tryouts of mechanical developments in their "hop-ups."

Members of the Pasadena roadster club who advocated the strip said it would eliminate the long trip to Murdoc dry lake where the timing association's events now are held and would provide a place for jalopy drivers to hold their speed tests without menacing traffic and attracting police.
