In Defense of Hillbillies: Ed Bohn

and his Rangers are aired daily from 10:30 to 11 a.m. over KMTR. While metropolitan audiences might not prance after hillbilly singing and music-making, the fanmail from the hinterlands to this group is phenomenal. Letters with requests for special numbers come from as far away as Australia.

When Orzle Nelson winds up his grove contract this week, he and blonde, poised Harriet Hilliard head for New York. The Nelson band and the flaxen pipester return to your loud-speaker via N.B.C. and KFI on October 6 at 4:30 Sunday afternoons. Bob (B.I.O.N.) Ripley will also appear on the program presenting his oddities verbally.

Both the grandfathers of Countess Pia Damerini, KMTR's concert pianist, fought with Garibaldi, "the Napoleon of Italy," when that worthy was making Italian military fame. While that hasn't anything to do with the piano playing, KMTR's publicity chief thought it might interest you. The regular piano concert featuring the Countess is aired at 6:45 this evening.

Don Thompson, sports announcer, turns "What's New?" program (KPI—3:30 p.m.) into a football offering with chatter and songs.
