Mystery and Western Billed For Opening at Lyric Tuesday

A mystery film and a western highlights the bill of the Lyric theatre beginning Tuesday.

"Accomplice," which will provide suspense and action, opens with "Stage Coach." The latter film will bring the old west to the screen, depicting the days of rip-roarin' action.

Cary Grant has the role of Devlin, the secret agent, in the Ohio's current feature, "Notorious," while Ingdid Bergman as his assistant helps provide the romantic angle. Portrayed are the secret workings of the German underground in Brazil. Claude Rains has the role of one of the German leaders.

"Wake Up and Dream" with June Haver, John Payne and Connie Marshall, goes into its fifth successful day at the Quilna where it has been booked in weeks ahead of its national release. Sharing the billing is "Last Crooked Mile."

Dan Duryea can add another feather for his performance in "White Tie and Tails," now at the Sigma. Duryea, who has been cast in the role of gangsters and defiers of the law, shares top honors with Ella Raines and William Bendix in the film. Co-feature is "Devil's Playground" with William Boyd.

"Caesar and Cleopatra," played by Claude Rains and Vivien Leigh, is captivating audiences. Filmed in technicolor by the best English cinematographers, the film brings satire into the history of ancient Egypt and Rome.

"Cisco Kid and the Lady" and "Utah" are the features now on tap at the Allen while opening Wednesday will be "Mr. Wong, Detective" and "Ambush Trail."

FFA AIDS SCHOOL

FT. LORAMIE, Dec. 9—In keeping with its practice of making an improvement to the school annually, the Fort Loramie high school Future Farmers of America chapter this year bought new window blinds and fluorescent lighting equipment for the agricultural department with money from the FFA treasury. Albin Boeke, Eugene Larger and Carl Boerger formed the committee in charge.

Dunne and Pidgeon To Star In 'Together Again' Monday

Irene Dunne and Walter Pidgeon will play the leading roles in the Radio theatre's dramatization of the film comedy, "Together Again" at 9 p. m. Monday over CBS.

The story tells the hilarious tale of the young attractive lady mayor of a small New England town, the widow of its former mayor, who goes to New York to commission a sculptor to remodel a statue of her late husband. While in the city, she visits a night club with the sculptor, is mistaken for a strip tease dancer and ends up in jail.

Gregory Hood's friend, Sandy, is the guest of honor at a party which leads to an entry in "The Case Book of Gregory Hood," at 8:30 p. m. over MBS. The case involves a girl who failed to double cross a killer, and a botanical specimen called "The Jade Tree."

Bob Hawk sends jokes over the airwaves during his comedy quiz, at 7:30 p. m. over CBS.

A guilt-crazed lunatic is chief character in "The Invisible Demon" on the "Inner Sanctum" murder mystery show at 8 p. m. over CBS.

Joan Fontaine, David Niven and Nigel Bruce will be co-starred on the Screen Guild Players' show in "The Last of Mrs. Cheney" at 10 p. m. over CBS.

Nuernberg Prison Gets New Commander

NUERNBERG, Dec. 9 — (INS) —Army officials announced today that Col. Burton C. Andrus has been replaced as Nuernberg prison commandant by Maj. Frederic C. Teich, his former assistant, in a security shake-up prior to the trial of 23 Nazi doctors Monday.

In addition to Andrus' replacement, a general tightening of security measures was ordered at the prison where Hermann Goering succeeded in cheating the gallows by suicide a few hours before his scheduled execution last October.
