Two Injured in Traffic Mishap at Sun Prairie

An Astico truck driver and an Oconto Falls man were injured Monday in a traffic crash involving a truck and two cars on Highways 19 and 151 in Sun Prairie, county police reported today.

The injured were Frank Miller, 64, the truck driver who suffered a head injury, and G. Arensten, 24, Oconto Falls, a car passenger, who received a fractured nose. The cars were driven by John Little, 21, Brandon, and Renville Chitwood, 29, Johnsons Creek.

Doctor Loses His Home

CHICAGO — (U.P.) — A Chicago physician was looking for a place to live today, after being evicted for allowing eight homeless veterans —including some of Chicago's most socially eligible bachelors—to share his nine-room home during the summer.

Judge Samuel Heller ordered the eviction of Dr. O. A. Van Alyea, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, as the result of a suit brought by Van Alyea's landlady.

She charged that he let eight men live in the house rent-free.

Dr. Van Alyea said all the men were professional men, and were single. He said he allowed them to move in while his wife and four children were vacationing because he thought their cases were pathetic."
