Stranger Under Bed Shocks Her, But Judge Says, $50

Mrs. Blanche O. Wright, 53, insisted she was "shocked and surprised" Saturday night when the man police found under her bed in Hotel Wilson was not her husband.

But Mrs. Wright, who had a previous police record, was unable to convince the police that she didn't know Otto Eugene West, 40, was under her bed, and the officers arrested them both for disorderly conduct.

Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor was just as hard to convince today, too. Mrs. Wright suggested that West had walked into her room without her knowledge, explaining for the judge in court that she had left her hotel room door open because of the heat. Seeing the judge wasn't impressed by her story, she changed her mind and pleaded guilty to the disorderly conduct charge.

The judge fined her $50.

West failed to appear in court and forfeited $100 bail.

Farmers Denies Cruelty to Fowl, Live Stock

Carl Gultzkow, town of Burke farmer, pleaded not guilty in superior court today to charges of being cruel to his chickens, geese, and cattle by not providing them water and shelter. He was released on $100 bail, pending trial Sept. 9.
