Methodists to Hear Negro Baptist Choir

Negro spirituals and gospel songs sung by the Youth Gospel Choir of New Hope Baptist Church, will feature the October musical program at Grace Methodist Church Sunday evening.

The choir, composed of 45 voices, is from an outstanding Negro congregation and is rapidly gaining a reputation in the Long Beach area as an unusual musical organization. The members range from 15 to 21 years of age and are under direction of their pastor, Rev. Nathaniel Kirkpatrick. The choir includes a men's quartet and a women's trio.

"THERE'S A GREAT DAY COMING!"

soon! soon! soon!

Church Noting Its 25th Year

Burns Memorial Evangelical United Brethren Church will note the start of its 25th year of organization at the Sunday services, according to the pastor, Rev. Floyd B. LaFevre. Organized in the old Temple Avenue school by H. C. Shaffer, the present educational plant was erected in 1923 and dedicated with Bishop William M. Bell, D. D., officiating. The auditorium of the building has been used as the worship center pending the future building of the church sanctuary at 17th St. and Temple Ave.

Rev. Walter M. Stanton, Sacramento, a member of Burns Memorial Church before entering the ministry, and now superintendent of the Northern California District, will preach. He served the church here as pastor from 1940-45. A number of the charter members are expected to be present and to be heard from in the informal meeting at 2:30 p. m. Jefferson Junior High School Girls' Glee Club will sing.

Ex-atheist Preaching

Rev. Morris Plotts, converted atheist, who began a series of revival services at Seal Beach Assembly of God Church Oct. 21, will continue the second week of his meetings tomorrow and each night except Saturday, according to Rev. Jewel L. Freeman, pastor.

Guest in Pulpit

Rev. Milton G. Gabrielson, pastor of Bay Shore Community Congregational Church, will speak at the Sunday evening service in First Church of the Brethren on "Peace Begins in Our Homes."

Leader of Youths to Be Evangelist

Rev. Milo Ross, one of the outstanding youth leaders in the Medford, Ore., area, will be the evangelist at meetings in First Friends Church Oct. 29 to Nov. 29, according to the pastor, Dr. Donald B. Spitler, pastor. The meetings will be held nightly except Saturday. Rev. Ross is a graduate of Willamette University and held the pastorate at Greenleag, Idaho, where he designed and supervised the erection of the largest rural Friends Church in the United States. He has founded three churches and has gained attention at building one of the most beautiful churches of his denomination in the Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Christian-Science Topic Announced

"The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the vice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live." This declaration of Jesus as recorded by John will be the golden text of the Sunday lesson-sermon on "Probation after Death" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

John's Gospel relates that after the resurrection, "when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you." Luke adds, "But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: . . . for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. . . . and he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them."
