Orange Whips Anaheim, 14-0

By DICK GLOVER

ANAHEIM, Nov. 1. A determined band of Orange High gridders further complicated the Sunset League football race here this week by smashing to a 14-0 verdict over the hitherto unbeaten Colonists of Anaheim. Anaheim won the Class B fracas, 25-0, while the Anaheim C's whipped Newport Harbor, 19-0.

After Anaheim had dommated the first half, during which they failed to capitalize on several scoring opportunities, the Orange crew took control for the final stanza and won easily.

Early in the third quarter, Orange recovered an Anaheim bobble on the 22, and Halfback John McKee streaked all the way into pay dirt on a tackle slant. In the final period, Anaheim held Orange for downs on the one-foot line, and after a weak punt out, the visitors were again threatening on the 20. A pass, John Gould to Tom Powers, did the trick. Score:

Orange (14)		Anaheim (0)
Coda	L.E.	Elam
Hoyt	L.T.	Moynihan
Robinson	L.G.	Gesler
Shaw	C.	Hilton
Glassbrenner	R.G.	Allec
Killian	R.T.	Lamas
Powers	R.E.	Martinez

Score by quarters:

Orange	0	0	7	7—14

Scoring: Touchdowns, for Orange, McKee (22-yard run), Powers (20-yard pass play from Gould). Conversions, Lievanos (2).

Santa Ana Routs Newport, 32-6

By CHARLES HASTY

SANTA ANA, Nov. 1. Johnny Fouch put on an actual one-man show here last night, with plenty of help from his gridiron mates, in leading the Saints of Santa Ana High to an astounding 32-6 Sunset League victory over the touted Sailors of Newport Harbor High at the Municipal Bowl.

Fouch personally escorted the bloated pig over the goal for four of the Saints' touchdowns, and did not leave the game until it was safely bedded down on a good coating of ice.

Santa Ana, however, had a clear edge in statistics all the way, rolling up 11 to 8 in first downs; 317 yards from rushing to 90; recovered both Newport fumbles at crucial moments and were on the short end only in the yards from passing department at 115 to 29. Summary:

Santa Ana (32)		Newport Harbor (6)
Prall	L.E.	McCallum
Rol Rodriquez	L.T.	Killefer

Robinson Sets Trust Fund for Jimmy Doyle's Mother

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1. (A.P.) World Welterweight Champion Sugar Ray Robinson of New York today set up a 10-year, $50 a month trust fund for the mother of boxer Jimmy Doyle of Los Angeles, who died from injuries following a match with Robinson in Cleveland last June.

Attorney Albert Pearlson, in whose office the arrangements were made, said the trust account was set up in the Union National Bank for Mrs. Marie De Laney, the mother.

The amount totaled nearly $6000, including money Robinson earned in a match August 29 at Cleveland with Flashy Sebastian and his seven-round technical knockout here Tuesday over California Jackie Robinson.

"It is an irrevokable trust account, of which I am one of the trustees, which will pay Mrs. De Laney $50 a month for 10 years, with the first payment starting tomorrow," Pearlson said, adding, "and I think Robinson is to be complimented for an act which he is really not obligated to do."

Bowling Along

By DICK ZEHMS

Cecil Martin Rolls 671 in Virginia 900

CECIL MARTIN, one of the city's all-time bowling greats, blossomed forth with a 276-671 for Carl's Fourth and Elm Station the other night to set the high-scoring example in the Virginia 950 League. Despite his herculean efforts, Carl's yielded to Greywood's Clothiers, 2-1.

Acme Beer, Matson Burgers, Alaska Inn and Newton's Detective Service took home the bacon in the other skirmishes, so Newton's kept its two-point circuit lead.

Keeping Cecil company in the 600's were Rube Tyner 615, Jack Smith (having a great week) 245-617, Jack Osborne 620, George Gojun 233-639, John Mead 237-604, Chuck Woodside 242-608, Art Parra 621, Lyman Wakeman 601 and Tim Cockriel 606. Gojun has hit four straight 600's, and Wakeman has come through with three.

K. OF C.: Financial Secretary, Grand Knight and Chancellors won duels at the Premier. C. Carroll's 532 was No. 1 on the hit parade—the lone 500.

CITY EMPLOYES: Larry Bellow's 268-619 for Water No. 2 easily headed this circuit, followed by F. Glen 207-542, E. Glass 506, P. Rogers 508, H. Putnam 502, J. Ireland 534, S. Spencer 523, D. Bartholomew 508, N. Jaschke 205, T. Milovich 518, B. Thomas 507, W. Suroka 234-586, G. Bright 580, A. Johnson 507, J. Roehrick 202-534. Public Utilities, Water No. 2, Water Engineers, Local 112, Police No. 1, Automotive, Pipe Lines, Sanitary and Juvenile won nods.

BELMONT 500: F. Taylor hit 225-221-607 to pace this circuit, while R. Spotts 224-504, O. Olson 233-620, C. Martin 221-626, T. Wester 235-600, C. Oschlager, 221-610, B. Weldin 214, A. Charles 595, V. Laguna Upsets Tustin, 33-6

By BUD HALL

LAGUNA BEACH, Nov. 1. A 6-foot, 1-inch, 185-pound power-running All-Orange County fullback of 1946, Boyd Taylor of Laguna Beach, virtually clinched all-league individual honors and the Orange League gridiron championship for Laguna Beach here yesterday when he personally led the Artists to a 33-6 surprise landslide victory over Tustin.

Taylor scored the crucial touchdowns in the early going, completed long passes which set up two more, and engineered the Laguna machine all afternoon in one of the finest displays of gridiron talent of his career.

Contributing strongly to the upset was the powerful line play of the Laguna crew, which had the Tustin forwards on their heels early and kept rolling all the way. Leader of this terrific drive was Ben Sampson, center, who played another sensational game for the winners. Score:

Tustin (6)		Laguna Beach (33)
Chungalia	L.E.	Hilario
Underwood	L.T.	Duncan
Gibson	L.G.	Brown
Holford	C.	Sampson
Hull	R.G.	Strunker
Romero	R.T.	Forsker
McCalla	R.E.	Foster
Tatum	Q.	Stein
Focht	L.H.	Smith
Johnson	R.H.	Norton
Meyer	F.	Taylor

Score by quarters:

Tustin	0	0	6	0—6
Laguna Beach	7	13	0	13—33

Scoring: Touchdowns—For Tustin, McCalla (30-yard pass play from Tatum). For Laguna Beach, Taylor 2 (30-yard cutback, 4-yard plunge); Oelke (3-yard plunge); Norton (70-yard off-tackle slant); Hilario (35-yard pass play from Taylor). Conversions, Taylor 3.

Tustin defeated Laguna, 12-6, in the Class B game.

GARDEN GROVE TIES VALENCIA, 12-12

GARDEN GROVE, Nov. 1. An aerial attack in the late stages of the final period gave the Valencia High Tigers a 12-12 tie with Garden Grove on the Valencia gridiron yesterday—and the attempt for the winning conversion point, a tricky pass just like the touchdown, missed by inches. Garden Grove won the Class B skirmish, 18-0. Summary of varsity:

Garden Grove (12)		Valencia (12)
Hinkle	L.E.	Bolsarano
Mitchell	L.T.	Henning
Green	L.G.	Montgomery
Glaze	C.	Roberts
Klaus	R.G.	Cuccia
Salgado	R.T.	La Bord
Burns	R.E.	Raya
Munion	Q.	Ruther
Deck	L.H.	Neal
Shigumasi	R.H.	Perez
Biers	F.	Collier

Score by quarters:

Garden Grove	0	0	6	6—12
Valencia	0	6	0	6—12

Scoring: Touchdowns—For Garden Grove, Munion (1-yard plunge after 40 yard drive); Thomas (55-yard return of intercepted pass). For Valencia, Raya 2 (pass play good for 63 yards from Angel); (pass play good for 31 yards from Angel).

Eastern Hunting Area Reopened

By the Associated Press

Governors of New York and Pennsylvania reopened their woodlands to hunters today, leaving only Maine where the forests are closed to gunners because of the continued threats of fires.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, after receiving a report on the three-day rain in upstate New York, ordered the forests opened and said all the time lost because of the shutdown would be added to the season and that new dates for pheasant hunting would be chosen.

In Pennsylvania, Gov. James H. Duff's proclamation will permit the state's 30-day small game season to open tomorrow on schedule.

The forests were reopened in Massachusetts and Connecticut yesterday.

Horse Dauber Passes Away

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 1. (U.P.) Death of Dauber, one of the top race horses of nearly a decade ago, was disclosed today by the horse's owner, Secretary Walter Thompson of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Assn. Thompson said the horse died Monday of a heart attack at Rancho Felicia near here, where he had been standing in stud.

Trojan 'Dog' Has Dog's Life

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1. (U.P.) University of Southern California mascot George Tirebiter faced a dog's life today with the letters "UCLA" shaved on his back.

After a brief disappearance, the big black and tan dog was returned to the S. C. campus by four youths, bearing the freshly-shaved initials of S. C.'s crosstown rivals.

Pepperdine Five to Play Nevada

RENO, Nev., Nov. 1. (U.P.) Coach Jake Lawlor today announced the addition of Pepperdine College and the Oakland Bittners of the A. A. U. League to the University of Nevada basketball schedule. Pepperdine will play here Feb. 20 and 21, Lawlor said, and the Bittners on Dec. 17.

KARL M. HALVORSON

Rev. Gibson Goes to Newport-Balboa

Rev. Thomas M. Gibson, who has been minister of education at First Presbyterian Church since his active service in the Navy in World War II, has been invited by the Presbytery of Los Angeles to start a new work in the Newport-Balboa district. This is one of the fastest-growing sections of Southern California and the need for a church center is recognized by the Presbytery, as there is no Presbyterian church accessible to the people of the community. Rev. Gibson will begin his work there today.

New Music Minister

Karl M. Halvorson has been called to Presbyterian Church as its minister of music and Christian education. He comes to Long Beach from St. Paul, Minn., where he was organist and director in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. He attended Gustavus Adolphus and Oberlin Colleges and the Lutheran Theological Seminary, and is completing his work for a master degree in sacred music. His organ and choral activities have been a major objective since he entered high school.

As minister of music, he has already started rehearsals with the Junior Choir and the Chapel Choir, composed of young people of high school and college ages, respectively, and the regular church choir. A string ensemble is now being organized.

He will be formally introduced as organist at the morning service tomorrow and will play Bach's "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor" for the offertory.

Lectures at Temple

Jack Frazie, lecturer and teacher of philosophy, will be the guest speaker Sunday evening at the Masonic Temple, 835 Locust Ave. He is former treasurer of the G. S. S. A. and has spoken on lecture platforms in the east, including Lily Dale Chautauqua Assembly of New York City and Chesterfield, Ind. Rev. Carl R. Minugh will have charge of the service.

Salvation Army Jubilee

The Golden Jubilee, nationwide observance of the 50th year of continuous social service by the Salvation Army, will be observed at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the Social Service Center, 1370 Alamitos Ave. The public is invited to attend the event.

Guest of honor and principal speaker will be Commander George Davis, recently retired from active service, and nationally known revivalist. He was retired from Territorial Headquarters, Chicago, and is now residing in Los Angeles.

Other speakers bringing greetings will be Dr. Ewing Stanton Hudson, president of the Long Beach Ministerial Union and pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Virgil H. Fisher, chairman of the church cooperation committee in the current Salvage Week campaign of the Salvation Army, pastor of Trinity Baptist church. Major Orlo Ellison, manager of the self-supporting Social Service Center, will preside.

The Citadel Silver Band will play a concert, and the Songster Brigade will be heard.

REV. MILO ROSS

Friends Schedule Revival Service

Rev. Milo Ross of Medford, Ore., is conducting a series of revival services at First Friends Church. Growing attendance has been noted for the meetings, which will continue through Nov. 9, according to Dr. Donald B. Spitler, pastor.

Rev. Ross is bringing messages which appeal to both young and old. Mrs. Bess O. Bulgin is directing the music, and special delegations from various Friends churches in Southern California are attending. He will speak at both services tomorrow.

Medal Given to Heroic Girl

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 1. (U.P.) Thirteen-year-old Barbara Joann Burkett, who swam 235 feet into Lake Elsinore to rescue a woman who could not swim, today was awarded the Bronze Medal by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

The Wilshire district schoolgirl rescued Ruth C. Rizzo, 29, June 9, 1946, after Miss Rizzo had fallen from a surfboard.

The commission awarded 23 bronze medals for acts of heroism. Other awards included:

Richard Robert Eustice, Watsonville, Calif., who died while attempting to save his daughters, aged three and five, from a fire in Laton, Calif., June 16, 1946. He previously had rescued three other children from the blaze. The award was made to his wife.

Orville Dale Loos, Dayton, Ohio, who drowned with Keen Freeman, 12, after trying to rescue the youth at Vernal Falls in the Merced River near El Portal, Calif., July 8, 1946. The award was made to his father, Orville C. Loos, Dayton, Ohio.

Jeff Lambert, Corona, Calif., and J. Wesley Jones, Denver City, Texas, who rescued Cleveland J. Ault, a tool dresser, who had been overcome by hydrogen sulphide gas in the cellar of an oil well in Crane, Texas, Jan. 13, 1945.

Grant to Aid Historic Fete

Assemblyman William S. Grant of Long Beach yesterday named as a member of the publicity and promotion committee of Los Angeles County Centennial Committee which will supervise historical observances of California events which occurred between 1848 and 1850.

The chairman of the committee will be William Nicholas, manager of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Other members will include David Olmstead, manager of the Long Beach publicity and convention bureau; Ed Ainsworth, of Los Angeles Times; Ida Koverman, secretary to Louis B. Mayer, and William G. Bowen, Los Angeles.

The special events committee will be headed by William R. Harriman, superintendent of Rancho Los Amigos, Downey. He will have a committee of 10 prominent persons to assist him in centennial celebrations, beginning with the Centenary of the signing of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, Feb. 8, 1848.

364 Die of Cholera in Egypt in Day

CAIRO, Nov. 1. (AP) The cholera epidemic in the Nile valley has taken 7588 lives since it began on Sept. 23, but the Egyptian Health Ministry said today the number of deaths decreased yesterday for the second straight day. A communique said 364 persons died of the dread disease in the latest 24-hour period.

Lions See Film of California

Scenes of California, from the Klamath Mountains on the Oregon border to the international gate between the United States and Mexico, were shown to the Lions Club yesterday as the Standard Oil Co. presented a motion picture, "California Centennial."

The film was presented by Charles E. Rogers, special representative of the company, introduced by J. L. Spaeth, assistant to the company's district manager.

Lion President Ed Shaw introduced James P. McCormick, Long Beach representative of the State Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation for the Blind, as a new member of the local club. McCormick transferred his membership from Berkeley. Shaw also welcomed back Capt. William Bais, who had been on a leave of absence for wartime service with the U. S. Maritime Commission. Ralph Cissne, club member, was announced as leaving the club because of being ordered to extended active duty by the War Department.

Dr. Charles Taylor at Lakewood Church

Dr. Charles Taylor of Tulsa, Okla., father of the famous evangelists, Charlie and Laurie Taylor, will be guest speaker tomorrow night at Lakewood Community Methodist Church for the 7:30 o'clock service, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. Fred D. Wilde. Dr. Taylor also is a noted preacher and shares the evangelistic programs of his sons. The party will come to Long Beach to hold the Long Beach United Methodist "Crusade for Christ" at First Methodist Church. Dr. Taylor, affectionately known as "Dad Taylor," is holding preparatory services for the greater campaign, and one of these is the service in Lakewood.
