ROCKY CLARK'S LISTENING POST

Radio listeners of the Bridgeport area will receive returns of the Bridgeport city election and important neighboring contests Tuesday night over the two Bridgeport radio stations in cooperation with the Bridgeport Post and Telegram. The entire Post-Telegram staff will be on the job, relaying returns from voting districts to the editorial room where tabulators will compile the results for immediate broadcasts.

With the polls closing at 6 p.m., district returns will become available shortly thereafter and will be broadcast direct from the Post-Telegram editorial room over WNAB while WICC broadcasts them by telephone relay. The result of the mayoralty vote should be on the air by 6:30, but tabulation of the aldermanic vote probably will not be available until later in the evening.

SIKORSKY WITH M'BRIDE
Igor Sikorsky, Bridgeport's world-famous aviation inventor, will be interviewed by Mary Margaret McBride on her WNBC program tomorrow at 1 p.m. The interview will be concerned chiefly with Sikorky's new book, "The Invisible Encounter."

NEWSY BRIEFS
Dana Andrews, Jane Wyatt and Richard Widmark are to do a Screen Guild Players' version of "Boomerang," story of Bridgeport's Father Dahme murder case, on CBS Nov. 10 at 10:30 p. m.... WHN begins its seasonal coverage of "pro" basketball games Tuesday night at 9:30 when the New York Knickerbockers play the Philadelphia Warriors in Philly, with Marty Glickman and Stan Lomax at the mike.... No less than 18,275 cheering women welcomed Tom Breneman to Madison Square Garden Friday morning for the special "Breakfast in Hollywood" broadcast which added $12,500 to the Damon Runyon cancer fund.

BRESCIA GOING STRONG
From Memphis comes word of the latest exploit by Matty Brescia, ex-Bridgeporter now promotion manager of WMPS, the ABC outlet there. The station has just increased its power and changed its frequency to 680, inspiring Matty to launch a big promotion drive centered on the number "68," WMPS' new spot on the dial. One of the stunts was a 68-cent sale in Memphis' Sears-Roebuck store which put full-page ads in the papers calling attention to the event.

GOSSIPY BITS
Mrs. Harold E. Jewett of 1709 Noble avenue received a veritable truck-load of prizes Friday morning for sending in a group of five questions to CBS' "Grand Slam" program and stumping a studio contestant on four of them .... Screen Star George Murphy will emcee the 10th anniversary 'Dr. Christian" party to Jean Hersholt which will be aired by CBS Wednesday night at 8:30 in place of the regular drama .... Barry Ulanov's be-boppers won the recent "battle of jazz" against Rudi Blesh and his Dixielanders, according to the mail vote, so Dizzy Gillespie's group will do another "Bands for Bonds" broadcast over Mutual Saturday at 1:30, though WICC and WOR are not scheduled to carry it .... A Dalton, Mass., school principal has won the "Heart's Desire" air-trip to Holland .... Sports enthusiasts will enjoy Joy Taylor's "Berkshire Hunting and Fishing Club" program over Danbury's WLAD these Sundays at 2:45.

REUNION FOR BANDSMEN
Bill Ratzenberger, who played trumpet in Blue Barron's band before the war, will be having a reunion with his former boss and his sidemen when the band comes to Bridgeport today for personal appearances at the Lyric Theater....and it wouldn't be surprising if, after the last show at the Lyric, they breezed out of the Ritz ballroom where one of the nation's best piano-playing bandleaders, Claude Thornhill, will be doing a one-nighter with his Columbia recording band.
