The Listening Post

Frankie Laine Fan Hits Sinatra, Vic

By ROCKY CLARK

"Those Sinatra and Damone fans both sound pretty screwy to me," writes a Shelton miss who prefers to be identified as "Desire." To her, Frankie Laine is the one and only male singer that matters today. She writes:

'I wonder who the morons really are—those women who wrote about Sinatra or their husbands. I'd say the women were the morons. What kind of wives can they be if they consider their husbands morons?

"As for Damone fans arguing against the Sinatra fans, it's too silly for words. Damone and Sinatra sound exactly alike. Of the two, Vic at least hasn't gotten his reputation tainted by running around with gangsters.

"My Frankie, Laine of course, could give them all a good lesson in how to really sing. Did you see the latest Downbeat which tells how they're packing the Paramount in San Francisco to cheer my Frankie? They even quote a San Francisco critic woh said few things have pleased me more than Laine's show.

"Of Frankie Laine, the critic added that 'he reminds us that popular music, like really good jazz, is supposed to give us a good time and not make us feel just sweet and awful' Other critics were equally enthusiastic over his show, according to Downbeat.

"So listen, you kids, you can have your Sinatra and Damone, but I'll take Frankie Laine. When he sings 'That's My Desire', brother, that IS my desire."

Eleanor's Back

Eleanor Ricci of 61 Parallel street has come through with an answer to the Damone fans who criticized her remarks here last week. Eleanor's letter is too long to be printed in full, but here are a few highlights.

"No, Pat, I don't go to hear Vic so I can think of Sinatra I don't want to see him, he looks like a freak I might get scared and then get ill over it

"Janet better get more fans than that to make Vic stay up there—just a couple of thousands, should I say, like Frankie has?

"They say that Sinatra is 'hot-headed' and conceited' He is friends with everyone. . People talk through their hate Why don't they prove all this stuff about gangsters."

Eleanor also feels that Vic is being given an overabundance of good publicity in the papers

Believe Pegler

Pat, "A fan of Vic's", on the other hand, says "I and all my friends know and firmly believe Westbrook Pegler's words. If they were not true, Sinatra could have sued him and the Bridgeport Post for libel.. Don't be fooled into taking pity on Sinatra because he has a wife and children Mr Damone has a mother and younger sisters He supports them, and at the age of 19.

"I am sure if I were married, my husband, not being a moron, would object to my swooning over a person not even capable of singing' . . Vic puts his heart in his songs Sinatra puts his feet in his songs."

'BEULAH' RESUMES

It's tonight at 7 o'clock that "Beulah" returns via WCBS as a new Monday-through-Friday feature, Hattie McDaniel, noted Negro screen star, is playing the role made famous by the late Marlin Hurt. Ernest Whitman portrays her boyfriend Bill. Hugh Studebaker and Mary Jane Croft play Mr. and Mrs. Henderson. The scripts are by Arthur Phillips, Hal Kantor and Sol Stewart.

RIPPLES FROM AIR WAVES

Emil Kunkel, commander of Danbury's American Legion post, will be heard on WLAD's "Civic Spotlight" tomorrow at 1:15 in a panel discussion with other veterans on the sales tax and "how to fight Communists in Connecticut" . . Children of UN delegates will be given a Thanksgiving dinner party by WNEW tomorrow night, and highlights of the affair will be recorded for a Thanksgiving Day broadcast at 1 p m. . . . From Ralph Edwards comes a warning that hawkers have a new racket, offering information leading to the identity of "Miss Hush" for $1. Their information is incorrect, he says, and you might better spend the dollar as a contribution to the March of Dimes . . . Tom Breneman, who's opening a bigger Breneman restaurant in Hollywood next week, will also have the first issue of the Breneman Magazine on the stands next month . . . Note to "Interested Fan of J. D" Where did you ever get such an idea? . . . The sultry French accent of "Renee" on recent broadcasts of "Duffy's Tavern" belong to Vecla Vonn, beauteous wife of Mr. Hanley Stafford, the "Daddy" of Baby Snooks' show . . . Jack Paar having been given his notice by his sponsor, begins to think that LSMFT means "Losing Sponsor Means Facing Trouble."

In 1910 about one-seventh of the inhabitants of the United States had been born in other countries.
