

TODAY'S RADIO BROADCASTS

Today's Features

ON W-G-N.

Tonight the Don Lee network of California and other incoming stations will salute the Mutual Broadcasting system in connection with its expansion to coast to coast proportions. The opening salvo will be heard at 9 p. m. from Hollywood, with Conrad Nagel as master of ceremonies who will present Tom Lee, president of the Lee network, and a flock of motion picture stars.

EDWARD ARNOLD.

David Broeckman's orchestra and Glee club; Claude Sweeten's orchestra and a brief pickup from the Chinese telephone exchange of San Francisco.

At 9:30 the Fireside theater will present from W-G-N's main studio a half hour program of swing music featuring Meade Lux Lewis and Gladys LaPalmer, pianists; the Chicago Rhythm club, the Dixie Demons and Lou Adrian and his orchestra. Edward [Squirrel] Ashcroft, III, president of the club, will be master of ceremonies.

At 10 p. m. the scene switches to Hollywood again where Edward Arnold and a dramatic cast will give a radio version of "John Mead's Woman," his latest picture.

Then Edwin Imhouse will sing a selection from "I Pagliacci" to the accompaniment of Sweeten's music from San Francisco. Concluding the broadcast from the coast, Broeckman's orchestra and choir will again be heard from Los Angeles.

Incoming Nebraska stations will salute the chain at 10:45 p. m. and the Iowa network at 11:15 p. m.
