Television Owners Favor Sport Events

By ROCKY CLARK

The majority of people buying television receivers are doing so because they want to watch sports events more than anything else. That's what a survey of the New York area has proven to the Allen B. DuMont laboratory, owner of WABD and maker of video equipment.

Questioning 1200 persons on the television fare they prefer, the surveyors found sporting events favored by 68 per cent. Drama was favored by 42 per cent, movies by 40 per cent, with special events, news and other programs trailing. (Because of multiple answers, the total ran above 100 per cent.

(Most surprising was the fact that 57 per cent of the women were listed as preferring sports. Of course, television has no soap operas—yet!).

PARENTS VS. KIDS

Doting parents, often charged by the endless stream of questions put to them by teenage sons and daughters, are to match wits with their offspring in a new quiz program, "Keeping Up with the Kids", over WICC-MBS Saturday nights at 8:30, starting Jan. 24. Parent-child teams, selected from the studio audience, are to compete in answering questions voiced by Benay Venuta, the emcee, who hopes thus to personalize via radio the eternal parent-child battle of wits—oftimes the butt of jokes and cartoons.

'NAM QUESTION BOX'

When the National Association of Manufacturers resumes its weekly "It's Your Business" program over WNAB-ABC tomorrow night at 10:30, a new feature will be added—the NAM Question Box. Listeners will be invited to submit queries on current topics concerning business, to be answered by spokesmen for business and industry.

To offset the left-wing attacks constantly heaped upon this organization, the NAM will take its case to the people—doing each week's broadcast from a different city. "Inflation" will be the subject of the first two programs, tomorrow's from Boston, next week's from Syracuse. "Foreign Aid" comes up Jan. 20 at Pittsburgh; "Taxes", Jan. 27, at Atlanta.

Two newly-elected NAM directors are to be heard tomorrow—Robert W. Stoddard of the Wyman-Gordon company, Worcester, Mass., and Norman D. MacLeod of the Abrasive Machine Tool company, East Providence, R. I. Other speakers will be George Olmsted, president of S. D. Warren company, Boston, and William S. Rainey, moderator.

PHONY 'MISS HUSH'

Ralph Edwards recently received a bill from a Shreveport, La. hotel which puzzled him until he queried the inn and found that, during the Miss Hush contest, a woman registered there under the name of "Miss Hush" with instructions to send the bill to Edwards. She told the manager she had been doing the Saturday night club broadcasts from a farmhouse which just burned down and that the hotel would be her new hideout. They gave her the most luxurious suite and every possible comfort for two weeks, after which the gal checked out. Now they're trying to catch up with her.

EDITORIALS BEGIN

Two New York independent stations begin editorial campaigns tonight. "Breaking the Traffic Jam," on WNEW nightly at 10:03, will present experts from other cities, with suggestions for solving Manhattan's seemingly hopeless, traffic problems. "A Home to Live In," on WMCA nightly at 10:03, will do documentary programs aimed at getting the mayor to call an open hearing on the housing shortage. Jackson Beck will be narrator.

RIPPLES FROM AIR WAVES

Kay Lorraine, former Hit Parade songstress, gets her own show on WOR starting Thursday night at 8:15, with Frank Gallop as emcee and Sam Prager's orchestra. . . . CBS' twice-broadcast Suspense drama, "The Argyle Album", has been purchased by Bronx Productions and goes before the movie cameras this month. . . .On his CBS program Wednesday night at 8:30, Jean Hersholt will announce details of the 1948 Dr. Christian Award Script competition . . .Rep. J. Parnell Thomas is to broadcast a "Report on un-American Activities in the U. S." over WCBS Wednesday at 6:15 p.m.

Eileen Ellis figures on a big audience for WNAB's "Music of the Nations" program tonight at 8 when Poland is the port of call, with music ranging from Chopin, classics to popular polkas. . . .ABC has taken an option on a new show, "Ken Niles Goes to a Party". . . .Bette Dubro, soprano to be heard on next Sunday's "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air" is the former "Gloria" who sang with the Spitalny girl orchestra. . . It's tonight at 8 that "Point Sublime", Cliff Arquette's comedy show with Mel Blanc, which has been a success in the west, gets a coast-to-coast ABC audience (WJZ, etc.). . . .and it's tonight at 11:15 that Robert Q. Lewis starts his new WCBS comedy show to be followed at 11:30 by Galen Drake's new half-hour show.

'ARMY' BOARD MEETS

The January meeting of the Salvation Army advisory board will take place tonight at 6:15 o'clock in the Citadel, 30 Elm street, James F. Coleman, board chairman, has announced. Dinner will be served by the Ladies' Home league under the direction of Mrs. John Hunter. Mrs Charles Wiseman, formerly in charge of the Citadel corps, will address the board and reports of Christmas activities will be submitted.

The Nathan Hale summer campers' Christmas party, postponed because of the storm, will take place tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the Citadel. The reunion will bring together children who attended the Army's camp last summer for a program of songs, feats of magic and refreshments.

BARBERS TO INSTALL

New officers of Local 197, Journeymen Barbers, will be installed at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Sons of Italy hall.

Officers to be inducted include George Smaiana, president; Vincent Adinolfi, vice president; Louis Perotta, secretary-treasurer and business agent; Neal Agresta, recorder; Vincent Attardo, guide; Thomas Romano and Max Hellman, trustees.

A smoker and entertainment program will follow the ceremony. Members of the Master Barbers' association have been invited to attend.

New Interests Help You Ignore Enticing Foods Forbidden by Diet

Jane Kean forgets food while dancing with singer Danny Schell.

Here's another installment of a seven-day New Year's diet.

By ALICIA HART
(NEA Staff Writer)

An absorbing interest will help to keep your mind off the food that you're giving up while dieting.

Dr. Wilfred Dorfman, author of the soon-to-be-published "Overweight Is Curable," says: "Overeating is sometimes due to boredom and lack of varied interests. The acquisition of new interests to supplant the undeniable enjoyment one can obtain from food is often of great help.'

The best kind of interest or hobby to take on is one that keeps your mind and body active and takes you outside the house, away from the temptations that lurk in the icebox.

While you are dieting might well be the time to learn new dance steps if you like to trip the light fantastic. Mastering new rhythms will prove diverting, will provide good recreation and will add to your qualifications as a good partner.

FOURTH DAY'S DIET

Breakfast
1 apple
1 poached egg
Coffee with milk, no sugar
Lunch
Broiled hamburger on 1 thin sl. whole wheat toast
1 C. string beans
Celery curls, carrot strips, dill pickle rollahes
Fresh orange cup
Milk
Dinner
2 slices broiled liver
3 stalks broccoli
Lettuce with sliced tomato
1 sl. unsweetened pineapple
Tea or coffee with milk, no sugar.
