Father's Club Fetes Harding Grid Squad

State Champs to Hear Rip Engle, Brown Coach, at Banquet Tonight.

Charles (Rip) Engle, head coach of football at Brown University, will be the main speaker tonight when Warren Harding High school's undefeated-untied State championship gridiron squad is feted at the annual Father's Club banquet in the Candlelite restaurant, River street, starting at 6:30 o'clock.

Engle has been connected with Brown athletics since 1942 when he was appointed end coach in football and head coach of basketball. In 1943, he took charge of the backs for J. Neil (Skip) Stahley and became football head coach in the spring of 1944 when Stahley entered the Naval Reserve. Engle played football under Coach Dick Harlow at Western Maryland. After his graduation in 1930, he went to Waynesboro (Pa.) High school where he taught physical fitness and coached the school teams.

Ernest Rankin, president of the Harding Father's Club, will serve as toastmaster at tonight's affair. In addition to members of the Harding team, guests will include the school coaches, members of the Board of Education, Superintendent of Schools, Joseph Jeffrey, Mayor Jasper McLevy, Police Superintendent John Lyddy and Fire Chief Martin Hayden.

Principal Harold A. Swaffield of Roger Ludlowe High school, Fairfield, president of the Connecticut Interscholastic Athletic conference, will present the Harding gridders with a special plaque voted by the C.I.A.C. in commendation of their all-winning record last fall.

A number of group and individual awards, including letters and sweaters, also will be presented to the team. Bill Roehrich, captain of the championship squad, and Jack Maceyunas, captain-elect for 1948, will be introduced to the gathering.

The Harding music department will provide entertainment.

NEWFIELDS FACE SARATOGA FRIDAY

The Saratoga Indians, one of the most powerful quintets to play here this season, will provide the opposition for the Newfields Friday night at the Harding high school gym. The Indians have a rangy, high-scoring outfit with some of the best college players of recent years in the lineup.

Saratoga boasts of such men as Bill Roberts, 6-9 giant from the University of Wyoming who performed for that club when it won the National Collegiate Tournament in Madison Square Garden; Pudgy Bell, former captain of the Renaissance; Tony Kelly, 6-4, ex-captain of DePaul college, and others. Kelly who played two years with Sheybogan of the National Pro League, last year performed with the Baltimore Bullets who won the American League title. Kelly scored 15 points against the Newfield lint season in their tussle with Baltimore.

Ernest Cowan, sponsor of the Newfields, changed the date of the game from Sunday to Friday at the request of officials of the Bridgeport Rehabilitation Center so as not to interfere with the benefit basketball program to be sponsored Sunday in the Armory. The Indians consented to the change even though it means another trip into this section of the state.

Because of the sudden shift in dates, no advance ticket sale will take place for this game. Hereafter, the Newfields will play all their home games on Sunday nights, with the Syracuse Nats of the National Pro League being their first opponent Jan. 25.

NEWFIELD PIN LEAGUE

ODELL REPORTED ON WAY TO COAST FOR JOB PARLEY

Yale Mentor to Confer with Washington Officials on Grid Offer.

SEATTLE, Jan. 13 (AP)—The finger pointed sharply at Howard Odell of Yale today as the new head football coach at the University of Washington, with the Times saying flatly he was the chosen man and the New Haven, Conn., register reporting Odell was Westward bound to confer with university officials.

Out on the hilltop where the university sprawls all the comment was "no comment."

Last week the Times said the choice had narrowed to Odell and George Sauer of Kansas. Today it subtracted one from the two and came up with Odell after hearing from the University of Kansas that Sauer had signed a new four-year contract.

Harvey Cassill, director of athletics at the university, was en route home from the East and was expected to make his recommendations to Dr. Raymond B. Allen, university president, tomorrow.

Odell has a three-year contract at Yale but Robert J. Kiphuth, athletic director there, said last week the coach was "free to leave" at any time.

Fine Good Record

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 13 (AP)—During his six years as head coach at Yale, Howie Odell's football teams have won 36 games, lost 15 and were tied twice. The record includes four in a row over arch rival Harvard, and four in five over Princeton, the lone defeat coming last season.

Odell's 1934 eleven went undefeated, but was tied once.

The record:

1942	5	3	0
1943	4	5	0
1944	7	0	1
1945	6	3	0

Good Golf

By CHESTER HORTON

My mail-bag turns up several letters from golfers who feel uncertain as to just where their hands should be at the top of the backswing. Our picture will answer this for most players. In short, the hands should be about level with the top of the head and bisect the distance between head and shoulder trip. The important thing is to be sure when your hands are head high that your left arm is rammed straight, the right elbow close into the side, left hand closed—I repeat that, closed. The tendency to open the left hand at the top is the cause of many a sour shot. For the closing of the left hand later, after the downswing starts, almost inevitably throws the clubhead out of its correct path usually producing a slice. The clubhead is pushed outside the direction line so that, at impact, the clubhead is travelling inward across the direction line, putting right-hand spin on the ball. Further, the power stored up by the pivot as you go back is lost if the left hand is released at the top. Watch that yourself or, better still, have some other player watch you swing and see if you are unconsciously opening the left hand.

You can learn the Fox Trot or the Samba in only one hour. The Rumba is made miraculously easy. Why wait and miss out on the fun and popularity? Come to the Arthur Murray Studio or phone 4-8822 for an appointment.
