
The State Journal adventure strip, "Brick Bradford," has become a movie serial, and the Majestic theater will show the first chapter Friday and Saturday. Kane Richmond has the title role, with Rick Vallin as Sandy, Linda Johnson as June, and Pierre Watkin as Salisbury.

The serial is one of the oldest movie forms. It began in 1913 with "The Adventures of Kathleen." Then came "Lucille Love," followed by "The Perils of Pauline," starring Pearl White; the greatest success of the early period was "The Million Dollar Mystery."

In the trade, serials are known as "cliff-hangers" because each instalment leaves a principal character in some such predicament as hanging over a cliff . . . and leaves the audience knowing that next week he'll be rescued but wondering how.

"Gone With the Wind" will have a 3-day run at the Middleton theater starting next Tuesday. Showings will be at 1:30 and 7:30 p. m. Tuesday and Wednesday and at 7.30 p. m. Thursday.

Entries will be accepted from 3 to 8 p. m. Wednesday Apr. 28, at the Union gallery. All current students except graduate assistants and instructors who entered the faculty show may compete.

Despite the fact that another date was given on a card sent to members, the Madison Art assn. will have its annual dinner on May 5, as announced in The State Journal on Sunday.

DISCS OF THE DAY: On the popular side . . .

Louis Armstrong (Columbia): "I Can't Give You Anything But Love" and "Black and Blue," Reissues of 1929 favorites. A collector's item.

DORIS DAY

Doris Day (Columbia): "Thoughtless" and "I've Only Myself to Blame." Nice singing, nice setting.

Ray Noble (Columbia): "I Fell in Love With You" and "Saturday Night in Central Park." Swell arranging job on both of these. Al Hendrickson sings.

Jimmy Dorsey (MGM): "If I Only Had a Match," vocal by Bill Lawrence, and "Three O'Clock in the Morning," vocal by Lawrence. Dee Parker, Skylarks. Nice going by all aboard.

Art Lund (MGM): "What'll I Do?" and "I'll Always Be in Love With You." In these revivals, Johnny Thompson's orchestra proves to be the real star. Watch these boys.

Jack Edwards (MGM): "I Wish I Knew the Name" and "My Fair Lady." This is Jack's first singing record, and he does a creditable job in the Vaughn Monroe manner.

Jimmy Dorsey (MGM): "You Turned the Tables on Me" and "My Guitar." Vocals by Carol Scott and Bill Lawrence, respectively. Dorsey's sax stars on the former. Latter gets a Latin treatment.

Marion Hutton (MGM): "My Brooklyn Love Song" and "Little White Mouse". With Sonny Burke's orchestra. Former's a cute ditty fitting Marion's style. "White Mouse" is just that, music.

Sammy Kaye (Victor): "I Wouldn't Be Surprised," vocal by Don Cornell and Laura Leslie, and "Tell Me a Story," vocal by Cornell and Three Kaydets. Here's the best disking yet of the latter. First one's nice, too.

Original 'Revelers' to Sing Tonight

A male quartet which made a hit with Madison music-lovers during the season of 1928-29 will have a radio reunion tonight.

The orginal "Revelers" will sing on the "Harvest of Stars"—of which James Melton is the star—over WBBM at 8:30.

Buddhist Fasts at Valentino's Old Home

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD — Here's a tip that will no doubt interest the news wire-service boys. Up at Rodolf Valentino's old home, "Falcon's Lair," the head of some 3 million Buddhists is living on a starvation diet until Russia and the U. S. make some kind of "peace pact." He eats nothing. Just drinks lime-water and sleeps sitting up! He is the house-guest of the wealthy and cult-minded new owners of Valentino's famous hill-top abods.

Ruth Warrick, now in Philadelphia, says that the mayor of that city told her the main reason that both Republicans and Democrats are holding their conventions there is because Philly has the strongest television outlet in the country with a potential coverage of millions of people. Neither party wants the other to have that added advantage, hence both pow-wows in the same place.

Carl Brisson (Rosalind Russell's pop-in-law, ex-movie star and recently a singing hit is a feudin' and a fumin' at Hildegarde. He tells friends she's been swiping a lot of ideas from him. And he does NOT mean the lace hanky-waving! One of the reasons Rita Hayworth signed up again at Columbia was because she was virtually promised the starring role in "Born Yesterday," the Bway. hit show which that studio owns. Now the latest is that they're thinking of borrowing Marie McDonald from Metro for it. If true, Rita will be tighty disappointed. She just rented a house in Palm Springs for two months — but will be lucky to get week-ends there because she's supposed to start work again (picture still untitled) in May. Her ex, Orson Welles is running around Paris with the grand daughter of Tolstoi. Awesome Orson's next epic will be "Othello."

The family of Conan Doyle still gets $500 every week in royalties from the Sherlock Holmes series.

Brian Donlevy has sold his Brentwood home, where he had more marital scrappiness than happiness.

Chances are that Gilbert Roland will continue in the Cisco Kid series even though a different company will produce them now.

Dana Andrews and Lilli Palmer had never met until they started work together in "No Minor Vices" last week. Then they spent the first four days in front of the camera just necking! What a lahvley way to get acquainted!
