The Listening Post

Benny Still First; 'Carmen' Top Opera

By ROCKY CLARK

The new Hooperatings will show you that Jack Benny again enjoys the biggest radio audience. And WQXR, which has been conducting a survey of its own listeners will tell you that Bizet's "Carmen" is the most popular opera, though Wagner is their favorite operatic composer.

Verdi was runner-up to Wagner in the WQXR poll of 4,600 Advisory Committee listeners. Eight operas by Wagner, five by Verdi, and three each by Mozart and Puccini captured 19 of the 25 places on the operatic hit parade.

Top ten were 'Carmen', Mozart's "Don Giovanni", Verdi's "La Traviata", Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde", Verdi's 'Aida', Puccini's "La Boheme", Wagner's "Die Meistersinger", Gounod's 'Faust, Mozart's 'Marriage of Figaro" and Puccini's 'Madame Butterfly.

As for the new Hooperatings Walter (Now he hates the Britian) Winchell ran second to Benny, followed by CBS Radio Theater, 'My Friend Irma', Fibber McGee Amos 'n' Andy, Charlie McCarthy, Bob Hope, Fred Allen and 'Truth or Consequences.'

WPIX PATTERN ON AIR

With New Haven's WNHC-TV scheduled to put its test pattern on the air this week on Channel 6, announcement comes from the Daily News that WPIX' test pattern is already on the air daily from 2:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Channel 11. The WPIX antenna is atop the News Building on 42nd street.

LeDONNE IN NORWALK

Mickey LeDonne and his grand trio are opening tonight at the Legion Restaurant in South Norwalk where they created a bit of a sensation last Friday night. The LeDonnes will work four nights a week at the nightspot which has just been taken over by Frank Lombardi and Jim Marchetti.

Frank and Jim, were given a testimonial dinner by close to 100 of their friends here last night at the Club Tip Top. Bert Nevins was master of ceremonies and entertained with his clever Al Jolson impersonations. Incidentally, Bert is going along to Norwalk with Frank and Jim to act as bartender at the Legion Restaurant, which will change its name to the Picadilly in the near future. How about installing a wire, WNLK to pick up the LeDonnes?

POLITICS IN SONG

With the political pot reaching its boiling point, songs are being prepared for the coming conventions. Southern Democrats, revolting against Truman policies, already have a theme song—'Let's Send Harry Back to the Farm," with words by Bill Daniel, executive secretary to South Carolina's Governor Thurmond, and music by Maj. Robert Crawford, who wrote the Army Air Corps song.

STORY OF WELLESLEY

Our good friend Flora Harlow, calls attention to Ted Malone's WNAB-ABC program tomorrow at 11:45 a.m. when the popular story-teller will broadcast the story of Alice Freeman Palmer, second president of Wellesley college. It's a story, she tells us that will be of interest not only to Wellesley alumnae but to listeners the world over.

RIPPLES FROM AIR WAVES

Mark Twain's "A Connecticut Yankee" will be dramatized in three episodes on NBC's "Great Novels" program starting Friday night at 11:30. Art treasures valued at 80 million dollars, discovered by American troops in Germany, will be televised by NBC at the Metropolitan Museum tonight at 8. Raymond Massey will be starred in the Theater Guild's television production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" on WNBT Sunday night at 8:30. A trailer manufacturer will sponsor Harrison Wood's commentaries over WJZ-ABC Sundays at 3 p.m. starting June 20. The unique program reports about the condition of Lucille Wall since her accident last February will terminate tomorrow on NBC's "Portia Faces Life" at 5:15 p.m. when Lucille will cut in and give the exact date of her return to the air.
