Youth Leader to Hold Rites

Col. Edgar Grinstead, international youth leader of the Salvation Army, will be in Long Beach tomorrow and will conduct two special services at the Salvation Army Citadel, 329 Locust Ave.

At 10 a. m. he will present music, chalk talks, and give interesting observations of his world travels. This is particularly a youth meeting, but everyone will be welcome. At 11 a. m. he will conduct the regular morning service. Also present at this service will be Col. William Gilliard of San Francisco, field secretary for the Army's operations in the western states, Alaska and Hawaii.

Japanese Presbyterian Ministers to Convene

The annual conference of Japanese Presbyterian ministers and lay delegates will be held immediately following the adjournment of the Synod of California sessions at First Presbyterian Church.

The conference will convene in Fellowship House, Los Angeles, Wednesday, and conclude Friday. Approximately 30 representatives are expected to attend.

Speakers on the program will include Rev. Drummond, Rev. George Kodaira and Rev. Howard Toriumi. A reception for the delegates will be held in Long Beach Saturday, according to Rev. George Hirose of Long Beach Japanese Presbyterian Church.

Hawaii Mission Head to Be Guest Preacher

Dr. Roy L. Ruth, superintendent of the Hawaii Mission, will be guest preacher at Atlantic Avenue Methodist Church tomorrow morning. He will speak on "Methodists in Rainbowland."

Prior to assuming the superintendency of the Methodist missions of the Hawaiian Islands he was pastor of First Church, Ontario, and for a period of four years on the faculty of Union College, Barbourville, Ky.

Bach Choir Performs at Redlands Tonight

The Long Beach Bach Choir of First Congregational Church has been invited to give the program tonight at the University of Redlands for the Redlands Church Music Conference, according to Harry J. Tomlinson Jr., director of the choir.

Musicians from the 48 states will appear on the conference program and in attendance. Mrs. Christine Tomlinson will be accompanist for the choir.

Kanow received his preparatory training under Rev. Gordon Chapman while in Japan, and at MacAlester College, Minnesota. He now is studying at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, and is pastor of the Japanese Presbyterian Church in Salinas.

Similarly for the Sunday evening service, Rev. Howard Toriumi, pastor of Watsonville Japanese Presbyterian Church, will speak. Rev. Toriumi also studied at San Francisco Seminary, and received his degree from Princeton University. He served in the Topaz Relocation Center, Salt Lake City, Utah, and at Sacramento before being called to Watsonville.

Berkeley Resident to Occupy Pulpit

Dr. Lloyd S. Moore of Berkeley will occupy the pulpit of the Unitarian Church tomorrow morning in a return visit. He will speak on "Deep River," presenting liberal religion's pattern of clear thinking in solving religious, social and political problems.

Dr. Moore received his Ph.D. at the University of Chicago and was professor of philosophy and religion at the University of Tulsa for eight years and served similarly at the Lewis and Clark University of Portland, Ore. During World War II he was USO director in the military and later the industrial divisions and recently has served as minister and writer.

'Christian Science' Is Lesson-sermon

"Christian Science" will be the Sunday lesson-sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The golden text, chosen from Isaiah, reads, "O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures:" "Some individuals assimilate truth more readily than others, but any student, who adheres to the divine rules of Christian Science and imbibes the spirit of Christ, can demonstrate Christian Science, cast out error, heal the sick, and add continually to his store of spiritual understanding, potency, enlightenment and success."

Joy Rider Sentenced to San Quentin Term

Jose M. Chavez, 33, Wilmington laborer, convicted on a felony joyriding charge on June 4, yesterday was denied probation and sentenced to serve from one to five years in San Quentin by Superior Judge Percy Hight.

Chavez was arrested by San Pedro police when Julius Castillo of San Pedro called officers and reported on April 10 that the car in which Chavez was driving had been stolen from him. Officers said they arrested Chavez in the stolen automobile.

MR. AND MRS. A. J. DAVIS

Fete for Pair Wed 50 Years

With all of their eight children present, Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Davis, 73 and 68, of Norco, Calif., former residents of Long Beach, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow at the home of a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loren W. Harrison, 3255 Oregon Ave. The Harrisons will have open house from 3 to 5 p. m., followed by a family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married June 27, 1898, in Marion, Iowa, moved to Coalinga in 1914, to Long Beach in 1923, and to Norco in 1942. Mr. Davis was employed in the Coalinga and Long Beach oil fields.

Present will be Charles, Albert and Nellie (Mrs. Leo V. Crabb) of Bakersfield; Thelma (Mrs. Vic Fransden) and Genta (Mrs. Jim Rippee) of Norco; Ernest, Edith (Mrs. Fred Laudan) and Bernita (Mrs. Loren W. Harrison) of Long Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have eight grandsons and six granddaughters. The only grandchild not present will be S-Sgt. Allen Davis, stationed with the Army at Sacramento.

Pastor Off to Attend Christian Youth Meet

Rev. Charles H. Swift Jr., associate pastor, and Elwood M. Jones, minister of music of East Side Christian Church, left yesterday for Idyllwild Pines to join the staff of the Christian Youth Fellowship Conference. The conference is the annual youth event held by the Disciples of Christ in California. Rev. Swift will act as dean of the conference and represent the national headquarters of the United Christian Missionary Society. Mr. Jones will serve on the faculty as music director.

Also going to Idyllwild this morning are three young folks from East Side Church, who will attend the Chi Rho camp for younger youth. They are Sue Ann Davis, Joanne Clinard and Jo Ann Thiessen. Those attending the conference are Vernon Tyler, Janice Campbell and Sharon Nye.

Spiritual Science Lecture Scheduled

Introducing Spiritual Science with new lectures at the Masonic Temple, 835 Locust Ave., Carl R. Minugh will be heard tomorrow at 7:45 p. m. There will be music by Eva Beu, organist. The lectures will further the teachings of Dr. William James of Harvard University in the faith of philosophy and principles of spiritual healing.

Village Church Choir to Offer Concert

Lakewood Village Church Choir led by Robert N. Platt will present a concert tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the sanctuary at Centralia and Sunfield. The concert will include numbers by Hayden, Schubert, Tschaikowsky, Mackinnon, Thieman and Clokey, with Mary Bassett, soprano; Mary Crawford, contralto; Kenneth Waltz, tenor, and Fred Smith, baritone.

Gideons to Assist

Long Beach's camp of the Gideons will assist in the morning service at First Mexican Methodist Church Sunday at 11 o'clock, according to Rev. John C. Palacios, pastor. Cleveland Hayter will speak. At 4:30 p. m., youths will have a service and will have visiting speakers. Alfonso Escobosa will have charge of the service and present Virginia Peres of Orange and Rev. Exquiel Alvarado of Westminster, speakers. The general theme will be "That All May Be One." Rev. Palacios will preach in the evening.

Vacation Bible School

Trinity United Brethren Church will have its daily vacation Bible school starting Monday and closing July 2, according to Rev. Ernest E. Beattie, pastor. The classes will be from 9 a. m. to noon. Children from 4 years of age through junior high school are invited.

Astronomer to Speak

Dr. Phillip L. Knox, nationally known astronomer, lecturer and preacher, will speak on "Sun, Moon and Stars Foretell a Bright Tomorrow" at his lecture tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in Masonic Temple, 835 Locust Ave. The motion picture "An Hour With Christ" will be shown at 6:45 p. m.

Biblical Events

The Bible's leading events, from the Creation on down to St. Paul, will be seen in pictures at Garfield Baptist Church, beginning tomorrow evening. This visual training course will be given in 10 Sunday evening programs. Mrs. Ethan Baker of Los Angeles will present the pictures, which are made direct from originals by the old masters.

Annual Episcopal School to Open

The 46th annual summer school of the Episcopal diocese of Los Angeles, the oldest diocesan summer school in the American Church, will open tomorrow at Harvard School, Coldwater Canyon Rd., Studio City, North Hollywood.

The faculty will consist of Rt. Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, bishop of Oregon; Dr. Pierson Parker, Th. D., of the Church Divinity School, Berkeley, and Rev. Elvin W. Smith, St. Simon's Mission, San Fernando.

The school staff will include Rev. Charles L. Conder of St. John's, Coachella, dean; Rev. J. Ogden Hoffman Jr., St. Luke's Church, Monrovia, chaplain; Rev. Charles H. Perry, St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood, registrar and director of recreation; Mrs. Mark Banta, diocesan education secretary, Glendale, treasurer and hospitality chairman. Bishop Robert B. Gooden will be the speaker for the regular evening hymn sings.

Professor of Church History Will Speak

Dr. Theodore Hoyer, professor of church history in Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., and an associate of Rev. Martin J. Bruer, pastor, will preach at both services at First Lutheran Church tomorrow. He will attend the annual session of the Southern California District of the Missouri Synod, convening in Grace Lutheran Church, Los Angeles, tomorrow evening.

Forum Speaker

Dr. Joseph Murphy, director of the Institute of Religious Science at Rochester, N. Y., will address the joint forums of the Long Beach Chapter Thursday at 8 p. m. in the Institute Center, 440 E. Ninth St., it was announced by Dr. John Hefferlin, minister-director.

Substitute Pastor

Dr. Edward Frantz of Laverne College will be the guest preacher tomorrow at First Church of the Brethren for both morning and evening services in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Norman J. Baugher.
