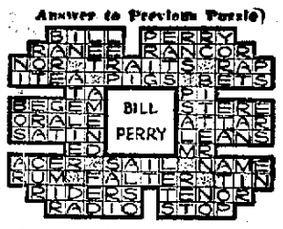
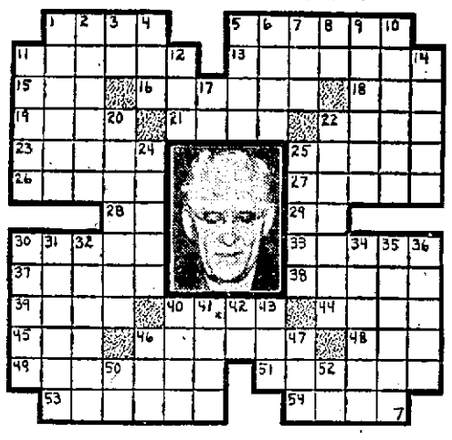
Answer to Previous Puzzle





SENATOR SOAPER SAYS:

Knee-high by the Fourth of July continues to be the corn standard, there being no new look in corn.

Among late radio developments, for good or ill, it is pleasing to report that the Whiffenpoofs assembled have got their song back.

A person of few words, but often, is the 19-year-old miss who has just discovered "fabulous."

In this interlude of high tension a medical publicist offers a timely sedative. Go nuts over a hobby, he argues, and keep from going nuts.

Pointing out that patents issued in the last year were fewer than in any since '88, a publicist asks: "Is American inventiveness dead?" Well, there's the new bubble gum, in colors.

How the charge of treason against a Yugoslav government happens to be in Russian we couldn't say. It is all we can do to understand Pennsylvania politics.

The condolences of the our Frankie clubs are being extended to Tom Dewey—once a promising baritone, with nothing now to show for it but a Presidential nomination.

A Provincetown boy who rode a 60-foot whale that charged his boat was rescued none the worse for the experience. It is assumed that older hands and longer arms helped with the describing.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

By HASKINS

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Long Beach Press-Telegram Information Bureau, 316 Eye St., N. E., Washington 3, D. C. Please include three (3) cents for return postage.

Q. When was the Fish and Wildlife Service established? H. R.

A. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior was established on June 30, 1940, in accordance with the President's Reorganization Plan III and by an act of Congress approved on June 4, 1940. The act consolidated the work of the Bureau of Fisheries which, formerly in the Department of Commerce, had functioned for nearly 70 years, and the Bureau of Biological Survey which was established in the Department of Agriculture over 50 years ago. This service is the federal custodian of the nation's vast fish and wildlife resources.

Q. When and where did barbershop quartets originate? P. W. B.

A. Research seems to indicate that the custom of singing in barbershops began in the South, possibly in Jacksonville, Fla., while the customers were waiting for their turns. At first, any number could and did join in the singing. The Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., was not organized until 1938.

Q. Is there a species of ant in Europe known as the fire-fighting ant which helps to prevent forest fires? A. J. R.

A. The species of ant referred to is Formica rufa. The formica acid secreted by a great number of these ants might extinguish a small fire, but it could hardly be said that they are useful in combating a forest fire.

Q. How many countries went off the gold standard during the period of world-wide depression in the 1930's? V. A.

A. Edwin Walter Kemmerer in "Gold and the Gold Standard" says that 59 countries went off the gold standard between 1929 and 1936.

Q. How many states voted a bonus for veterans after World War I? O. W. G.

A. State bonus legislation for veterans was enacted by some 20 states in the years following World War I.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. I'd have said "yes." But psychologist L. D. Hartson studied all the marriages of Oberlin College grads over the past 100 years. He found marriages of the past 40 years have averaged 1 to 2 years earlier than before that time. This surprises me although I married as ssoon as I had saved up $200. Our Married Happiness Prediction Chart strongly indicates what sort of person you should marry. Sent at cost—15c, plus self-addressed stamped envelope. Just ask for "Your Success in Marriage Tests."

Answers to Question No. 2

2. Yes, at least far more popular than they are. Why not try Douglas Lurton's famous "Seven-day Plan for Winning Friends" advocated in his fine book, "Make the Most of Your Life?" Show a genuine interest in a great many people. Call them up, write them a letter, send them a little gift, inquire about their health or the children.

3. False, and a slander on human nature. It does not mean you are a hypocrite, and wearing a mask just because you do not wish everybody to see the inner depths of your soul. Most folks are pretty good both inside and out. When one consciously wears a mask, it means he is ashamed of himself.

YOUR SUCCES IN MARRIAGE TESTS

Are you a good risk as a marriage partner?

Can you be happy with the partner of your choice?

What are the signs that foretell the success of any marriage?

Two of America's outstanding sociologists spent years searching out this vital information and now Dr. Wiggam has secured it for you. With it you can score yourself and your partner on the important factors of marriage success.

This booklet will be sent at cost, 15c and a stamped (3c) self-addressed envelope. Address Dr. Wiggam, Let's Explore Your Mind, care of this newspaper.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

TODAY'S hand, which was played in the world championship masters individual tournament, is one of the most sensational hands to come out of a championship tournament.

I happened to kabitz George Rapee, of New York City, when he played the hand. It certainly looked as if West was correct in doubling the four-spade contract, and six of the nine players who held the West hand did double. At practically every table the bidding went as shown here.

Against Rapee the six of clubs was opened. East did not put up the king. He played the 10-spot, so South won with the jack. The queen of spades was led and won by West with the king.

North: ♠ 4 2 ♥ J 10 8 5 2 ♦ K Q 10 7 ♣ 8 7
West: ♠ A K 9 8 3 ♥ Q 6 ♦ J 8 4 ♣ 6 5 2
East: ♠ None ♥ K 9 7 4 3 ♦ 6 5 3 2 ♣ K 10 9 3
South (Dealer): Rapee ♠ Q J 10 7 6 5 ♥ A ♦ A 9 ♣ A Q J 4

Tournament—Neither vul.

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	1 N.T.	Pass
4 ♠	Double	Pass	Pass

Opening—♣ 6

West returned the queen of hearts, Rapee won, cashed the ace of clubs and ruffed the small club in dummy with the four of spades.

His next play was a diamond to the ace, then a small diamond was returned, won in dummy with the queen and the king of diamonds cashed, on which Rapee discarded his last club. Then a small heart was ruffed.

At this point he was down to the jack, ten, seven and six of trump, while West was down to the ace, nine, eight and three. Rapee led the jack of spades, and no matter how West played, he could make only two more spade tricks. If he took the jack, he would have to give West another spade trick. If he ducked, declarer would lead the seven of spades.

The hand was discussed a great deal, as to whether or not any defense would defeat it, and I believe that the following play, which was not made by any West player, will defeat the contract. Lead the king of spades, and when it holds, continue with the nine of spades. Now declarer cannot ruff a club or get in two club finesses. However, I do not think that any good player would suggest that line of defense without knowing the hand.

'Nature Boy'

IT IS STRANGE that "Nature Boy" hails from Brooklyn, a city in which there is so little nature that a play was written around the extraordinary fact that a tree was growing there. —Oakland Tribune.

THOUGHTS

IT IS A strange paradox that when we seek to curb their seditious activities, the subversionists seek refuge under the protection of the same Constitution and the same Bill of Rights they are attempting to destroy. —Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R.) of Massachusetts.

VULNERABLE

THE ONLY THING certain about politics is any party, no matter how seemingly invincible today, will find itself fatally vulnerable tomorrow. That should make for both wisdom and humility.—Sacramento Bee.
