Ava Gardner 'Starts' at Top -- Co-Starring With Gregory Peck

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD — One of the quickest roads to stardom (provided you have any talent to begin with) is to get into pictures with "nothing but the best"—in the way of boxoffice attractions. So Ava Gardner's next job is any girl's dream. She gets the co-starring role opposite Gregory Peck in "The Great Sinner," which goes before the cameras in three weeks. Robert Siodmak, who directed "The Naked City," will be its director.

"Finian's Rainbow," one of Broadway's big smashes of recent years, dropped over $120,000 in its London engagement.

After all the current big publicity campaign, the Johnston office, arbiter of Hollywood's production code, etc. has told Enterprise it can't use the title "The Numbers Racket" — which stars John Garfield. They object to the word "racket" and want them to call it "The Pay-Off" or some other choice. But the studio will fight the edict. After all, the numbers racket IS a racket—and nothing else.

HAVER

June Haver and long-time beau, Dr. John Duzik, denied they'd vacation together — but they're both up at the same spot — Jackson Hole, Wyo.

The latest fracas between the Brain Donlevys will bust wide open in about two weeks. He'll try to invoke an off-the-record agreement signed by his wife which never figgered in previous court appearances. Donlevy will attempt to gain full time custody of their little daughter. He now has her for only eight months of the year.

Dave Siegal, who made millions out of being co-producer with Ken Murray of the stage show, "Blackouts" (It's been running over five years in Hollywood!), is putting some of his hard-earned gold into movie production. He's going to film a story of the Girl Scouts of America called, "Scouts Honor". Lois Butler, a recent discovery of Siegel's, who made her movie debut in "Mickey" a few months ago, will have the lead.

Mickey Rooney's outlandish attire attracts more attention at the Hollywood ball games than the players—or the girl the Mick happens to be with. His get-ups beggar description — but you might say he looks like an excerpt from a bobby - soxer's nightmare in a wild combination of sneakers, blazer, turned-up trousers, and brightly colored pork-pie hat.

ROONEY

Edward Arnold, George Tobias, Card Post, and others are helping the Los Angeles Womens Symphony orchestra stage a series of three Bach concerts, which are to become an annual event. The first is early in October—and they're a superb group of musicians.

Edith Leslie, the character actress, is lending her 245 pounds and over 6 feet of talent to a role in "The Soft Touch" but works at Birmingham hospital as a physiotherapist in her off hours. Says she won't give full-time to acting again until she's no longer needed there.

Jimmy Cagney, Humphrey Bogart, John Wayne, and John Ford have invested a big wad of money in Emerald Cove over at Catalina and plan to build a smart and exclusive yacht club there. A two and a half million dollar project.

When Director Howard Hawks was testing femmes for one of the leads in "I Was A Male War Bride," which will star Cary Grant and Ann Sheridan, he tested both Marian Marshall (his girl friend) and Barbara Lawrence. He turned the cameras on the Lawrence gal first, with the Marshall doll looking on and frequently "conferring" with Hawks during the test. Well, that's one way of putting a film aspirant at her ease—we DON'T think!

Mark Stevens, just about finished with "Sand," has his work cut out for him. His next will be a modern comedy-drama called "Living With Connie." Quite a jump from the FBI thriller, "Street With No Name."

Boyoboy! If you don't think the economy wave is really on, dig this! Cecil de Mille who usually takes his time and lots and lots of money every time he makes a picture, has been told by Paramount to finish "Samson and Delilah" in 62 days and within the $3,000,000 budget. That is a high budget these days, but "Samson" is also a big spectacle and they cost plenty! If de Mille goes overboard with this one on either time or money, he will have to finance the "finishing touches" with his own money! When he made "The Unconquered" he took 93 days and spent over four million dollars so we imagine he's having himself a nice big headache at the edict just handed him.

DE MILLE

Centennial Fair Closes; Takes $100,000 Profit

MILWAUKEE — Wisconsin's biggest show is over.

The centennial exposition, celebrating Wisconsin's 100th year of statehood, closed at the state fair park in suburban Milwaukee Sunday night.

The three-week exposition drew close to 1,180,000 visitors from Wisconsin and neighboring states.

Financially the show was a success, according to Fair Manager Ralph Ammon.

He said the event will show about $100,000 profit when all bills are paid. The money will be added to the state fund, he said.

Singer Stays at Same 'Spot' for 10 Years

By JACK GARVER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK—One of the most popular singers in New York—and one of the most constantly employed — gets little publicity. He is Billy Banks of the Diamond Horseshoe.

However elaborate may be the floor show at this night club, the customers always come away talking about Billy, who sings before and between the shows. He has plenty of voice and a seemingly endless repertoire of popular songs.

He can croon as softly as Sinatra and he can boom out something like "Ol' Man River" until the chandelier vibrates. And he can accompany his vocalizing with stand-still or ambulating strutting that is out of this world.

The Negro singer, who used to be with Noble Sissle's band, went on his own in 1938 and on Christmas night of that year began a run at the Horseshoe which has never been broken. He estimates that he has given 7,150 performances there—two shows on weekdays and three Saturday nights—without a single absence.

Producer Max Gordon has finally achieved his goal of a play that has run 1,000 performances on Broadway. "Born Yesterday" did it for him after a producing career of a quarter of a century during which he has had many long-run successes. His nearest approach previously was with "My Sister Eileen," which was good for 865 showings. "Born Yesterday," of course, is still turning a nice profit.

Sept. 11 has been set as the closing date for "Command Decision," the William Wister Haines war play which many of us thought was the best dramatic work of the 1947-48 season. It opened at the Fulton Theater last Oct. 1.

On Sept. 14 the company, headed by Paul Kelly, will start an extensive tour in Hartford, Conn.

Marc Connelly's first play in several years, "A Story for Strangers," has been purchased by Dwight Deere Wiman.

The repertory company organized in the season just ended for the City Center of Music and Drama will have a home of its own for at least a part of the 1948-49 season, thus leaving the City Center with more time for its opera troupe. The Marquis de Cuevas' offer of his International Theater for a trial period until Jan. 1, 1949 was accepted by the City Center board.

During her stay in California, she has played at the House of Murphy, Charlie Barnet's Doll House, Chi Chi's, and Laguna Beach.

DISCS OF THE DAY: On the popular side . . .

* Three Suns (Victor): "Remind Me to Tell You" and "Simon Says," vocals by Artie Dunn and Sun Maids . . . Former is in the Suns' usual tasteful manner, with nice singing. Latter is a novelty number that's only a filler.

 Wayne King (Victor): "Call Me Darling" and "To You Sweetheart Aloha," vocals by Nancy Evans . . . Typical King clefting.

 Johnny Desmond and Dell trio (Columbia): "Lillette," a pleasant ballad pleasantly done, and "Bella Bella Marie."

 Harry James (Columbia): "Evry Day I Love You" and "There's Music in the Land", vocals by Marion Morgan . . . Two tunes from "Two Guys from Texas," both getting a gay handling.

 Jerry Wayne (Columbia): "You Call Everybody Darling" and "Cuckoo Waltz" . . . A voice with a lift, backed by small combination that matches.

 "Louis Armstrong All-Stars," with Jack Teagarden (Victor) . . . Six sides recorded last year at Town Hall. This sounds like a "must" for jazz lovers, with both Armstrong and Teagarden doing their solos in cruising gear. Tunes include "Rockin' Chair," "Ain't Misbehavin'," "Pennies from Heaven," "St. James Infirmary."

 "Mood" Ellington (Columbia): Let's quote the Billboard—"a package of original Duke which should warm the heart of any of Edward Kennedy's admirers. In some solos there are moments of the 'most' in tasty jazz while other sections are submerged in fragile beauty."

 "Selections from Rose-Marie," recorded by Al Goodman orchestra, soloists, and chorus (Victor) . . . A good job in every department, with soloists Charles Fredericks, Marion Bell, and Christina Lind doing particularly fine work.
