Tele-Views

Television, rapidly growing up, now has a Sunday night entertainment schedule strong enough to rival the bigtime shows on radio networks. Things get under way at 7 o'clock with the Original Amateur Hour and the WABD-Dumont network. At 7 30, NBC presents the new "Welcome Hour" show featuring Russ Morgan's orchestra, augmented tonight by comedians Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis plus the dancing Step Brothers.

WJZ-TV offers a solid hour of noteworthy entertainment at 8 o'clock, starting with "Hollywood Screen Test" which presents comedienne Patricia Bright and the young actor Leslie Cutler as tonight's featured performers. At 8 30 tonight "Actor's Studio" presents an adaptation of the Katherine Brush short story "Night Club" starring Joan McCracken.

NBC's new Television Playhouse at 9 p m competing with Ed Sullivan's CBS variety show, opens tonight with the George S. Kaufman Edna Ferber comedy, "Dinner at Eight" starring Peggy Wood Dennis King Mary Boland and Vicki Cummings Using seven different stage acts, the program entails the largest set production job yet tackled by NBC.

Beginning next Sunday, Garry Moore's "Take It or Leave It" quiz will be televised by NBC during its regular radio performance at 10 p m

WJZ-TV starts a series of old time silent movies Sundays at 9 p m with H B Warner starring in "The Crusaders" tonight. Coming attractions "Husbands and Lovers" with Elizabeth Bergner and Emil Jennings, Oct 10, "The Son of the Sheik" with Rudolph Valentino Oct 17, "Tarzan of the Apes" with Elmo Lincoln, Oct. 24 and "The Great Divide" with Henry B Walthall Oct 31.

Red Barber has been selected to handle the play-by-play assignment for the pooled television broadcasts of the World Series, starting Wednesday. Barber will be assisted at the Boston games by Tom Hussey and at Cleveland (unless there's a last minute change) by Van Patrick. The Series broadcasts, on all video outlets will begin at 12:45 p. m.

VIEWING AHEAD Bob Howard's lively 15-minute show will be heard nightly at 6 45 on WCBS-TV henceforth Walter Kiernan will have himself a time in the Hotel New Yorker's famed $100 a-day suite on his WJZ-TV show Monday night at 7 30 Jessie Royce Landis and Will Geer are starred in "Mirage in Manhattan" over WNBT Monday at 8 p m with Eric Rhodes Helene Reynolds and Alan Stevenson Willie Turness noted golfer will be Johnny Farrell's WABD guest Monday at 8 30 p m Norman Thomas and Rep Clifford P Case will be on opposite sides as WABD's "Court of Current Issues" takes up the free enterprise system Monday night at 9 30 . . . Mimi Benzell "Met" soprano, will visit Zero Mostel and Joey Faye on WABD Tuesday at 7 p m . . . Chico Marx, Joe Phillips, the Lang acrobatic troupe and the Slate brothers will be Milton Berle's Star Theater guests on WNBT Tuesday at 8 p.m.

"America's Town Meeting" will be televised by WJZ-TV starting Tuesday night at 8 30 . . . It will be Texas Babe Sharkey vs. Steve Casey as WNBT begins airing wrestling matches from St. Nicholas Arena, Tuesday at 9 50 p m. . . . As "Girl About Town" Kyle MacDonnell's WNBT guest Wednesday at 8 p.m., Boston bandleader Ranny Weeks will sing "Tessie," the official song that spurred the Boston Braves to victory in the 1914 World Series . . . Lenore Aubert, Viennese film actress, will be the Video Snapshot Contest subject on WABD's "Photographic Horizons" Wednesday at 8 p m . . . Further broadcasts of the Madison Square Garden rodeo are scheduled on CBS-TV Thursday night and Saturday afternoon . . . Dolly Stark and Caswell Adams are doing a new sports program over WCBS-TV Friday at 7 p m. . . . Unless the World Series interferes, the video audience will have its choice Saturday of the Yale-Columbia football game on WNBT and WNHC-TV, or the Penn-Princeton game on WPIX . . . "Vanity Fair," a twice-weekly daytime program for women, begins over WCBS-TV Oct. 12 at 1 p m.

Bowes' Successor

Ted Mack, understudy to the late Major Edward Bowes, now presides as master-of-ceremonies over the "Original Amateur Hour" Sundays at 7 p. m. on the Dumont Television network and Wednesdays at 8 p. m. over the WNAB-ABC network.
