Sewell Avery Re-elected Ward's Board Chairman

CHICAGO, April 23. (AP) Montgomery Ward and Company today could concentrate on its job of selling diamonds and babies' nipples. It had gone through another managerial uproar, and Sewell Avery, the 75-year-old chairman, still was on top.

Along with the diamonds and babies' nipples were hundreds of other items which Avery assured stockholders yesterday were high quality merchandise. He said it wasn't that way when he came to Ward's in 1931. Then, he said, Ward's was just a "low grade mail order house."

Stockholders liked what Avery said and they gave him a thumping vote of approval, re-electing him a director. Directors liked it, too. They promptly re-elected Avery chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer of the nation's second largest merchandising firm.

It was a great personal triumph for Avery—not only because he won re-election after a top management blowup and expressions of disapproval by several leading stockholders, but also because he garnered more votes than the other three nominees for directors. They were elected, too.

Ward's still was left with the problem of finding a new president to fill the vacancy created when Wilbur Norton resigned last year. Presumably, this president will be in line for taking over control of the firm when, and if, Avery retires.

Avery told newsmen after yesterday's stockholders meeting that he already had submitted the names of four men as presidential candidates to the board of directors. He didn't say why the board had not approved them, or whether it might still accept one.

U. N. Refuses Trials Inquiry

LAKE SUCCESS, April 23. (AP) The United Nations has turned down demands for a U. N. inquiry now into the trials of Hungarian Cardinal Mindszenty and Bulgarian Protestant churchmen.

Instead, a big majority in the U. N. Assembly's 58-nation special political committee gave its blessing to efforts of the United States, Britain and other peace treaty signers to settle the dispute by direct contact with the two Soviet satellites. The Soviet Union and her five Communist neighbors in the U. N. voted "no."

The resolution adopted by the committee expressed "deep concern" at the grave accusations made against the governments of Bulgaria and Hungary regarding suppression of human rights and fundamental freedoms in those countries." It called on the two governments to "co-operate in the settlement of all these questions" in negotiations with the signers of the peace treaties.

Proposed by Bolivia, the resolution was passed by a vote of 34 to 6, with 11 nations abstaining. Voting against the declaration were Russia, White Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Ukraine and Yugoslavia.

Visit by Princess Would Please Pope

VATICAN CITY, April 23. (AP) Unofficial sources here today said a visit by England's Princess Margaret Rose to Pope Pius XII would please the Vatican.

Two Protestant organizations in England yesterday asked King George VI to see to it that his daughter does not visit the Pope during her proposed tour in Italy, beginning next week.

Recalling past encounters between pontiffs and members of Britain's royal house, the unofficial informants here said the 18-year-old princess would be received, if she calls on the Pope, with all the honors due her rank. The fact that Margaret is a Protestant is not considered a bar to such a meeting here.

Contract Slated on Festival Fund

The city's centennial committee yesterday authorized a contract with California Centennials Commission by which the state group will pay 50 per cent of the $5890 cost of putting on the local centennial celebration May 7-11.

Mayor Burton W. Chace and David Olmsted, chairman of the local committee, will sign the contract as individuals although they will actually represent the city.

Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz will be grand marshal of the pioneer days parade May 7 which will usher in the five-day fete.

Movie Unionists Sue for Jobless Benefits

LOS ANGELES, April 23. (U.P.) Jobless members of the A. F. L. Motion Picture Painters and Scenic Artists Local 644 today sued three state agencies to get $120,000 unemployment compensation which they claimed after a 1946 Hollywood strike.

The suit, filed yesterday by Union Secretary-treasurer Henry Kistner on behalf of 300 members, charged nine major studios refused to rehire them after the local reversed its policy in October, 1947, and said they could return to work. The union said jobs had been filled by members of a rival labor group, so painters were not employed although not on strike.

$75 and $43 Taken in 2 Burglaries Here

A burglar last night pried the molding off a door, entered the Municipal Service Men's Club, 350 E. Ocean Blvd., and took $75 from a desk, police reported.

Burglars last night entered through a window at 2812 Long Beach Blvd. and took $43 from a metal box, police said.

New Foghorn Only Gasps in First Actual Day of Use

THE NEW Coast Guard fog signal in the $100,000 robot lighthouse at the Long Beach Harbor entrance hardly said "boo" when it was turned on yesterday for the first time—in the worst fog here in months.

Air compressor trouble was reported to have delayed proper functioning of the horn, which operates along with a 140,000-candlepower light and a radio direction-finding transmitter.

The Long Beach radar station last night served pilots of both Long Beach and Los Angeles Harbors. Los Angeles pilots were told the positions of three vessels, outside the harbor entrance, which they were expecting.

The radar also enabled Long Beach pilots to take the positions of the Danish freighter, Morelia, which arrived last night. She was located by the instrument as she approached the port entrance and a pilot took a bearing on her from the radar station, enabling him to bring her inside to anchor for quarantine.

Innocent Plea Made for Trio

DOVER, Del., April 23. (AP) A twice-married mother and her two sons heard a judge enter pleas of "innocent" for them in the lonely hearts slaying of a 67-year-old farmer.

Mrs. Inez Brennan, 44, and her youngest child, Robert, 15, are accused of murdering Wade N. Wooldridge of Bedford, Va. Raymond Brennan, 23, is charged with being an accessory after the fact.

Delaware state police, testifying at yesterday's arraignment of the trio, named Robert as the actual slayer.

Keith asked: "How do you plead?"

The plump mother gasped. She wiped her forehead, then muttered an almost inaudible "no." It didn't answer anything.

The boys straightened their shoulders. Both said firmly, loudly: "Guilty."

The judge, however, ruled that guilty pleas are not accepted in Delaware in capital offense cases. He ordered the court clerk to enter pleas of innocent, then held the three without bail for the grand jury.

Penalty for first degree murder conviction in Delaware is hanging; for an accessory charge—a fine of $1000, three years in prison or both.

Crash Bodies to Be Recovered

INYOKERN, April 23. (AP) Ground crews will attempt to bring the bodies of seven Navy plane crash victims, five of them scientists, out of the Sierra Nevada Mountains today.

The plane, missing since Feb. 3, was found yesterday 17 miles northwest of here near Owens Peak. Searchers reported that it had burned. It had been covered by snow.

The Navy identified the dead as Dr. F. K. L. MacDonald, Stanley, Nova Scotia; Dr. John J. McKinley, Brighton, Colo.; Myron G. Kellogg, Santa Rosa, Calif.; Rodney Morrin, Waterman, Calif.; Joseph A. Vargus, Inyokern; Comdr. Alphonse Minvielle, San Francisco, pilot, and Lt. (j. g.) C. L. Mathus, Pittsburgh, Pa., co-pilot.

The craft was lost soon after taking off from here for Alameda Naval Air Station. The wreckage was first sighted from the air Thursday.

Unionists in Appeal for Captive Germans

BERLIN, April 23. (AP) The anti-Communist Trade Union Federation of Berlin today appealed to the International Red Cross in Geneva to intervene on behalf of Germans held without trial in concentration camps in the Russian occupation zone.

The resolution was presented by the West Berlin Press Association, specifically on behalf of several reporters from anti-Communist newspapers who have been seized by the Russians.

Coast Guard Taking More Men Monthly

A quota increase now will enable the United States Coast Guard in this area to enlist 30 additional recruits each month, Lt. C. J. Galvin, recruiting officer, anounced today. Those interested may apply at Coast Guard headquarters, Room 725, Times Bldg.

Seal Beach Foes of Gambling Plan Initiative Ban

SEAL BEACH, April 23. First attempt toward adoption by vote of the people of a municipal law to ban for all time the invasion of this city by professional gambling interests was taken last night by citizens assembling in the Community Methodist Church auditorium. An organization was formed to be known as the "Civic Improvement Association."

Those assembled instructed the association's legal committee, headed by Edwin A. Doolittle, to prepare, with assistance of competent municipal law authorities, an intention to circulate an initiative petition and to draft a new ordinance for presentation to the association for consideration as one to replace the present city "antigambling" ordinance.

The "intent to circulate" is to be published next week in Thursday editions of local newspapers.

Richard Steyling, 1008 Seal Way, former temporary chairman, was named permanent chairman of the association. He stated that objective of the group is to prevent the opening of draw poker emporiums but not to stop card parties by service, civic and veteran groups. Steyling stressed the point that he has no political aspirations and will only head the association during the present controversy.

Friday night was set as next tentative meeting date in the civic auditorium.

Auto Breaks Leg of Girl, 7

Susan Wingo, 7, of 934 E. Fourth St., suffered a broken left leg yesterday afternoon when struck by a car on Fourth St., near her home. Witnesses told police of seeing the child dart into the street from between parked cars. The driver, Clarence A. Knorr, 62, of 1747 Rose Ave., was not held to blame. Knorr said he was unable to avoid striking the youngster. She was taken to Seaside Hospital.

Mrs. Bernadette Olson, 55, of 502 Walnut Ave., a passenger in one of two colliding cars at San Antonio Dr. and California Ave. yesterday afternoon, received a possible fracture of the pelvis and a strained back. She was taken to Harriman Jones Clinic.

Police said she was riding with Gabriel Fosholdt, 64, of 518 Walnut Ave. The other driver was Robert D. Moore, 23, of 9430 Oak St., Bellflower. Neither driver was injured.

Workers at Ford Plant Vote Strike

DETROIT, April 23. (U.P.) Production workers at the Ford Motor Co.'s River Rouge plant overwhelmingly voted a strike today to protest union claims of an assembly line speedup.

Approval of the strike came as the Bendix Aviation Corp. strike at South Bend, Ind., further crippled auto production by shutting off the supply of brake equipment to major producers.

Thomas Thompson, president of Ford Local 600 of the U. A. W.-C. I. O., said workers approved the strike action by a vote of 32,290 to 4400.

Most of Nation's Weather Clear

CHICAGO, April 23. (AP) Fair weather and mild temperatures were general over most parts of the country today.

The mercury soared above the 100-degree mark yesterday for the first time this year. The hot weather was in the desert region of Southern California-Arizona. Indio, Calif., had the day's high, 104. At Yuma, Ariz., the mercury touched 103 and it was 100 at Phoenix.

The wet spots today included the New England states but skies were expected to clear later today. Some light rain also fell along the Washington coast and in southern Texas.

Chinese Gunfire Hits R. A. F. Plane

LONDON, April 23. (AP) The Air Ministry said today an RAF flying boat was damaged by small arms fire from the ground today during a reconnaissance flight over the battered sloop, Amethyst, in the Yangtze River. It said there were no casualties.

One of the plane's main gasoline tanks was punctured and loss of fuel forced the plane to return to base.

City Manager Kept Home by Old Injury

Because of continued trouble with his left knee, which was injured in World War II, City Manager Carl B. Wirsching is confined to his home here. He was not at the city hall yesterday. He has been on crutches during the past week, since the knee condition became worse.

BOTH TIRED

Stickup Agrees With Stickup

CHICAGO, April 23. (AP) A man who walked into the Leader Cleaners and Dyers shop yesterday asked Miss Louise Seier, 34, about getting a special rate for a lot of cleaning.

"I'll have to call the manager," Miss Seier told him.

"Never mind, this is a stickup," the man said, pulling a gun and walking to the cash drawer where he took $25.

"I'm getting tired of getting held up," Miss Seier complained as the gunman rifled the money box. "This is the fourth time it's happened to me this year."

The gunman had a final comment:

"You think you're getting tired. I'm getting tired of pulling stickups."

Douglas Improved

LONDON, April 23. (AP) American embassy sources reported continuing improvement today in the condition of Ambassador Lewis Douglas' left eye, which was snagged by a fish hook in a fishing accident on April 4. The chances of saving the sight of the eye were reported still good.

70,000 Empty Hospital Beds

NEW YORK, April 23. (AP) The government, Herbert Hoover charges, needlessly is enlarging its hospital system at a cost up to 50 per cent more than private hospitals.

He urges a united medical administration to co-ordinate five different federal hospital services—Army, Navy, veterans, public health and aid to private hospitals.

The former President wound up a series of five broadcasts last night. In each of them, he discussed the work of the commission on organization of the government, which he headed.

Hoover said medical expenditures are "one of the worst overlaps and wastes and inefficiencies in the whole federal administration."

The government has 70,000 empty beds in its hospitals, he said, but is planning 50,000 more beds.

The entire medical program costs the government $2,000,000,000 a year, he added.

A commission survey, Hoover declared, led President Truman to suspend $400,000,000 worth of new hospital construction, already authorized.

Camera Doing Detective Work in Study of Cancer

PALO ALTO, April 23. (AP) A camera which takes a picture every minute, day and night, of living pigment cells, is doing some detective work on one of the most vicious forms of cancer.

The cells contain melanin, a coloring matter which makes black moles black. In humans these cells sometimes turn cancerous, causing malignant melanoma. It is particularly deadly because, once started, it spreads rapidly.

Researchers under Dr. Victor C. Twitty at Stanford University have cultured some of these cells in a tiny glass tube which they keep constantly under a bright light. A special slow motion camera snaps a picture of the tube once a minute. This gives the experimenters a continuous record of the growth and behavior of the cells.

They have learned so far that these cells have a sort of lone wolf complex and travel a lot. The cells apparently originate in the spinal cord and migrate to the skin, hair and other parts which they color.

When two migrating pigment cells come together, says Dr. Twitty, one or both release a compound which causes them to get away from each other. This was seen when two cells were put together in a glass tube having a channel only 1-500th of an inch in diameter.

Malignant pigment cells also repel each other, Dr. Twitty adds. What this means is not yet known. However, the camera record of their behavior some day may yield a clue as to why they spread so fast after turning cancerous.

The research is financed by the American Cancer Society.

Lions Hear Travel Talk

Anecdotes of her travels in New Zealand, Australia and India and trumpet solo selections were presented by Mrs. Grace Adams East, speaker and entertainer, yesterday at a ladies' day program of the Lions Club.

Mrs. East, who made her trumpet debut some years ago with the Long Beach Municipal Band, played selections typical of the countries she visited.

In cold climates, she told the Lions and their wives, the music is predominantly fast. In warm climates, the native music is langorous.

Mrs. East was in India just prior to World War II and she said that the Indians felt more kindly to the Japanese at that time than to any other country. They felt antagonistic to both the western allies and Germany, she said.

Mrs. East was introduced by Mrs. Eddie Baker, chairman. Mrs. Thomas Camp presided.

Lilienthal Warns on Atom Bombs

SEATTLE, Wash., April 23. (U.P.) Chairman David E. Lilienthal of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission warn that the United States must not rely solely on the belief it possesses the only atomic weapons.

In a speech last night at the University of Washington, Lilienthal evaded the question whether other nations had enough uranium or plutonium to construct the bomb.

He pointed out that this country leads the world "in all aspects of atomic development than at any time since the end of the war" but warned against developing any false sense of security.

Ireland in Sympathy With Atlantic Pact

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23. (AP) Ireland believes in the Atlantic pact—but she cannot enter into such an alliance as long as Britain occupies part of Eire.

That is what Sean MacBride, foreign minister of the Irish Republic, told a news conference here yesterday.

Ireland is in sympathy with the hopes and aspirations of the pact, MacBride said, "but we cannot enter into a military alliance with Great Britain while she occupies a portion of our country against our will."

Woman, 26, Stabs Mother Fatally

NEW YORK, April 23. (AP) A waitress, who sat watching as her mother died of stab wounds, was held today on charges that she wielded the death knife—a gift she gave her mother.

Police said that June Lang, 26, was charged with homicide after she admitted plunging the knife twice into her mother's chest last night because "she called me a dirty name."

The daughter was quoted by police as saying she watched the gravely wounded woman crawl from a bedroom into a hall where she bled to death. Then she sat beside the body until her twin sister, May, returned home.

Aged Woman Pilot Dies on River Boat

CINCINNATI, April 23. (AP) Capt. Mary Becker Greene, the only licensed woman steamboat pilot on the Mississippi-Ohio River system, died yesterday on the river that she had cruised for 59 years. She would have been 81 years old next June 30.

Mrs. Greene died on the Delta Queen, only a day after she and her son, Capt. Tom Greene, had brought the boat in here from a three-week round trip to New Orleans.

REV. CLARENCE SMITH

Two Leading at Revival

Announcement was made today by Rev. Bill Lewis, pastor of Long Beach Assembly of God Church, 1200 Atlantic Ave., that a revival campaign will begin tomorrow with Evangelists Rev. Clarence Smith and Bruce Rogers of Granite City, Ill., conducting. This team is well known from Atlantic to Pacific coast. Rev. Smith is an experienced gospel preacher, as well as a successful revival campaign, camp meeting and convention speaker. Rev. Bruce Rogers conducts the congregational singing. Rev. Smith will preach tomorrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., and nightly except Monday and Saturday. The campaign is scheduled to close May 8. Music and gospel singing are featured every evening.

Episcopalian Calls for Unity

GAMBIER, Ohio, April 23. (AP) The Anglican Church is the logical uniting force of other Christian religions, an Episcopal educator said today.

Rev. Alexander C. Zabriskie, dean of the Virginia Theological Seminary, struck that theme in his speech before the Interseminary Conference of Ministerial Students at Bexley Hall, Kenyon College Divinity School. Some 75 students from seminaries in this country and Canada are attending the conference.

First, however, the Anglican church should be unified according to organic human communities instead of huge international denominations, Rev. Zabriskie said.

Because of these "communities," the Anglican churches may become the center of a unified church organization by both Catholic and Protestant churches, he added.

Organic human communities were defined as the family, a town or village, a section of a large city, or even the nation.

"Within these natural organic communities," he continued, "there are people who by instinct and temperament gravitate toward the Catholic, the Protestant or the Christian humanist tradition.

"Therefore, it seems to me that the destiny of the Anglican churches is to be the nuclei around which both Catholic and Protestant churches can organize themselves into a united church of the living God in these various communities.

Ex-minister, 150 Kin to Meet at Picnic

Rev. C. N. McMillan, a retired Methodist minister formerly of northwestern Iowa, in compiling a history of his family, finds that more than 150 of his kin reside in Southern California. They will gather in Bixby Park for a family picnic tomorrow at 1 p. m.

McMillan came to Long Beach in 1945. He says he has found records of the Woods family dating back to 1634; the Lake family to 1636, and the Crampton family to 1635. He has traced 7000 living kin.

VIENNA, Austria, April 23. (AP) Jewish refugees from Hungary said today that the anti-Semitic attitude of authorities and the Communist population of that country has increased in recent weeks.

They declared that the position of Jews in Hungary who do not belong to the Communist party has become more and more difficult.

Authorities at the Vienna Jewish refugee camp said that 1200 refugees from Hungary arrived at the camp last night.

MacArthur Orders New Jap Yen Rate

TOKYO, April 23. (U.P.) Gen. Douglas MacArthur today ordered the Japanese government to adopt an official foreign exchange rate of 360 yen to one U. S. dollar.

The new rate is still below the black market rate, which until today has been around 380 to 390 to one.

Editors May Cite Public Services by Newspapers

WASHINGTON, April 23. (AP) The American Society of Newspaper Editors today weighed a plan to give recognition to notable public services performed by newspapers.

A proposal that the society make annual selections of "distinguished contributions to the public interest by newspapers" was among 10 resolutions awaiting action on the A. S. N. E. convention's final day.

The choosing of the judges—a standing A. S. N. E. committee—would be left to B. M. McKelway, editor of the Washington Star, who was elected president today.

As first vice president, McKelway, by tradition, was unopposed to succeed Erwin D. Canham, editor of the Christian Science Monitor.

The A. S. N. E. board of directors chose Dwight Young, editor of the Dayton (Ohio) Journal Herald to be first vice president. Alexander F. Jones, assistant to the publisher of the Washington Post, was named second vice president; Wright Bryan, editor of the Atlanta Journal, was re-elected secretary, and Dwight S. Perrin, editor of the Syracuse (N. Y.) Herald-Journal was elected treasurer.

Following off-the-record addres-

Following off-the-record addresses by top administration officials yesterday, Sen. Taft (R.-Ohio) was scheduled as today's on-the-record luncheon speaker. His topic was "The Future of the Republican Party."

Secretary of Defense Johnson last night gave the editors an off-record earful of military information with the help of two high strategy-makers of the military establishment—Maj. Gen. A. M. Gruenther, director of the joint staff of the chiefs of staff, and Maj. Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer.

Services to Open at New Church

Members of the new Los Alamitos Baptist Church will hold the first regular church services with their regular pastor, Rev. Arthur A. LeMaster, tomorrow morning and evening. The church was dedicated last Sunday afternoon. It is at 3002 Green St., corner of Bloomfield Ave. The Sunday school will open at 9:30 a. m. The youth vespers and fellowship are at 6:30 p. m.

The congregation was established through the efforts of the men of First Baptist Church of Bellflower and guidance of Rev. Ernest Hasselblad, and the Bellflower Men's Bible Class. The men of the two groups contributed their labor to erect and finish the church building and sponsored such services as were conducted at Los Alamitos. More than 150 persons were present at the dedication.
