Two unusual motion pictures will open today. They are "The Red Shoes" at the Parkway and "Monsieur Vincent" at the Madison.

"The Red Shoes" was chosen as one of the "10 best films of 1948" by the National Board of Review, representing civic, school, and religious bodies. It is an adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen's story of the same name, with a cast including Leonide Massine, the dancer; Anton Walbrook, Marius Goring, Moira Shearer, Albert Basserman, and others.

The picture includes a full-length ballet, with music by the Royal Philharmonic orchestra under the baton of Sir Thomas Beecham. Massine dances the role of the shoemaker in this sequence.

Monsieur Vincent" is the story of Vincent dePaul, humble French priest who became one of the world's great social reformers. His name has been perpetuated in the St. Vincent dePaul society, which administers charities.

Pierre Fresnay's performance in the title role was called "no less than superb" by Film Daily, trade publication. The picture won the four highest film awards in Europe—the Grand Prix de Cinema Francais, the Grand Prix International, the Grand Prix de la Presse Belge, and the Film Tribunal acting award of the London Daily Express.

Its production was financed by gifts from more than 100,000 French men, women, and children of all religious and political beliefs.
