UW Band to Broadcast Commencement Music

The University of Wisconsin band will mark the university's Centennial commencement week with special music during its broadcasts over 64 radio stations in Wisconsin and Upper Michigan this week.

The band plays the "Wisconsin Centennial March," composed by Prof. Raymond F. Dvorak, director of the Badger bands for many years. Other band numbers include the "King Henry" march and Rossini's "Inflammatus" in which Clifford Morell, a music school student from Omro, is featured soloist.

Intermission speaker is Robert Olen, general manager, Four Wheel Drive Co., Clintonville.

Asemblymen OK Raise in Own Mileage Money

The legislators in the future will get more mileage money for their weekly trips home if the governor signs a bill that won approval in the assembly Friday.

The bill raises the mileage allowance of legislators and state employes to 6 cents for the first 2,000 miles each month and 5 cents for additional mileage.

Legislators now get 3 cents a mile and state employes 5 and 4 cents.

4-Year, General Course Asked for State Colleges

A bill permitting any teachers college in the state to offer a four-year liberal arts course was introduced in the assembly Friday.

The measure was sponsored by 22 assemblymen. It permits the board of teachers regents to set up a four-year liberal arts course at any or all of the nine state teachers colleges.

The Superior college now is the only one with such an arrangement.

St. Paul Man Pleads Innocent to Cop Killing

MINNEAPOLIS —(U.P.)— Gustave Johnson, 26, one of four St. Paul-men accused of killing a Richfield, Minn., policeman, pleaded innocent Friday to charges of first degree murder.

Disa. Judge D. E. LaBelle ordered him held without bond for the September court term.

Johnson and three others—Arthur Bistram, 37, his brother, Carl, 27, and Allen Hartman, 20—were indicted for the slaying of Policeman Fred Babcock, Jr., during an attempted burglary in suburban Richfield last Saturday.

Johnson was captured shortly after the shooting. he other three fled through North Dakota, South Dakota, and Nebraska. Arthur Bistram surrendered in Nebraska but Carl Bistram and Hartman were not taken until they crashed their stolen car in Kansas.

DISCS OF THE DAY: On the popular side . . .

Frankie Carle: "Let a Smile Be Your Umbrella" and "Sweet Sue." Two oldies that are practically "standards." The voice belongs to Gregg Lawrence.

Perry Como: "Blue Room" and "With a Song of My Heart." Same classification. And Perry sounds easy and relaxed.

Tommy Dorsey: "While the Angelus Was Ringing" and "So in Love." Denny Dennis does the singing, but doesn't do so well with the Cole Porter tune. The orchestra sounds great.

Sammy Kaye: "Powder Your Face" and Careless Hands." The Kaydets sing, with Don Cornell adding his voice to the second side.

Doris Day and Buddy Clark: "Powder Your Face" and "I'll String Along With You." The second side accounts for a good deal of the tune's new popularity, but the couple misses fire on the former.

Ray Noble: "Lady of Spain" and "I've Got My Love." These are 1935 recordings ,and you'll be surprised at how good they sound after 14 years.

Buddy Clark: "I Don't See Me in your Eyes Anymore" and "I Get Up Every Morning." This is an odd setup. Buddy sounds better in the latter, which isn't much of a song, than he does in the former, a rapidly rising hit.

Ray Noble: "Underneath the Linden Tree" and "The Streets of Laredo," with very ordinary singing by Ken Carson; it's the band that sells 'em.

Frank Sinatra: "Comme Ci, Comme Ca" and "While the Angelus Was Ringing." The French tune gets a great boost from Frankie, who sounds weak on "Angelus."

An extensive program of art exhibitions for the summer has been announced by the Memorial Union galleries.

Gimbel's Wisconsin Centennial art collection, which includes paintings by several Madison artists, will return July 28 for its second Madison showing. It will close Aug. 20.

The season will open Wednesday with an exhibition of master works from the collections of the University of Wisconsin and the State Historical society. It will be housed in the Union's main gallery to July 10.

Simultaneously, prints by Ernest Freed will be on view in the theater gallery.

Works of two art education instructors — Richard Arnold and Fred Lauritzen—will be shown in the main gallery from July 10 to July 27, and a collection of Polish graphics will be exhibited in the theater gallery during the same period.

FROM RADIO ROW: Summer probably will find Kenny Delmar starring as Sen. Claghorn in a situation-comedy show on NBC, half-hour a week.

The DeMarco sisters will introduce "Time Didn't Change a Thing" on the Fred Allen show June 26. It's the first song by Ann DeMarco, oldest of the sisters.

Cary Grant will appear twice on CBS' "Radio Theater" this month — June 13 with Shirley Temple in "The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer" and June 27 in "Every Girl Should Be Married."

A beer company is reported wooing Burns and Allen for a fall show.

"County Fair" will switch to Saturday afternoons at the end of summer.

"Sam Spade," now on CBS, moves to NBC for the fall and winter season.

Lee J. Cobb, star of "Death of a Salesman," may have a dramatic show on a network.

Kate Smith will have a weekly two-hour program on ABC starting Monday, July 4.

NBC is reported preparing shows starring Faye Emerson and Hank Ladd.

"The Witches Tale," a network feature almost 11 years ago, may make a come-back via Mutual.

"Welcome Travelers" will move to NBC on July 11.

Starting date for the NBC giveaway show, "Hollywood Calling," reportedly has been set for July 31.

Fred Allen will finish his season with the same guest with whom he started it — Henry Morgan. The date is June 26.

"Theater Guild on the Air," which signed off for the summer last Sunday, wil return Sept. 12 over NBC.

Two Plead Innocent to Gas Station Jobs

APPLETON — (AP) — George Lenz, 25, formerly of Oshkosh, and Julius Kropok, Jr., Racine, pleaded innocent Friday to charges of breaking and entering and grand larceny in connection with a filling station robbery last Saturday night.

Preliminary hearings were set for June 17 by Municipal Judge Oscar Schmiege and the men were returned to the Outagamie county jail when they they could not furnish bonds of $5,000 each.

Lenz and Kropok were trapped by police early Thursday at Union Grove. Sheriff Harry Zarling of Winnebago county said they admitted taking an 800-pound safe from the Shell-Bryant filling station there.
