LEAVE IT TO JOAN: When Joan Davis celebrated her birthday last week on the set of "Turned Up Toes" at 20th Century-Fox, producer and cast members gave her a surprise party at which she was not the only one surprised. No definite arrangement was made about the cake and, as a result, three huge cakes turned up for the occasion.

RADIO: Margaret Whiting will join the cast of the "Jack Smith Show" Aug. 22 when it resumes after a summer hiatus.

Ben Gage, husband of screen star Esther Williams, will be the star of his own network radio show, "The Singing Detective," in the fall.

ABC has prepared a new quiz starring brothers Wendell and Ken Niles.

Bert Parks, emcee of "Stop The Music," formerly was vocalist on Eddie Cantor's show.

Sammy Kaye and his Swing and Sway band may travel to Europe this fall.

Maestro Mark Warnow is making plans to revive his Blue Velvet orchestra.

Harold (Gildersleeve) Peary is set for two summer stock appearances, one at La Jolla, Calif., the other at Santa Fe, N. M.

Oscar Levant cut a record last week for CBS on a five-a-week show titled "I Shouldn't Have Said It."

"Bazooka" Bob Burns is getting set to try radio again. He auditions at NBC this week with Singer Shirley Ross heading the supporting cast.

Curt Massey is knocking himself out. In addition to six air shows a week, last week he helped open a local postoffice, appeared on NBC video, and entertained the Pasadena (Calif.) Junior Chamber.

Character actress Jane Darwell auditions her "Hanna's Hollywood Haven" this week. It's set in a theatrical boarding house.
